

EXHIBITION.—The exhibition at the closing of the first quarter of our District School... The exhibition was very large, there having been persons present from all parts of the Basin, and the entertainment interesting and appreciated.

CHRISTMAS TREE.—Our townspeople having decided upon a Christmas Tree, Misses Mary Mitchell, Emma Luckett, Hattie Parsons, Mary Harley, Lizzie Moore and Ella Halpin have been chosen as a committee to take charge of the matter.

OPENING BALL.—The ball given at the re-opening of the Miners' Exchange Saloon, on Thursday night last, is said to have been a very pleasant little affair.

CALL.—Mr. Alex. Danskin called on us on Tuesday last. Mr. Danskin is one of the principle business men of the Basin, and is making preparations to go below to purchase supplies for next season's trade.

LOVER PATRIE.—Uncle Dan Garland, of Lower Payette Valley, was in our city on Monday last; and like the sensible gentleman he is, called in and subscribed for the World.

FROM HONORABLE BEND.—E. H. Angle, Esq., arrived in town on Friday of last week. He came up to visit his wife, who has been here in rather precarious health for some time; but is now considerably improved.

VARRONS.—Quite a large number of people from across the Basin have visited Idaho City during the past week, among whom we noticed Messrs. Alex. Sifers, Patrick Noonan, John Convey, M. Michaelson and J. McCormick, of Pioneerville; Dan Jones, of Centerville; Alex. Danskin and James Murphy, of Granite Creek; and Hon. I. W. Garrett and wife, of Placerville.

D. FALK & BROTHER.—Persons going from the Basin to Boise City with the intention of buying goods, will find it to their advantage to call on Messrs. D. Falk & Brother before purchasing.

RETURNED.—Hon. Geo. Ainslie, Messrs. Jonas W. Brown, M. G. Loney, J. H. Wickersham, John Kenally, S. M. Sisk and George W. Richards, of this city, and Messrs. S. B. Connolly, A. Sifers and M. Michaelson, of Placerville, all of whom have been sojourning at the Capital for several days past, returned to their respective homes this week.

BEH HOLIDAY GOODS.—Remember that D. B. Kimmel's is the only place to get just what you want for a nice holiday gift. No other house in the Territory is so fully supplied with every description of jeweler's goods.

SPICY LETTER.—Elsewhere in this issue we publish an spicy little letter from Placerville. We assure the writer that his favor is highly appreciated, both for its pungency and because it is the first correspondence we have received, and we hope he will continue in the good work so well begun.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M., commencing, at Boise City, on Monday, December 8th, and ending on the succeeding Thursday, the following officers were chosen for the ensuing Masonic year: John Kenally, M. W. Grand Master; L. P. Mikelson, R. W. D. Grand Master; Ben. M. Davis, R. W. S. Grand Master; A. Rossi, R. W. J. Grand Master; J. W. Griffin, R. W. Grand Treasurer; Jos. Pinkham, R. W. Grand Secretary; H. A. Mattox, Grand Chaplain; J. L. Hall, Grand Orator; Alex. Orchard, Grand Marshal; W. A. Sifers, Grand Sword Bearer; A. L. Richardson, Senior Grand Deacon; J. H. Wickersham, Junior Grand Deacon; A. J. Stucker and E. C. Sterling, Grand Stewards; Paul Kallenbrun, Grand Pursuivant; Adam Gasser, Grand Tiler.

INSTALLATION.—A Good Templar friend at Horseshoe Bend sends us this account of the installation of officers of Payette Lodge, No. 16, I. O. G. T. Date of installment not given: E. E. Flemming, W. C. T.; Mrs. Louisa Robb, W. V. T.; Mr. Eli Perkins, P. W. C. T.; F. R. Starr, W. S.; G. Miner, W. F. S.; Mrs. A. E. Miner, W. T.; R. H. Robb, W. C.; R. McClintick, W. M.; W. Mitchell, W. I. G.; W. Harman, W. O. G.; W. Jenkins, W. A. S.; Miss Mattie Miner, W. D. M.; Mrs. Anna Flemming, W. R. H. S.; Miss Addie Miner, W. L. H. S.

