GOLDEN JUBILEE.

The golden jubilee celebrations of Rev. Sister Mary Caroline Lechner, which took place at St. Scholastica's Academy, Monday, Nov. 13, were overshadowed by a tinge of sadness, owing to the death of Sister M. Leona Vondenstein two days previous.

The jubilarian is a niece of Rev. Mother Alexia Lechner, former superior of St. Walburg's Convent, Covington, Ky., where Sister Caroline entered the Benedictine Order. For over half a century Sister Caroline has rendered valuable service to the community, serving the same in the teaching department, music department, and most especially as superior of Mater Dolorosa Convent for a number of years and also of St. Boniface Convent where she is still superior.

The solemn high mass was celebrated by Right Rev. F. J. Prim, pastor of Mater Dolorosa Church of New Orleans, assisted by Rev. Father Mathias, O. S. B., as deacon, and Rev. Father Augustine, O. S. B., sub-deacon, and Rev. Father Boudreaux, master of ceremonies. The Most Rev. Archbishop, John W. Shaw, of New Orleans, officiated at the renewal of vows and at the reception of the novices. His Grace addressed the jubilarian in a most appropriate manner. Right Rev. Abbot Paul, O. S. B., the orator of the occasion, very gracefully and tactfully handled the subject of the day.

Fifty little girls in white and gold added much to the beauty and solemnity of the occasion. Combined with this occasion was the reception of three young ladies into the novitiate: Miss Philippine Nutgens, to be known in religion as Sister Mary Raphael, Miss Susanna Schuler, in religion Sister Mary Gabriel, and Miss Catherine Reinbold, in religion Sister Mary Roch.

They entered the beautifully decorated chapel attired in bridal costumes which they soon discarded for the solemn black robe of the Benedictine Order.

The ceremonies concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, which was given by the Most Rev. Archbishop, after which the happy jubilarian received the good wishes and congratulations of her many friends, both far and near.

Mrs. A. P. Alexius and little son have returned from New Orleans where they have been spending some time with relatives.

Mr. W. S. Thompson and Mr. W. Kennedy have left for New Orleans and the Gulf Coast and will be gone for several days on business.

DEATH OF SISTER MARY LEONA VONDENSTEIN.

Saturday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the Angel of Death released the pure, beautiful soul of our beloved Sister Mary Leona Vondenstein from her couch of pain and transferred her to a place of repose and happiness. In her last moments she was attended by Rev. Father Maur and surrounded by all the Sisters weeping and praying for her. She expired with the same gentle calmness as she had lived.

Although rather delicately constituted, by her talent, ingenuity and practicality, she rendered such valuable service to the community in various ways that it will be a difficult problem to ever fully replace her. Many a beautiful specimen of art remains to speak of the gentle, skillful hand that produced it. She rendered also valuable service in the teaching department for a number of years.

Sister Mary Leona, known in the world as Miss Agnes Vondenstein, was born in Cologne, Germany, in 1876, and entered the Order of St. Benedict about twenty-five years ago. She was a member of a large pious family residing in St. Leo, La. Three of her bereaved brothers attended her funeral, which took place Sunday morning during a solemn Requiem Mass at 10:30. Interment at St. Joseph's Abbey cemetery.

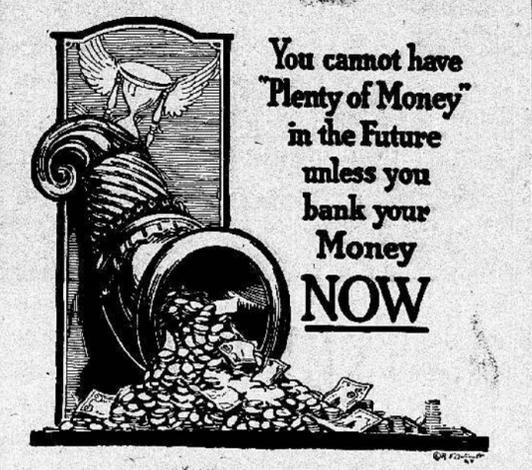

May her soul rest in peace.
