MOST POPULAR YOUNG LADY CONTEST AT FAIR

Open to Every Young Lady Who Would Like to Win the Prize Offered

FINE WRIST WATCH HONOR OF WINNING

St. Tammany Farmer Hints at Further Reward to Plucky Winner

Isn't it a wonderful thing to be popular? And wouldn't you like to know if you are the most popular girl in St. Tammany parish? Well, perhaps you are. The St. Tammany parish fair is pretty popular itself. It represents the industry, energy and general status of the farmers of the parish. It tells the story plainer than words can. If you would like to know how popular you are, you have no better way than by associating yourself with a contest under the auspices of an association that has the good will of all and that will draw within the scope of the banners of the contestants the attention of every admirer who can raise one cent to buy a vote.

That's delivering the goods. It's up to you to get the vote. Why not go to it? And just think what the prize is. A FINE WRIST WATCH. And just think what a lovely time you can have watching that wrist watch at the fellow who hesitates. You know him. He's never on time, but he's a good fellow for all that, and when he sees that watch and knows he's talking to the most popular girl in St. Tammany parish he'll stick to you closer than the wrist watch. Well, any how the St. Tammany Parish Fair Association is putting on a contest to decide who is the most popular girl in St. Tammany parish. Every girl can enter the contest who wishes to. All you have to do is to clip out the blank at the close of this article, fill it in and send it to Secretary W. P. Minckler, Parish Fair Association, Covington, La.

No entry fee is charged, but if you feel inclined you may enclose one dollar and you will be credited with one hundred votes to start with. The votes are one cent each. The contestant receiving the largest number of votes will be declared the winner. Contest will be staged Friday, Saturday and Sunday, October 20, 21 and 22, and returns will be announced Sunday night. Contestants may start on Friday to solicit votes. If you win the wrist watch and would prefer something else, the watch can be exchanged at the jeweler's store for something else of the same cost.

Now, girls, it's up to you to get busy, and as the St. Tammany Farmer is highly appreciative of the pluck that goes after a thing and gets it, you might make a guess that something more than the wrist watch will be coming to the winner.

Entry Blank.

DR. GEORGE W. YOUNG

Dr. George W. Young, of Kentucky, will lecture at the Methodist Church in Covington, on Sunday, October 1st, at 11 a. m.

Dr. Young is the "Old Man Eloquent" of the prohibition movement, the hero of hundred battles fought and won against John Barleycorn. But his cherry heart, sunny face and victorious faith make him one of the youngest men in the movement. In fact he will always be Young. For years he has been a recognized leader in this great crusade. He has served as Assistant General Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of America, State Superintendent in several states when experience and statesmanship were needed, and campaign organizer when the exercise of political wisdom was demanded.

He has helped to build the prohibition sentiment of the nation, and his wisdom, wit and eloquence will hasten the day of the complete prohibition of the liquor traffic throughout the world. Be sure to hear him, for he will instruct and inspire you and make you a better soldier in this holy war.

AMERICANS ON TURKISH FRONT

Uncle Sam shakes a positive head and says we will not be drawn into the European tangle caused by Turk victories over the Greeks and the massacre at Smyrna. However, American representatives are at work to report developments and help in relief work. The photo shows Admiral Mark L. Bristol, with his wife, and Davis C. Arnold, the Director of the Near East Relief, inspecting one of the stations established by the Near East Relief Committee, near Constantinople.

GET READY FOR FOLSOM FAIR TO POULTRY SHOW PARISH FAIR

(By C. M. Brown) Citizens of St. Tammany parish, our fair opens on the 20th of October. Do you fully realize that this fair belongs to you? Without your hearty co-operation it will be a rank failure. By this is meant that you should be an exhibitor.

The catalogue has been printed and circulated and you doubtless have received one. The line of exhibits are numerous and the premiums commensurate with the entry fees. If you are a farmer you certainly can help the fair by exhibiting some of your products as set forth in the catalogue. You should exhibit your civic pride in exhibiting something, no matter if the other fellow wins and you don't. It will show your good will, at least. You expect to see the fair. Most everybody in the parish does, but if no one exhibited it wouldn't be worth seeing. To yourself say this: "By cracker, I'll put in some exhibits for fear the other fellow doesn't."

