ENTERTAINMENT AND RECEPTION FOR TEACHERS.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the entertainment and reception given Friday night by the School Improvement League to the Covington and parish teachers and friends of the school. The entertainment was held at the Southern Hotel. The reception hall was brilliant with its graceful and artistic decorations: its bright lights and the beautiful flowers. The following program was enjoyed:

Plano Solo—"On the Lake," by Miss Doris Sheffield.

Song—"Smiling Through" and "Leave Me With a Smile," by Master Henry Gautreaux; accompanist Mrs. E. H. Barringer.

Wolfe Solo—"The Rosary" and "Swanee River Moon," by Miss Sarah Fatheree; accompanist, Miss Lucille Fatheree.

Song—"For You Alone" and "Little Doris," by Mrs. H. E. Gautreaux; accompanist, Mrs. Barringer.

Delicious refreshments were served. Preceding at the punch bowl were Mrs. F. J. Heintz, Mrs. L. L. Morgan, Mrs. H. A. Mackie and Mrs. V. E. Young.

All present were invited by Mr. C. Sidney Frederick to attend the Parkview Theatre as his guests after the reception.

The School League tenders thanks to Mr. Frederick, also to Dr. A. G. Maylle for throwing open the reception hall of the Southern Hotel to the School League with his compliments.
