City and County.

THE GOLD HILL MILL.—The Gold Hill mill cleaned up a few days ago, and the result was satisfactory. We did not learn the exact figures as the company did not seem to be anxious to have their returns made public, but the members of the company seem well satisfied with their financial prosperity as well as with the appearance of their mine. The mill has been stopped in order to take up a couple of the batteries and make some necessary repairs, but will start up again in a few days, in excellent order, prepared to run all winter. The ledge in the second level has opened out four feet in width, displaying an excellent body of ore; and work, with a full force, is now going on, stopping out from the lower tunnel to the upper works. The mine is in splendid condition, and never looked better, and everything is now prepared for active work during the entire winter. About one thousand cords of wood in the yard, with about fifteen or twenty thousand dollars worth of provisions, iron, steel, powder, fuse and other necessary supplies have been laid in and paid for, in cash, by the company. The amount of "lagging" and other timbers for the mine, now on hand, would amount to an "emigrant," who would wonder "what the devil they wanted with such piles of thick clapboards." Mr. Mootry, one of the Gold Hill company, informs us that the supply of water for the mill will be ample during the winter, with no danger of its freezing up since they put in their iron pipe under ground, and that the mill will be kept steadily at work, day and night, winter and summer.

FOR THE EAST.—Mr. J. G. Bryant, with his family, took his departure on last Monday for his old home in South Windsor, Maine. We regret to chronicle the departure of such a man from our midst. Mr. Bryant has, for more than six years past, been one of the leading merchants in this city, and during his residence here, has enjoyed the respect and confidence of all with whom he came in contact, either socially or in business relations. Possessed of great business tact, energy and enterprise, he has accumulated a competency and retired from business, at least in Idaho, and proposes to enjoy a visit to his relatives and friends in the East. Mr. Bryant is a fine man, and as a citizen, will be a valuable acquisition to any community in which he may locate. He has ever been found foremost in all public enterprises, and to his energy and perseverance are we, in a large measure, indebted for the organization of the Bedrock Flaming Company, which now gives so much promise of proving a successful enterprise. His departure and absence from Idaho is a public loss, and in common with his friends, whose name is legion, we wish him and his estimable lady a safe and prosperous journey, and hope they will reconsider their intention of permanently settling in the East, and that when he visits us in the Spring, as he says he will, that he will bring his family and remain.

OFF FOR THE WINTER.—On last Sunday several of our old residents took their departure to spend the winter in other climes. Mr. John Studerous goes to San Francisco to spend a few months; Mr. P. J. Moore, to Boise City, and Mr. Stephen Sisk to his old home in Princeton, Kentucky. On the evening prior to the departure of the latter, the members of the Masonic Lodge of this city gave him a farewell supper at the Luna House. Some thirty or forty of the fraternity were present and partook of a feast of good things provided by mine host Luney, and at a late hour, after passing a most pleasant evening, with many wishes for a safe journey and an early return of their guest, the company dispersed.

THE KEYSTONE.—Carvan's mill, at the Keystone, has now been running about three weeks without stopping to clean up. Everything about the mill is said to be in fine order, and from the number of pounds of amalgam on hand, taken from the plates, we are prepared to hear of a big clean up when one is made. Every one who has visited the mill appears confident that Andy has got a good thing—that the Keystone ore is rich, and that the mill is saving the gold and silver.

THE HOLIDAYS.—Mr. J. A. Pinney, of the Post-office bookstore, left for Boise City by yesterday's stage to lay in a full stock of toys, notions and presentation goods for the holidays. Messrs. Pinney & Co. have lately received at their establishment in Boise City, a good assortment of such goods direct from the railroad, and Pinney intends that the little folks of Idaho shall not be overlooked. Look out for a splendid "lay out" in a few days.

NOT RETURNED.—Reub Peyton and his party of hunters have not yet returned. If they stay much longer it will be necessary for the Legislature to pass a law for the protection of game, as Reub, with his "three mile gun," has doubtless killed "slathers" of deer by this time. We don't see how they took along enough "sap" to last them until this time, as we only saw one pack horse go out with them; but they probably draw rations from some other base of supplies.

GOSE TO OHIO.—A. P. Turner, Esq., Probate Judge of this county, left for his old home in Ohio, on last Tuesday, having received news of the serious illness of his aged mother, whom he has not seen for over twenty years. We learn that he will be absent six weeks or two months, and that he has appointed J. H. Wickersham, Esq., Clerk of the Probate Court during his absence.

FOR KENTUCKY.—Mr. W. H. Decker, of Boston, took his departure for his old home in Kentucky, yesterday, where he proposes to spend the winter. Like a sensible man, he ordered the World sent to him during his absence. We wish him a safe journey, a pleasant visit and an early return in the Spring.

OFF FOR THE BAY.—Mr. B. M. DuRell, President of the First National Bank of Idaho, left a few days ago for the Bay, on a visit to his family at Oakland. He will be gone several months, and in all probability will visit Washington and New York city during the winter, in the interest of the Bedrock Flaming Co.

GAME.—"Old Mac" and Lum Berge, the regular hunters, came in from Middle Boise, a few days ago, bringing with them six deer, which they soon disposed of. The snow has driven them out of the mountains, and "Mac" says he is going down into the Valley after game.

THE LAWYER LEDGE.—The mill at the Lawyer ledge has shut down, as we learn, for the winter, owing to the scarcity of water, but the owners of the mine are steadily at work taking out ore upon which to commence crushing in the Spring.

A RUN.—A RUN was made on the Banking House of B. M. DuRell & Co. on Tuesday evening,—by an ox team,—which resulted in tearing down the awning in front. A force of carpenters were engaged, yesterday, repairing damages.