That's the kind of spirit that makes a parish fair a howling success. Our fair has always been a good one and has a reputation to keep up, and you are expected to help boost it higher than any like fair in the state. Come in, and let's do it, and do it this year.

Now, about pure bred chickens. Have you got some? No matter what kind, show them this year. Last year we had a fine bunch—best poultry in the state outside the State Fair. We want a better one this year. It only costs you 25 cents a bird to enter and as many as you like, and the premiums are commensurate with your entry fee. Get busy and prune your birds for this year's show, and if you don't lug off all the prizes you will find out who has better birds and fix yourself to beat him next year. The idea is: Show your birds. Let the parish know you have stock and eggs for sale in season. People are waking up in this parish and are breeding pure bred poultry because it pays. If you don't breed this kind of chickens come to the fair, select the breed you like, obtain the owner's name, price for eggs and stock and get started on the road to a paying poultry business—there's big money in it to the wide-awake breeder.

I am appealing to your civic pride, and trying to interest you in our splendid fair. Whether you are a man or a woman, boy or girl, get busy and exhibit something at our coming fair and do yourself and the fair proud.

QUARTERLY DIVIDEND BEING PAID. Checks for the regular quarterly dividend of three dollars per share are being mailed out today to the stockholders of the Covington Bank & Trust Company.

A COMMUNITY FAIR. A Community Fair will be given by the Covington Community Fair Association, colored, at Romano's Park, Saturday and Sunday, October 7 and 8, 1922. The gate will open at 10 a. m. Speaking each night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

LUTHERAN SERVICES. There will be Lutheran services in Abita Springs, Sunday, at 8:30 a. m. Also in Covington at the same hour.

NEW BOAT FOR MADISONVILLE NEW ORLEANS PROMISED

Reverie Docked, but Lillian D. Will Continue the Regular Schedule

SCHOOL LEAGUE PREPARING FOR FAIR

Hutchinson-Oulliber Wedding and Other News and Personals of the Week

By Staff Correspondent Madisonville, Sept. 28.—The steam yacht, Reverie, was docked here last Tuesday morning after a very successful business season under the capable piloting of Captain L. F. Young. The yacht will undergo necessary repairs that will be deferred during her business time until now, and she is not definitely corroborated the statement seems to hold sway that the cruiser will change hands, this time to a private owner for private use, which, in coincidence, strengthens the confirmation of Dame Rumor's suspicions that a larger, better boat with greater conveniences is directly behind the curtain.

The steamer Lillian D., under Captain Roux, will continue her regular schedule, carrying cars and passengers throughout the winter season. The Dabus Bros., of New Orleans, owners of the yacht Reverie, which has been docked here near the old Camella landing for several months, has been sold, the transaction to be completed this week. This boat is of the ferry type used chiefly for the transportation of automobiles and heavy tonnage, and the consensus of opinion in and about Madisonville is that it will be put into service across Lake Ponchartraine.

School League Meeting. Members of the School Improvement League held a meeting last Thursday afternoon in the school auditorium when various phases of business pertinent to school problems and necessities of vital importance were attended to. The meeting was presided over by the vice-president due to the inability of the president to respond. Arrangements for the coming fair in Covington as on large a scale as possible, and other items of import in conjunction with the fair were widely discussed. It was decided to hold another meeting before the fair in order to appoint the necessary committees and outline of plan. This meeting will be called on Thursday, October 12th, at the school auditorium, and all the ladies are earnestly requested to attend and with the candid assistance of their assistance. Co-operation is an important factor in the crowning of every effort.

Hutchinson-Oulliber. The wedding of Miss Juanita Oulliber and Mr. Robt. Hutchinson was quietly solemnized on Tuesday morning, Sept. 26, 1922, in the Catholic paragon, Rev. Otmar Bluel officiating.

The happy couple left immediately following the ceremony aboard the Reverie for New Orleans. That happiness and joyous success should daily follow them, is the wish of their many friends.

