

A DRUG STORE

that carries a complete line and makes service a special feature of its business.

SQUIBBS PRODUCTS
including their Extra High Grade Spices

FOR THE LADIES
our stock of Venida and West Beach Hair Nets, both in single and double mesh, two for 25 cents.

FOLLOW THE CROWD
THERE'S A REASON

Schonberg's Pharmacy

Personal and Local News

Miss Boudousquie, Society Editor

SHOWER FOR MISS ADOLPHINE FREDERICK

A very enjoyable event of last week was the shower given to Miss Adolphine Frederick by the Order of Eastern Star at their hall in the Masonic Building. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, to which a touch of Jack-o-lanterns, witches, pumpkins, black cats and other essentials. The bride-to-be was presided over by a very "spooky-looking" ghost. The bride-elect and her party marched to the bower to the strains of a wedding march. From there they viewed the Grand March of the Chapter, which paused to congratulate. A cart drawn by two pierrots, and containing the "shower" brought up the rear of the procession. After the many beautiful presents had been admired a musical program was rendered. At the close of the program delicious refreshments consisting of chicken salad sandwiches, cake and fruit punch were served.

BORN.

To Mrs. Clarence Domergue (nee Cora Hartley), in New Orleans, at Touro Infirmary, on Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1922, a girl.
To Mrs. Elmer Wilson (nee Vera Boes), on Thursday, November 2, 1922, a boy.
To Mrs. Emile Sarinelle (nee Esther Beaucaudray), at Presbyterian Hospital, New Orleans, on Monday, November 6, 1922, a boy.
To Mrs. George Staigg, Jr. (nee Gertrude Mick), at Carona, Calif., on Tuesday, Oct. 31, 1922, a girl.

EPISCOPAL BAZAAR.

The annual bazaar given by the ladies of Christ Episcopal Church will be held on Thursday, Dec. 14. Due notice of the place will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hebert entertained at a children's party Sunday afternoon in honor of the eleventh birthday of their son, Leon, Jr., at which were present a number of the school set, games and dancing being the principal feature of the evening.

Mrs. C. O. Domergue entertained the Double T. G's. at their meeting held Thursday of last week, the first prize having been awarded. Miss Grace Blossman, consolation Mrs. C. S. Frederick, guest prize Mrs. H. D. Bulloch. Mrs. Domergue had as her guests Mrs. H. D. Bulloch, Mrs. A. Choppin, Mrs. H. K. Goodwin, Mrs. J. M. Simmons and Miss Esther Clarke. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. R. Noble Satter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Walsh and little son, of New Orleans, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Easton.

Mr. A. Sawaya and daughters, Misses Mimi, Louise and Lillian Sawaya, have moved to Hammond, La., where they will reside.

The Matrons held their weekly Five Hundred card game Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edw. Byrnes on Military Road, the first prize having been awarded Mrs. C. R. Schultz, consolation Mrs. J. Louis Smith, guest prize Miss Sherwood. Mrs. Byrnes' guests were Misses S. F. Pezsch, Theresa Connors, Perry Shaul, Mat Wertz and Miss Sherwood. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. M. D. Connors.

Beginning Monday evening at 8 p. m., the members of the M. C. B. Library will entertain at a series of Five Hundred and Heart games at the Library Rooms. This series will consist of five games, at which both ladies and gentlemen will participate, and will continue for five consecutive Mondays at the same hour. Prizes will be awarded both ladies and gentlemen at all games, the scores to be kept and at the end a capital prize will be awarded the player having made the highest number of points during the series.

Mrs. H. A. Mackie returned Friday night from New Orleans where she has been spending several days with relatives.

Miss Cora Bell has returned from Baton Rouge after four months spent there and is again the guest of Mrs. I. Champagne.

Mrs. Letten, of New Orleans arrived Sunday for a visit of several weeks to Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mackie.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Zurbellen and children returned Tuesday from New Orleans and Natchez where they spent a week with relatives.

