

The Olio.

THE LOAFER'S LYRIC.

The dinner-bell, the dinner-bell
In ringing loud and clear!
Through bill and plain, through street and lane,
It echoes far and near!

From curtained hall, and whitewashed stall—
Wherever men can hide—
Like bursting waves from ocean caves,
They float upon the tide.

I smell the small of roasted meat!
I hear the hissing fry!
The beggars know where they can go,
But where, oh, where shall I?

At twelve o'clock, men look my hand—
At two, they only stare,
And eye me with a fearful look,
As if I was a bear!

The poet lays his laurels down,
And hastens to his greens:
The happy tailor quits his goose
To rest on his beans;

The weary cooper snags his thread—
The printer leaves his pi;
His very devil has a home—
But what, oh, what have I?

Methods I hear an angel voice,
That softly seems to say,
"Pale stranger, all may yet be well—
Then wipe thy tears away!"

Ereth thy gills, and cock thy hat,
And follow me afar,
And thou shalt have a jolly meal,
And tick it at the bar!"

I hear the voice! I go!
Prepare your meat and wine!
They little heed their future need,
Who pay not when they dine!

Give me to-day the rowl bow!
Give me one golden dream—
To-morrow kick away the stool,
And dangle from a beam!

REFLECTIONS IN A HORSE-POND.

TIME-NIGHT.

Let me consider a little where I am! My senses are beginning to clear at present, albeit my body is sticking in the mud, and seems to think of nothing less. This plunge, disagreeable as it is, has been of service to me: we should be thankful for everything, for they say "everything is for the best," and upon this principle a tumble into a horse-pond may be good. I shall, however, ascertain this better to-morrow, (that is, if I ever get out of the mud—which I am doubtful.) In the meantime I will say, by way of passing the time, acknowledge my obligation. I am a regenerated creature! Thanks be to heaven! I can see: before my tumble into these revivifying waters, my thoughts were wandering, and my sight was dazzled; now they are fixed, immovably fixed—to this horse-pond: and I only behold one moon instead of two.

I do not exactly know how I came thither. I spent last evening with Tom Rattlebrain, Ned Flighty, and Will Scamper: we had a famous supper, and resolved to make a night of it. The weather was hot, stormy, and goblinish; it led us to tell ghost-stories, which we did till our marrow froze, and our parched throats cried out, like the horse-leech's two daughters, "Give! give!" Purely to raise our courage and moisten our palates, we had a couple of bottles additional. I recollect that after this we told some stories partaking more of the flesh than the spirit, and that at two o'clock in the morning I agreed to ride home on Daylight, hand in hand, like the firefree insignia, with Scamper, who was mounted on Wildfire. I remember something of trying to force Daylight to cross that which I took to be a ferry. I recollect something of our dispute upon this subject, but faintly; I can only guess how the matter ended by the result, for he is gone, and I am here!

The first thing I remember distinctly was seeing my lighted cigar floating fizzing and spitting peevishly upon the water. Poor thing! it did not relish regeneration. I put out my hand to catch it; but it fizzed angrily, and floated away from me. "This was the unkindest cut of all," and when I saw its light go out, I felt as if abandoned by all the world.

It just occurs to me that I have another cause of thanksgiving; since one must sometimes fall into a horse-pond, I am grateful that it is an English one. In some countries, now, those devils of the air—the birds of prey—would keep wheeling, whirling, and shrieking above my head, complimenting each other upon the good supper prepared for them, and then coolly pick up my two eyes before my face!

This idea is suggested by a somewhat uncomfortable circumstance, which notwithstanding my patience, I cannot but be sensible of. Something—I conjecture either an eel or a rat—is gnawing at the boot on my right leg; no other animals venture so deeply into the mud. I wish I could raise my foot.

If it be a rat, he will content himself with the leather, and gnaw away till it be gone; but the eel prefers a bit of meat, and in that case he is only busying himself to open his "pantry-door." Pray heaven it be a rat!

