

Money Market Quotations. Gold in New York, Jan. 25, 110 1/2...

S. M. PETTENGILL & CO., 37 PARK ROW, New York, HUDSON & MENET, 21 PARK ROW, New York.

R. H. JOHNS, of Oro Grande, is our authorized agent to receive and receipt for subscriptions and advertisements for the IDAHO WORLD.

City and County.

PAPER BUMMERS.—If several of our regular subscribers and patrons receive one or two extra copies of the World, they need not consider it a mistake on the part of the Carrier. We have received frequent complaints of "our paper was stolen, or carried off."

OLD VARIETY STORE.—The new half-column advertisement of C. S. Kingsley will be found in this issue. He believes in letting people know that he keeps on hand the largest and finest assortment of goods of every description to be found in the Territory.

P. O. BOOKSTORE.—A few volumes of Cusack's "History of Ireland," more familiarly known as "Deyle's History," have been received at the Post-office Bookstore.

FINE BACON.—Judge Sayles, at the Washington Market, in this city, has about 30,000 pounds of the finest hams and bacon we have ever seen in the Territory.

RECOVERING.—We are gratified to learn that Mrs. Judge Whitson, who has been dangerously ill for several days past, has been pronounced out of danger by the attending physician and her speedy recovery can be expected.

ROBBERY.—The cabin of Mr. P. O'Neill, on the south side of Wall street, below Masonic Hall, was robbed several nights since during his absence.

A FINE THING FOR THE TEETH.—The fragrant Sordant has taken a very prominent place among the most approved dentrifices of the day.

CONSOLIDATED.—Two lodges of Good Templars have heretofore existed in our city between which there did not exist that entente cordiale which should prevail between lodges of the same Order.

MINERS' BREWERY.—A change will be observed in the advertisement of the Miners' Brewery. Mr. N. Haug has become a member of the firm, and the proprietors have furnished the saloon with a fine billiard table for the accommodation of their patrons.

SLEIGHING.—The roads leading from Idaho City are in excellent condition for sleighing and a jaunt to the springs in one of McClintock & Stewart's comfortable sleighs is quite a treat during these dull days, and "piping times of peace."

ST. CHARLES HOTEL.—Mr. F. C. Porter, of the Luna House, is engaged in repairing, fitting up and re-furnishing the St. Charles Hotel in this city, having purchased the same, and expects to open the new house in style on the first of next April.

RETURNED.—Our Missouri friend of Teutonic descent, Mr. Franz J. Gebhardt, Jr., after sojourning a few months in old Pike, returned again to Idaho. Frank says times are too slow for him in Missouri, and he was glad to get back again to the mountains.

REARRESTED.—A Chinaman was arrested a few days ago at Centerville for passing bogus dust, and when lodged in jail he was recognized as being Ah Poon, one of the escaped convicts who has a five-year term yet to serve in the penitentiary.

RETURNED.—Mr. Thomas S. Dorch, formerly of the firm of J. Sayles, Jr., & Co., of this city, returned, on last Tuesday, from a visit to his old home in Oregon, looking as hale and hearty as ever.

"SPALDING'S GLUE," stickiest thing out.

THE MAILS.—A change, much to the detriment of our whole business community, has taken place in regard to the transmission of our mails. Heretofore we have been favored with a daily mail, but on last Sunday no stages arrived or departed between this place and Boise City.

PUB. DOCK.—We are indebted to our efficient and attentive Delegate in Congress, Hon. J. K. Shafer, for repeated favors in the nature of public documents of an interesting character.

THE WEATHER.—Never, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant, have we had such an open winter and so little snow as we have had up to within the past week. A change, however, took place after our last issue, and since then we have had several severe though welcome snow storms.

ALMANAC.—During the past week we have received several new Almanacs of different kinds.

P. O. BOOKSTORE.—A few volumes of Cusack's "History of Ireland," more familiarly known as "Deyle's History," have been received at the Post-office Bookstore.

OX TR.—Several of the demi-monde of our city appear to be engaged in an irrepressible conflict with "Old Ite," judging from the furious attack made by them on that ubiquitous personage during the past week.

MUSICAL MONTHLY.—Peters' Musical Monthly for February came to hand a few days ago. As usual it is filled with a choice selection of new music, consisting of mazurkas, waltzes, polkas, schottisches, etc., and songs arranged in duets and quartettes.

HOSPITAL.—Mr. E. H. Angle, having contracted with the Board of County Commissioners to take charge of the indigent sick during the year 1871, is engaged in fitting up the frame building on Wall street, opposite the Masonic Hall, for hospital purposes.

RETURNED.—Major R. E. Foote, who has been sojourning at the Capital for a couple of months past, returned on last Tuesday. He informs us that Hon. S. A. Merritt, our Delegate elect, will leave for Washington City this morning.

KALAMA.—The Oregon Herald, in an article on the new town of Kalama, states that a great many persons have visited that place with the intention of making purchases of real estate, but that the railroad company not having yet placed any in the market for sale, no idea can be formed as to the value of town lots, or of land in that vicinity.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—We learn from the Idaho Democrat that the total number of initiates in the Good Templar Order at Boise City, from the date of its organization at that place, is three hundred and eighty-two persons, male and female.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The Bedrock Democrat states that a boy named Daley, near Juniper creek, in the Powder river country, while taking a Henry rifle from a wagon, several days ago, accidentally discharged it. The ball entered his body near the armpit and severed an artery, causing his death in a few hours.

FATALITY INJURED.—Matt Bledsoe, formerly a well known character in Idaho, during the "rough times," but who is now serving a life term in the Oregon penitentiary, recently fell from a pile of lumber in that institution, and is reported fatally injured.

DYING.—Ex-Congressman H. D. Washburn, Surveyor General of Montana, is dying of consumption at his home in Clinton, Indiana.