Miss Salome Seiler left Tuesday afternoon for her home in New Orleans after a week spent here with Mrs. E. J. Frederick and Miss Carrie Frederick. Miss Frederick returned to New Orleans with her where she will spend some time.

Miss Annie Smith is spending a while in Slidell as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sollberger. Before returning she will visit relatives and friends in New Orleans.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Helntz and children and Mrs. C. S. Frederick and little daughter motored to Hammond, Saturday, to take in the fair.

Miss Laura Perreand is spending some time in Baton Rouge on a visit to relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Fisher were New Orleans visitors Monday.

FRANK PATECEK

COVINGTON'S BIG STORE

New Arrivals

Coats

and

Dresses

Let us prove that we can save you money on coats and dresses, in the newest models, too. Starting Saturday we offer exceptional values.

Dresses—coat style, flare models or draped effects.

In three groups—

$10.00 $15.00 $23.50

WOMEN'S COATS

Full length—slender and wrap around, or bloused.

Luxurious soft pile fabrics; browns, taupe, blues, blacks.

Some fur trimmed—fox, wolf, squirrel and beaver, in deep wide collars, and sometimes cuffs.

Delightful pin tuckings, cordings or stitching on effective collars, of the untrimmed coats.

Crepe de chine lined and interlined.

Three groups—

$15 $20 $25

Mr. C. S. Frederick spent last Friday and Saturday in New Orleans on business.

Mr. Robt. L. Aubert, of Gulfport, Miss., spent several days here during the past week looking after his insurance business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Boudousquie and little son returned Sunday from New Orleans where they spent several days.

Mrs. Julia Boudousquie and Miss Gable Boudousquie spent last Sunday in New Orleans with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Zinzer were tendered an informal reception, last Thursday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Lacroix, in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, at which were present all of the members of their families and a few intimate friends. The aged couple were showered with presents and after a delightful evening delicious refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Zinzer have made Covington their home for the past twenty years or more and have quite a number of friends here who wish them a continued life of happiness. Mr. Zinzer is the popular caretaker of the courthouse and numbers among his friends some of the highest officials in the state. They join in wishing him and his wife many more years of happiness.

Miss Lelia Wren, of New Orleans, arrived Sunday for a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Satter and Marguerite Satter.

Mr. T. E. Brewster has returned from New Orleans where she spent a week with Mrs. John Brewster and family.

Mrs. James Tracey returned Sunday night from New Orleans after two weeks spent there as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tracy.

Misses Margaret Calhoun and Laurence Derville returned last Sunday from Tylerstown, Miss., where they spent the week end.

Miss Minnie Haller returned Sunday from New Orleans after spending several days there with relatives.

Mrs. Alfred Alexis spent last Sunday in New Orleans with his wife and little son who are visiting relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Glisson and family have moved into their new home near Sulphur Springs.

Miss Matilda Maginnis spent last Sunday in New Orleans with relatives.

Miss Lelia Wren, of New Orleans, arrived Sunday for a week's visit to Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Satter and Marguerite Satter.

Little Muriel Gautreaux made a number of her little friends happy on Tuesday afternoon by celebrating her six-year-old birthday. At four in the afternoon the pretty lawn of the Gautreaux home was turned into a real fairland. On the front porch two large donkeys awaited the guests with many a tail to tell as to who would win the prizes. The winners were Isabella Fontan, first; Elizabeth Molloy, second; Mabel Smith, the booby; boys, Cullen Nelson, first; Corydon Pechon, second; A. R. Smith, Jr., the booby. The dining table was beautiful with its decorations and many good dainties to eat. The large birthday cake with its burning candles was no brighter than the smiling face of little Muriel as she presided at the head of the table. A favor was given to each child. After many enjoyable parlor games and music and dancing the little guests bid farewell to their little hostess. The many pretty gifts received showed the popularity of little Muriel. Those present were Muriel Gautreaux, Louise Frederick, Elvira Lacroix, Rita Moise, Isabel Fontan, Ruth Schonberg, Lois and Iris Poole, Mabel Smith, Olivia Kammer, Elizabeth Smith, Anna Mae Poole, Aimee Galatich, Clara Sheffield, Ruth Helen Satter, Mildred Elizabeth and Audrey Molloy, Mabel Talmadge, Miriam Talmadge, Edith and Catherine Lancaster, Gloria Nilson, Masters Brandon Fuhrmann, Paul and T. J. Lacroix, Michel Kammer, Edwin Galatas, Thos. Talmadge, Corydon and Louis Pechon, Archie Smith, Alfred Frey, Cullen Nilson, Henry, Byron and Raymond Gautreaux. Assisting Mrs. Gautreaux were Misses Nilson, Grimmer, Villars and Sheffield.