I am a most enduring man. I remember suffering infinite misery a whole season at the house of a particular friend. I was lodged in the best bed-room, and a superb apartment it was. The bed was a tax to my patience: but to my cost, there was a flea in it—"the last flea of summer!" Never shall I forget what I suffered from that single tormentor. I should have known it was only one, from the peculiar pungency of his bite, even if the invariable character of the mark had not also been a witness. The room had been for a long period unoccupied, save by this flea, the survivor of all his family and friends, who had died of starvation in the course of the summer. I bore it patiently several nights, thinking that it was a tax to flea-mania which must be paid; but when night after night, week after week, the same torture continued, I began to grow nervous and irritable. I sought after him diligently in the morning, but never found anything save his trail. Like Destiny, he was always to be felt, but never seen. In the night scarcely had I torn the skin off my shoulder, ere I was imperiously called upon to apply the same remedy to my leg. I felt him hop across my hand as I raised it up, and so rapid were his movements, that he seemed to be jumping on every part of my body at once; like the Indian Apollo, he appeared to have the power of multiplying his person, and of being in fifty places at the same time. He was a single fiend, "whose name was Legion." I started in anguish, shook my sheets, apprehended the mistress of the house, and mentally sent the housemaid to the hottest place I could think of. It was all to no purpose; he seemed to have some extraordinary power of disgorging his prey, and clearing his stomach, which like Time, was always devouring—never full. So rapidly did his constant consecutive meals of breakfast, luncheon, dinner, tea, and supper, tread upon each other's heels, that I seemed to live twenty days in one tortured night. I longed to complain to the master of the house; but how to tell him there was a flea in the best bed—that bed in which he took such pride, and beheld with such admiration; At length I met the housemaid on the stairs. She was as ugly as Repentance, crabbed as Chastity, and old as Mother Shipton; nevertheless I addressed her as "My dear little girl!" gave her a kiss, and a piece of money, and entreated her to kill the fleas in my bed. The next day I met her, and she said, "There be'n't no fleas in your bed as now, sir." "Alas! I knew that—there was but one; and he was a flea of Fate, beyond her power to destroy. Still the torture went on; still did I lie, night after night, miserable, feverish, sleepless, pinched, torn and tortured in every part of my burning skin. At length, considering the enormous power possessed by my tormentor, his divisibility, his infallibility, I came at last to the conclusion, that it was no living flea that thus distracted and disturbed me, but the ghost of some starved tenant of former times, who was allowed this recreation, to make amends for past sufferings. This idea once established, I knew that I had no hope; I had nothing for it but to fly. So I went to my friend, declared (to his astonishment) my intention; and when hard pressed for my reason, painfully and reluctantly gave it. "A flea!" shouted he in a voice between displeasure and mirth, "a flea—and in that bed!—then you must have brought it!" Now was not this too much? I thought my heart would have broken. I, who had endured so much—I, who had suffered torture in silence for six long weeks, to be accused of having brought the alderman of fleas with me! It was beyond human nature to bear. I burst from his presence, packed up his clothes, and, though I am a very good-tempered man, had not seen that friend since. I can never forgive his accusation—I can never forget what I have suffered! As I call to mind that bugging sorrow, I take comfort in the knowledge that I am standing up to my neck in a horse-pond!

Thank you, gentle lady moon! I am grateful for any kind of attention, even though it should be of no use to me; but yours is. I wish I was a poet now!—I could make something of this scenery. I had read a good deal about "moonlight on the waters;" but I never was so near its dancing beams before. The devil take this rat—how he nibbles! My boots are new—a hole in them at last! There's a villainous odour that comes over me from some part of the horse-pond, "at which my nose is in great indignation." It strikes me also, from something uncomfortable in my stomach, that in my plunge I must have swallowed a good allowance of Mark Anthony's liquor. (See SHAKESPEARE'S Anthony and Cleopatra, Act I. scene 4.) The bare idea is enough to make me faint;—only who would be fool enough to faint in a horse-pond?

I have been in my life several times taken in, besides to-night, by these waters. Thank you again, dear, gracious moon! She's very bright just now. There is a large tract of blue in the heavens over which for at least the next twenty minutes, she may travel without being "capped by a cloud;" so I shall have time to look around me. I am nearly in the centre of the pond; the water is perfectly tranquil, except when it bobs against my chin, disturbed by the movement of my head. Heaven help me! suppose I should die here!—as, if nobody comes to my assistance, I certainly shall.

On my first ascertaining the character of my position, recollecting that horse-ponds are generally in the neighborhood of towns or farms, I hallooed so lustily that I found my voice grow husky; so I determined to reserve it for a better occasion—I mean in case any persons should approach—Heaven send them! This would be a comfortless bed to die in!

A huge frog has just discovered me; and he sits among the weeds below the opposite bank, croaking out his speculations as to what I can be. He stares earnestly; so do I. He takes my eye for a challenge—he is a frog of courage, however, for he plunges into the water, swims toward me, and plants himself directly opposite to my face. He croaks; I answer very naturally, for the water has qualified my voice. The frog stares again: "The voice is the voice of Esau, but the form is that of Jacob's." Now he very gravely swims entirely around my head, and then again plants himself in front. I laugh aloud; he backs a little. I open my eyes very wide at him; he returns the compliment; my chin splashes the water about him; he takes fright and disappears.