IMPROVING.—Mr. Philip Pencil, the stage driver whose injuries were mentioned in this paper some weeks ago, is improving; though he is not yet considered out of danger, as the leg was terribly mangled, as well as broken.

THE WEATHER.—The intense cold of last week has been abating gradually for several days, and at present writing feathery flakes of snow are descending in lavish profusion over city and country.

THANKS.—We return thanks to Mr. John Merrill for copies of the St. Joseph daily Gazette. The Gazette is one of the best daily papers published, and it seems to us like an old friend.

VACATION.—The District School vacation will continue until the first Monday in January proximo, when the second quarter will begin.

SICK.—Mr. James Judge is lying very sick at his residence, in this city, of inflammation of the stomach.

WOOD.—Wood is now selling in the city at $6 per cord.

GOOD ADVICE.—If grand jurors were always intelligent and intent upon justice, the following, which we clip from the Walla Walla Statesman would be worthy their attention:

"Judge Payne, County Judge of Santa Clara, in a recent charge to the Grand Jury, said: 'You should, in every case, allow the defendant an opportunity of testifying in his own behalf, not only for the purpose of explaining away or disproving the charge, but that you may judge from his actions and appearance and from his manner of testifying, whether he is a person capable of committing crime and liable to punishment.' The advice is worth repeating.

BEN BUTLER SHAMED.—At the opening of the present session of Congress, Ben Butler drew a seat on the Democratic side of the House; but when the Democrats nominated Fernando Wood for Speaker, Ben traded his seat off for one on the Republican side, remarking that that was a little more than he could stand. We always thought Ben too respectable to associate, gratuitously, with New Departure-Passive-Policy-Greeley-Indorsing-Back pay-Grabbing Democrats. It's too much to expect of any body.

REDUCTION OF POSTAGE.—We learn from the Walla Walla Statesman that Postmaster General Creswell, is soon to issue an order reducing the postage on registered letters and packages to eight cents. He should now supply some sort of small change which would enable sending of letters or packages, to get correct change. Under the old regulation the actual charge for sending a registered letter was 15 cents, but as change was usually lacking, 25 had to be paid; and under the new regulation of eight cents, the cost will be about the same.

ENDORSED IT.—The Democratic Representatives in Congress have given an unqualified and unmistakable endorsement to the back-pay steal by nominating and supporting the chief of salary thieves, Mr. Fernando Wood, of New York, for Speaker of the House. It remains now to be seen whether the Democratic masses will endorse their Representatives. If they do this, they make the party an accessory after the fact of the biggest robbery on record, and it should be dropped out of sight.

EQUALLY HONORED.—Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, has been equally honored with Chas. Sumner, in the make-up of committees by that delectable body, the U. S. Senate. Sumner has been assigned to places on two committees—the committee on education and labor, and the committee on privileges and elections; while Mitchell's name appears on the committees on privileges and elections, and on that on claims. Comment on this would be ridiculous.

"JUSTICE."—Dr. Glass, the Portland abolitionist, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. This is justice in Portland. This is the penalty for taking the life of a woman, in Oregon, in attempting to commit the worst of all crimes. Portland, we should think, would hereafter be an inviting field for all such libels on humanity and manhood as Dr. Glass. They flourish best where justice is barlesqued and despised.

HORRIBLE.—The bodily contortions and facial grimaces of the San Francisco Examiner, since Casserly's resignation, are said to be horrible to behold. The Examiner should not take such trifles to heart. The legislature would have elected Booth anyhow.

AVOID IT.—Avoid bad company as you would contagion. The latter is not more destructive to the physical, than the former to the moral healthfulness of the individual.

VALIANT.—By the sinking of the ship Ville de Havre, announced sometime ago, 226 passengers were lost; the captain, five other officers, and 27 passengers were saved. Those officers should have leathern medals—or hemp on ones.

DISTURBED.—The equilibrium of the New-England, Massachusetts, aristocracy was disturbed lately by the daughter of an eminent and wealthy snob marrying her father's hostler Sad!