PERSONALS. Miss Today Crellin, of New Orleans, was the interesting week end guest of Mrs. Walter Heugan and Misses Alice and Beryl Heugan. (Continued on page 6)

CARD OF THANKS. Amite, La., Sept. 21, 1922. I wish to thank my friends in St. Tammany parish for the loyal support that they gave me in the recent democratic primary election, and the fact that they carried the parish for me, against active opposition, will always be gratefully remembered.

ROBERT S. ELLIS. BIGGEST PARADE EVER HELD IN NEW ORLEANS. New Orleans, Sept. 28.—The largest parade ever held in New Orleans will be seen October 18, when 40,000 members of the American Legion in column of platoons march down Canal street in review during the Legion national convention here. Nearly 100,000 visitors and delegates are expected to attend the convention and fully one-half of them will don uniforms and join in the parade. More than 100 bands will be scattered throughout the parade in which they will be judged for the national convention and contest.

A cenotaph commemorating the soldier dead will be erected on the parquette of Canal street directly opposite Gold Star mothers' tribune at which all veterans will pay tribute to their fallen comrades with a salute as the column passes it. The route of the parade will cover a distance of approximately four miles and the head of the column is expected to reach its destination before the rear guard has passed the reviewing stand. Legion state departments will march in order of their gain in membership during the last year, led by a guard of honor consisting of men drawn from the army, navy and national guard. Percentages of increase will be announced by national headquarters in time to place departments in their proper position in the column. Foreign war veterans who are not affiliated with the Legion will be in line in order of their country's entrance into the war.

HELP! Help yourself and your city. Fifth, Dirt and Rubbish invite fire and disease. Clean up all the trash, waste paper, etc. Put your heating apparatus, chimneys and flues in order. Inspections will be made by the Covington Fire Department on October 9th. Clean up and paint up now. J. D. LAMBERT, Chief.

MANDEVILLE IS TOO FAST FOR BOOTLEGGERS FLIVVER

Joe Washington Is Not a Credit to His Namesake; Didn't Wait to Lie

TOWN MARSHAL WELCOMES WAGNER

And the Dark Town Ball Fails to Connect With Covington Hootch

By Staff Correspondent. Mandeville, Sept. 28.—Mandeville has its attractions. There is something alluring in its atmosphere and the visitor usually leaves with a longing to return at some future time. This longing, however, finds no place in the emotions of one H. P. Wagner, of Covington, who seemed imbued with the idea that what Mandeville needed to lend enchantment to its natural advantages was a particular brand of hootch "made last night" and guaranteed to make all mortals forgetful of the tribulations of life. Unfortunately for Wagner, Marshal Phillip Smith was alert and on the job, and Monday, when Wagner parked his flivver 100 feet from the negro dance in progress on Margny Avenue and his emissary, Joe Washington (colored) was doled out several pints from the stock of thirty pints and two quarts snugly secured, Marshal Smith quietly took possession. Washington had disposed of three pints.

Wagner and his "spirited" possessions were immediately taken to Covington under close guard. The negro, Washington, is said to have run through the nearby woods. Marshal Smith turned Wagner and the booze over to Sheriff Walter Galatas who placed Wagner in the parish jail. Deputy Ed Lacroix, on the night of the arrest, was sent in pairs of Washington, and on the following morning he was also landed by J. H. Marshal Smith filed an affidavit against Wagner and Washington, charging them with selling liquor in violation of the law. Both are under heavy bond awaiting action of the grand jury.

Baseball Game Last Sunday. The basketball game played last Sunday afternoon resulted in a score of 32 to 6 in favor of the Mandeville quintet, but the game was disappointing to the players and fans on account of two men of the opposing team, the Aco-Highs of New Orleans, failing to show up, which was not entirely their fault, however. A New Orleans man over here on his vacation, and one Mandeville player, together with the other three, composed the supposed Aco-Highs. The quintet wishes to apologize to the fans for giving them such a game on last Sunday, but in future they assure interesting games and no disappointments.

Ladies' Auxiliary Give Social. The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Union Protestant Church gave a social for the children and grown-ups on Friday, Sept. 22, at the Elk Theatre.