Hark! there are certainly footsteps in the neighborhood. Halloo!—ough!—ah!—mercy upon me! my voice is quite gone and I shall be compelled to live in this horse-pond the remainder of my days. Who will feed me I wonder. The rats will not be so civil to me as the ravens were to Elijah; and I have affronted the frog. Ha! the footsteps come nearer and nearer. "This a man—I see him—a groom—I'll call. Halloo!—ouk!—croak!"

"Curse your croaking soul," quoth the vagabond; and he flings a stone at my head. Despair and distraction! what shall I do? Die? No, that's cowardly; I'll live bravely, that is, if I can. The fellow is gone, and I'm alone! Alone! What do I hear? Voices—yes; they come—most sweet voices. A gentleman and the rascally groom aforesaid.

"You have not dragged this pond to-night," says the master.

"Indeed, sir, we did—from one end of it to the other," replied the fellow, "see how the weeds are disturbed."

"You lie, you rascal, you did not, or you would have found me there," said I.

"Heighday," cried the master, "what have we here?"

"A gentleman in distress."

"I should think so; but how came you in this pond?"

"I'll tell you when I am out."

"Help, all of you, fellows!" said the gentleman. "Now, sir, hold fast: I was in search of a drunken uncle who has escaped from his servants. Pull away, boys!—I expected to find him in this horse-pond, and I discover a sober gentleman in his place."

N. B. I did not rectify this latter mistake.—Dentley's Miscellany.

TAILORING
RESPECTFULLY informs his former patrons and the public generally, that he has opened a TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT in the rooms adjoining the Store lately occupied by Mr. Kenway, where he will serve all who may favor him with their custom.
Ready made clothing constantly on hand and for sale.
Garments cut and made to order in the neatest, best and most fashionable style, and on terms more reasonable than at any other establishment in the place.
Honolulu, March 18, 1848.

RESPECTFULLY informs his former patrons and the public generally, that he has opened a TAILORING ESTABLISHMENT in the rooms adjoining the Store lately occupied by Mr. Kenway, where he will serve all who may favor him with their custom.
Ready made clothing constantly on hand and for sale.
Garments cut and made to order in the neatest, best and most fashionable style, and on terms more reasonable than at any other establishment in the place.
Honolulu, March 18, 1848.

WHEREAS the undersigned has reason to believe that in one or more cases, spirituous liquors have been smuggled on shore at this port: Now, therefore, this is to give notice to all whom it may concern that the undersigned offers a Reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any person or persons who may give information that shall lead to the detection and conviction of any party or parties who have been, or may hereafter be engaged in landing spirituous liquors in this kingdom, contrary to their custom.
Furthermore, the undersigned pledges himself that, if required by the party or parties giving such information, their names shall, at their option, be scrupulously concealed.
WILLIAM PATY,
Collector General of Customs.
Honolulu, March 25, 1848.—tf

THE undersigned has this day withdrawn from the firm of Waldo & Co., circumstances which he could not control rendering it injudicious in his opinion to continue longer in business under said firm.
For all debts contracted anterior to the date hereof, in the name of Waldo & Co., the undersigned acknowledges his individual liability and is pleased to believe that the assets of the firm will far exceed its liabilities, and that their creditors have no cause to fear for the ultimate payment of their claims in full.
Any debts contracted subsequent to the date hereof, in the name of the firm will be without the concurrence of the undersigned, and consequently not binding upon him.
A. LANGLOIS,
of the firm of Waldo & Co.
Honolulu, 26th Feb. 1848. tf—mh 4

BREAD BAKERY.
THANKFUL for past favors, the undersigned takes this method of informing the public of Honolulu and ship masters visiting this port, that he still continues in the above business next to Mr. Vincent's lumber yard, nearly opposite the Theatre, where he is ready to supply all who wish to favor him with their patronage, with bread made from the best flour in market, (not like the Mauna of the Israelites) but is warranted to keep good over a day. Also, superior American Flour for sale in any quantity, suit purchasers. Terms cash. No patronage asked of those who want credit.
J. BOWDEN.

