HEINTZ—FREDERICK.

A wedding of unusual interest was that of Mr. Emilie E. Heintz, formerly of Jackson, Miss., and now of Folsom, La., and Miss Adolphine Frederick, which was solemnized last Saturday evening at 5:30 o'clock, November 18, 1922, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph A. Frederick, in the presence of families of the bride and groom, and a few intimate friends, Rev. F. C. Talmage of the Presbyterian Church officiating.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. J. Monroe Simmons, the bride, a stately chaitan, entered the parlor with her father, Mr. A. A. Frederick. At the foot of the improvised altar she was met by the groom, who awaited her coming with his best man, Mr. B. W. Willis, of Jackson, Miss. She was becomingly gowned in a robe of dark brown canton crepe, with Persian trimmings, and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley, with a background of ostrich feathers. Her only ornament was a necklace of pearls. Her attendants were her sister, Miss Doris Frederick, as maid of honor, who wore a gown of pink crepe de chine trimmed in cloth of silver, and carrying a bouquet of pink carnations and ferns, and another sister, Miss Eva Frederick, as bride's maid, who wore a gown of blue crepe de chine trimmed in cloth of silver, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and ferns. Mr. George Heintz, brother of the groom, acted as groomsmen.

The house was tastefully decorated with bamboo and ferns, the ceremony having taken place under a bower of bamboo and white camellias, from which was suspended a beautiful white wedding bell. During the registry a vocal solo, "At Dawning," was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Felus B. Folke.

The dining room was also tastefully decorated in bamboo and ferns, the immense wedding cake occupying the center of the table, which was laden with a variety of other cakes, punch having been served in abundance during the evening. Mr. Heintz is a valued employee of the New Orleans Great Northern Railroad Company, and Mrs. Heintz one of several sisters and popular member of the younger set here. They were recipients of a number of costly and beautiful presents.

Following the ceremony and reception, Mr. and Mrs. Heintz motored to Slidell where they boarded the train for New Orleans for a short honeymoon, returning Monday night for the cutting of the wedding cake, which brought the wedding festivities to a close. At the cutting of the cake Mr. W. B. Willis was the lucky holder of the ring, and Miss Clarice Frederick the coin, Miss Josie Frederick the thimble, and Mayor Robt. W. Badon the bachelor's button.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Graves of Bogalusa, Miss Genella Eyerich, and Messrs. George Heintz, C. P. Bernard and B. W. Willis, of Jackson, Miss.