PARKVIEW THEATRE.

Covington

Following is the program for the Parkview Theatre for the following week:

Sunday, Monday, Nov. 12, 13. "Across the Continent," with Wallace Reid, to the Parkview Theatre. Also Torchy Comedy and News.

Here's the best of all Reid's racing pictures. There's a thrill a minute in the great transcontinental race in which Wallace competes with ten big cars and drives his "Bivver" to victory.

Tuesday, Wednesday, Nov. 14, 15. The picture you have heard so much about—"In the Name of the Law." Lock your doors and join the crowds. The whole town is going to see this show. The one outstanding picture that you'll never forget.

Thursday, Friday, Nov. 16, 17. This is the biggest and best production that will be offered in Paramount's 1923 program, and it is being shown three weeks after first run at the Strand. Cecil B. DeMille's masterpiece, "Manlaughter," starring Thomas Meighan and Leatrice Joy. Ask anybody who has seen it, or read the book, and you will be sure not to miss it.

Saturday, Nov. 18. Doris May, in "Eden and Return," with Aescops Fables.

Every picture a good, clean, interesting and entertaining exhibition of splendid photoplay production.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Progressive Union will take place next Monday afternoon, Nov. 13, at the Southern Hotel Parlors, at 3:30 p. m. All members are requested to attend.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH
There will be morning service at 11 o'clock, on Sunday, Nov. 12, Mr. John Arsing, of New Orleans, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Caserta and children and Miss Grace Menestre and Mr. Sam Caserta motored to Hammond, Saturday, to take in the fair.

Mrs. A. Lopez left Tuesday for New Orleans where she will spend several weeks with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burns, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Simmons and Miss Esther Clark spent last Saturday in Hammond at the fair.

Mrs. J. C. Burns was a New Orleans visitor during the week.

Mr. J. W. York, of Folsom, was a business visitor here this week.

Mrs. J. E. Jones, of Sellers, La., is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. I. A. Champagne, and sister, Miss Josephine Bradley.

Mrs. Numa Hebert left Sunday for New Orleans where she will visit relatives for a few days.

Messrs. J. O. Zurbellen, Oliver J. Hebert, Clay Hebert, B. P. Fontan, Adrian D. Schwartz, Felix Limong, C. J. Schoen, C. J. Villars, Dr. H. E. Gautreaux and N. M. Hebert, Jr., spent Sunday in New Orleans, having gone over to attend the K. of C. initiation, among the many invited that day being Dr. Gautreaux, Mr. Villars and Mrs. N. M. Hebert, Jr., of the Covington Council 1380.

Misses Retta Moses and Elche Schwartz, of New Orleans, spent the week end here with Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Moses and family.

Mrs. Camille Tassin has returned from New Orleans after several days spent there with friends and relatives.