A BRAZEN-FACED STRUMPET.—On the evening of November 20th, a large crowd assembled in Steinway Hall, New York city, to hear a lecture by Mrs. Victoria Woodhull, and according to the New York Sun, there was an uproarious time among the advocates and opponents of free-love. Mrs. Woodhull was frequently interrupted by hisses as well as applause from her audience. She advocated the repeal of all laws on marriage, and favored the free intercourse of men and women, regardless of marriage laws. Her theory, evidently, is, that prostitution is a virtue, and chastity a vice. The newspaper, of which she and her sister, Miss Claflin, are the owners, boldly occupies that position, as a recent number of their Weekly contains the following: "Chastity is not a virtue. It is rather a crime against nature.—feeding life's flame with self-substantial fuel, Making a famine where abundance lies. It is peevish, proud, and made of self-love, the most inhibited sin in the canon. It is either want of capacity or opportunity, want of a heart or a bigoted prejudice; or else a mere sham or pretense, a cover for the grossest crimes against the body."

How such a strumpet can, with impunity, pursue, unmolested, her attempts to propagate her vicious and disgusting theories, is a mystery to us.

A procuress was recently arrested and punished in San Francisco for debauching innocent girls, by seducing them from the paths of virtue, and inducing them to carry into practice the horribly degrading theories advanced, and doubtless practiced, by this brazen-faced bawd, who, it appears, is greeted with large audiences when she lectures, and is introduced on the rostrum by that puritanical wolf in sheep's clothing, Theodore Tilton, of the Golden Age. If there is any difference between the procuress convicted in San Francisco, and the one who boldly advocates the same theory and practice, not only through a public journal, but from the rostrum, we fail to perceive it; and we think it about time that the authorities should step in and put a quietus on this necessary before the fact, whose teachings, if carried out, would make every home a brothel, and reduce the race to a level with the brute creation.

CAUSE CELEBRE.—Quite an important "breach of promise" case has been on trial in the Twelfth District Court in San Francisco. A Miss Leota K. Turner sued a wealthy Mexican named Caledonia Ortiz for breach of promise and seduction, laying her damages at $200,000. Miss Turner is said to be a daughter of the late Commodore Turner, of the U. S. Navy, and is well educated and accomplished. She came to San Francisco in 1866, and seeking a position as governess or music teacher, she was finally employed by Don Caledonia Ortiz, the defendant, as governess in his family, residing at Hermosillo in the State of Sonora. She alleges in her complaint that while acting in the capacity of governess to his children, at Hermosillo, he proposed marriage to her, and under a promise of marriage, seduced her, and that the intimacy continued up to the time she left San Francisco for the East. The marriage ceremony was to take place in the United States, but she alleges that after their arrival in San Francisco from Guaymas, he refused to fulfill his promise, wherefore she brought suit for damages. Ortiz denies every allegation in the complaint; says he never promised to marry her, and that he never had any improper intercourse whatever with her. Eminent counsel are employed on both sides, and the case attracts considerable interest. We have not yet learned the result, but from the evidence as published, would not be surprised if the plaintiff recovered heavy damages.

ADA COUNTY.—We take the following items from the Boise Statesman and Herald.

On the night of December 1st, while Mr. William Stewart, of Payette Valley, was in Boise City attending court, his dwelling house, together with all its contents, winter vegetables and grain, was destroyed by fire. The fire is supposed to have originated from a candle in the hands of a little girl. Mr. Stewart estimates his loss at from two to three thousand dollars.

Mr. G. W. Gess has bought a half interest in the Overland Hotel.

Sank Owens left a few days ago for Portland where he proposes spending the winter.

About a ton of mail matter left Boise City on last Sunday on the Umatilla route for points west. The snow storms along the railroad had caused quite a large amount of mail matter to accumulate.

The trial of William Stewart for assault with intent to murder one Elijah Redford, on the Payette last Spring, resulted in the jury failing to agree.

The case of M. Donahue, indicted for an assault with intent to kill one James Atkinson, went to the jury on last Monday evening.

NORTHERN IDAHO.—We take the following items from the Lewiston Journal of Nov. 25th:

For the past two weeks warm and steady rains have fallen in the section of country extending from Lewiston to Pierce City, while in the mining camps of higher altitude snow has been falling. The ground is in excellent condition, being but slightly frozen, and a more favorable season for water is anticipated in the various mining camps than they have had for three years past.

Mr. McWilliams is engaged in rafting saw logs down to Wallula to be sawed into lumber by a new mill being built by Major Truax in the interests of the Walla Walla and Wallula railroad.

Over one hundred families have settled in Paradise Valley, north of Lewiston, and quite a number of single men have also taken up farms there and are engaged in improving them.

DEDICATED.—The new Catholic church of St. Mary Magdalen, recently erected in Salt Lake City, was dedicated, Nov. 16th, with imposing ceremonies. Archbishop Alemany, of San Francisco, officiated.

STAGE ROBBERY.—The stage was stopped by a highwayman between Georgetown and Auburn, in Placer county, Cal., Nov. 28th, and Wells, Fargo & Co.'s treasure box taken.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE CONVENTION.—On the 10th of January, a grand convention of "crowing hens" will be held in Washington City.

Experience having taught us that the only true mode of business is the Cash System, we frankly admit that we cannot offer any inducements when the purchaser means 4, 6 or 8 months time. The indiscriminate credit system, as has been practiced in Idaho, is only an inducement for many to press their credit beyond their ability to pay, and frequently results in an aggravating and annoying collection, both to the Debtor and Creditor, and is seldom a profitable transaction to either—the sequel generally being acrisy. But we believe and assert that, with the facilities we have for purchasing and shipping, we can,