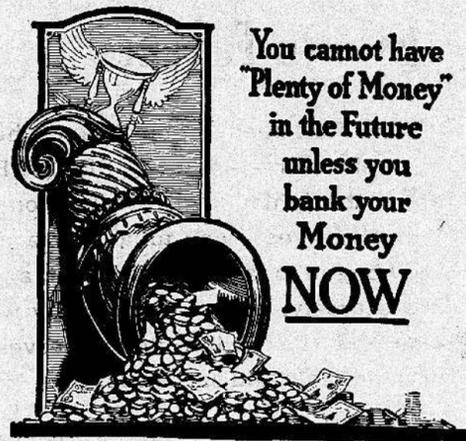

Misses Hazel and Lucille Doerr, of Birmingham, Ala., are spending some time here as guests of Mrs. Chas. Doerr.

MANDEVILLE NOTES.

(Continued from page 1)

cast for Mr. Levy, a man who for four years has been actively engaged in public school work in Mandeville and whose achievements during this period stand as a monument of unselfish service, earnest endeavor and untiring efforts, all furthering the cause of education. He is a man to whom the citizens should feel indebted for the splendid educational facilities inaugurated during his administration.

Holmes' Baker Returns in Mandeville. After thirty years of successfully baking the pies, cakes and bread for which D. H. Holmes of New Orleans is so famed, Mr. J. Arnebarrena has had his bakery ovens turn cold and hung his apron and cap up for good and all time. He has many interesting recollections of Holmes and

When you are young virgorous, and making money is the best time to put as much as you can spare in the bank REGULARLY.

Time flies quickly and the reward of your economy and thrift is years of happiness and comfortable old age.

Begin now. Come in and open an account in our Bank, and make a practice of regularly adding to your balance.

We will welcome you.

COVINGTON BANK & TRUST COMPANY
COVINGTON MADISONVILLE

St. Tammany's Million Dollar Bank

an old guard, retiring with honors. He has purchased a residence on Girod street and will make Mandeville his home.

Visitors to Hammond Fair. Mandevillians who visited the fair in Hammond last week were Misses Lois Chapin, Lois Musick, Julia Elder, Corinne Smith, Edna Davis and Messrs. Wilbur Wallace, Theo. Verrett and Milner Boyle.

Attend Meeting of Eastern Star in Covington.

Mrs. L. Bethea, Misses Ella Paine and Esther Russ, and Mr. W. H. Russ, Eastern Star members, attended the semi-monthly meeting at Covington last Thursday night. Mrs. Wm. Boyle joined the order and was initiated the same night. Mrs. E. J. Irwin, of New Orleans, was also a visitor. After the meeting a miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Adolphine Frederick, in honor of her approaching marriage. She received many beautiful presents, among them being much cutglass and fancy work. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Leo Meets "Red" Hill Friday. Douglas Lee, who has been here for some time, wined up his training and left Monday for New Orleans. He meets "Red" Hill on Friday night, Nov. 10, in a scheduled 10-round bout.

Wednesday Night Frolic. Those in attendance at the Wednesday night frolic, Nov. 8, at the home of Miss Angela Vautrain, on Marigny avenue, were Misses Evelyn Parley, Gladys and Irma Howze, Angole Vautrain, Messrs. Paul Sharp, Jules Bagur, Sam Howze, Richmond Tourne, Rene Dubourg and Claude Polsson.

Slidell vs. Mandeville. Mandeville Hi first team meets the Slidell Hi basketball team Thursday afternoon, Nov. 9, in a promised interesting and exciting game. The game is to be played in Mandeville.

Local and Personal. Mrs. W. Shiells was a visitor to Mandeville, Tuesday. Their furniture was removed from her home to New Orleans, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. D. H. Mason, on his way to Slidell, stopped at Mandeville, last Monday, on business. Mrs. Margaret Smith and Mrs. A. Theobald, after spending a few days here, returned to New Orleans last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Alfred Artus spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother.

Mr. Horace Howze was the week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. Howze.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Peters spent Sunday here visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stille spent several days with Mrs. Chas. Toomer this week.

Miss Robina Vaught, after attending the Epworth League convention in New Orleans, last week, returned home Sunday morning.

Miss Julia Carl spent Sunday with Mrs. W. A. Smith and family.

Messrs. Gordon Smith and Barnett Guesach spent the week end in Louisiana with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Smith.

Mrs. Marietta Hopkins now with the Times-Picayune in New Orleans, was the guest of her parents last Sunday.

Mr. Edgar Sharp made his weekly business trip to New Orleans last Saturday.

Mr. Harry Bourgeois spent last week end here.

Mr. Percy Jenkins spent last Saturday and Sunday here with his family.

away some time ago on account of the illness and death of her sister in Leesville, La., returned to her home last Saturday morning.

Mr. W. Brown spent Sunday with his parents, Major and Mrs. D. M. Brown.

Mr. T. L. Smith, who was convalescing so nicely from his recent illness, was seized with another attack of unusually high fever last Saturday night, but we are glad to learn that he is again beginning to improve.

Miss Blanche Smith, our competent postal clerk, has been confined to her bed several days, suffering from a mild case of dengue.

Mrs. James C. Thriffley, of New Orleans, was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Dubourg, last Sunday.

Messrs. Nick and Murphy Smith were visitors here this week end.

Miss Francis Paine spent several days here last week with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Paine.

Mrs. A. Parley returned last Wednesday after spending some time in New Orleans. During her stay she attended the Dominick-Thedy wedding, a prominent event on the social calendar of New Orleans.

Mrs. Emile Dubourg left for New Orleans last Sunday to spend the week with Mrs. Margaret Smith and Mr. and Mrs. James Thriffley. Little Jack, the charming daughter of Mrs. Dubourg, accompanied her.

Mr. Guy A. Smith, of Covington, was a business visitor here Sunday.

Mr. Herbert Smith has purchased the Tourne place on the corner of Monroe and Coffee streets. He has begun the erection of a modern bungalow, to be his home following his marriage, which has been definitely set for December 8th.

Mr. Joseph Pugh, who recently moved to New Orleans, was in Mandeville, Wednesday, shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stockton, of New Orleans, spent last week tiring through the parish. They stopped at the Audubon, Thursday, and at the Smith Cottage, Friday. During their stay here they visited Mr. L. A. Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Arrebarrena, Jr., spent Sunday with Mrs. J. Givens.

Messrs. S. Sharp, Jr., W. H. Russ and D. Smith made a business trip to Hammond, Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy Band motored to Madisonville and spent the day there last Tuesday.

Mr. G. Beckman and Mr. Stanley Bierhorst spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bierhorst, on Wilkinson street.

Mr. James Givens left Sunday to accept a position in New Orleans.

Mrs. A. Bechac was a Madisonville visitor last Tuesday.

Mr. Richmond spent the early part of the week in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. Kennedy Francis was the guest of Miss Miriam Smith last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Bethea motored to Slidell last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Harriett Levy, after spending some time in New Orleans, returned last Sunday.

Mrs. D. Duhot returned to her home at Lafayette, Saturday, after spending several days here with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Bagur attended the mission services at Slidell last Tuesday night.

LIST OF DEAD LETTERS.
Following is the list of dead letters remaining in the Covington post office:
Miss Mariam Baham, Binnie Daddon, Jessie A. Blakeman, Mrs. Mamie Buchanan, Mrs. B. Cooper, Miss Dezzie Galloway, Mrs. Ida Hunter, Young Herman, Anny McCloy, Henderson Kenny, Mrs. Bertha Smith, Mrs. Marie Nelcom, Mrs. Annie White.
JACOB SEILER, Postmaster.

Enjoy Life and Be Happy!

Our Ice Cream Parlor and Soda Fountain will help you to do this.

Call and let us serve you.

COMPLETE LINE OF SCHOOL SUPPLIES
Prescriptions delivered at Abita Springs twice daily.

CORNER DRUG STORE

You'll find Service and Prices Right

BURNS FURNITURE COMPANY

Announces the largest collection of Toys and Holiday Goods ever displayed in Covington.

The public is invited to see them.