PROPER application having been made to W. L. Lee, Chief Justice of the Superior Court, for Probate of the last will and testament of late H. H. Rhodes, deceased, and appointment of administrators, by Kapahuakapu: Notice is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, that the 15th day of May next, at 9 o'clock, A. M., is a day and hour assigned for hearing the proof of said will, and of all objections that may be offered thereon, and for the appointment of administrators, at the Court House in Honolulu.
HENRY RHODES,
Clerk of the Superior Court.
Honolulu, April 15, 1848. 4t

SHERIFF'S SALE.
IN virtue of a writ of execution issued by L. M. Honokupu, Justice of the Second District of Oahu, upon a judgment against Mokeke, defendant in execution, in favor of Kaluaa, plaintiff in execution, for $37.75, costs of Court, together with interest, my costs and expenses of levy and advertisement, I have levied upon and shall expose for sale to the highest bidder, on Monday the 15th day of May next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the Custom House in the town of Honolulu, the following property, viz:—1 horse.
Unless the said judgment, interest, costs of Court, and my fees and commissions be previously satisfied, I will sell the above property.
H. SEA, Sheriff.
Honolulu, April 15, 1848. ap 15

THE Co-partnership heretofore existing at Honolulu between the undersigned, under the style of G. RHODES & CO., is this day dissolved by mutual consent.
The affairs of the late firm will be settled by G. Rhodes at Hanalei, Kauai, or by J. R. VonPister at Honolulu, Oahu.
G. RHODES,
JNO. R. VONPISTER.
Hanalei, Island of Kauai, Jan. 25, 1848. hf19f

TO Shipmasters and others. For sale by the Agents of the Hudson's Bay Company: 2 Cabotages, complete for ships, 2 do. for schooners. An assortment of the best Patent Anchors and Chain Cables, Ship's Pumps, Hawse Pipes, Artificial Horizon, Spy Glasses, Sets of Charts of the China Seas and Pacific Ocean, &c., &c., &c. d4. tf.

OREGON PRODUCE.
JUST received per bark "TOULON" from Columbia River, and for sale on liberal terms by the subscribers:
41,000 feet squared Lumber, assorted sizes,
350 bbls. fresh Flour, 42 do. Salted Beef,
16,000 Shingles. S. H. WILLEMS & CO.
Jan. 1. tf.

NOTICE.
ALL persons in any way interested in the estate of Ahng, a Chinaman, deceased, such as creditors, legatees, next of kin or otherwise, are hereby cited to appear before WILLIAM L. LEE, Esquire, Chief Justice of Superior Court, at his office in Honolulu, on Tuesday the 6th day of June next at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to attend the final settlement of the accounts of the executors of said estate, and offer objections if any they have to such account.
HENRY RHODES,
Clerk of the Superior Court.
Honolulu, April 29th, 1848.

FOR SALE.
BY the Agents of the Hudson's Bay Company, a general assortment of Goods, besides Naval Stores, Stationery, Spars, Boards, Plank and Rafters.
Also—Beef, Pork, Flour, Salmon, and Butter of superior quality. tf—oct 2.

NOTICE.
THE Subscriber is the authorized Attorney of THOMAS H. STEVENS, Esq., to arrange all unsettled business during his absence.
VAN RENSELLER MORGAN,
U. S. Naval Storekeeper.
dec 25. tf.

FLOUR, HIDES, &c.
FOR sale by S. H. WILLIAMS & CO. 300 barrels superior Columbia River Flour; 3000 Sandwich Islands Hides; 25 superior Sea Otter Skins; 67 rolls 40 yards each 4x4 China Matting. mh 18. tf.

CLOCKS.
WOODEN, Brass, Alarm and Gothic Clocks—good time keepers—from $2.50 to $8 each. For sale by EVERETT & CO. d4. tf.

WRAPPING PAPER.
FOR sale at the Polynesian Office, a lot of large sized Wrapping Paper. Also Waste Paper suitable for packing. tf—mh 4

$500 REWARD.
JAMES F. LEWIS absconded from Honolulu, on Friday, Dec. 17, 1847, taking with him about $8,000 in gold and silver, and one Bill of Exchange, dated Honolulu, Dec. 17, 1847, drawn by Henry Champlin, Master of ship Henry Take, on Burr & Smith, of Warren, R. I., for between $900 and $900 dollars. Said exchange was drawn in a set of list 2d, 3d and 4th.
Said LEWIS is a man about 35 years of age, dark swarthy complexion, black eyes and hair, roman nose, stout, well built, and about 5 feet tall. He is an American by birth, and formerly resided at Amsterdam, about 17 miles west of Schenectady, N. Y., on the Erie Canal. He wore small gold earrings in both ears when he left. He left in the ship HENRY TAKE, Capt. Champlin, of Warren, R. I., and is supposed to be connected with a Mr. William H. Hardick, who went passenger in the same vessel.
All persons are cautioned against negotiating said Bill of Exchange; also a receipt given by Capt. Champlin and made payable to the aforesaid W. H. Hardick, dated Honolulu, 16th Dec., 1847, for $300.
The subscriber will pay the above reward for the apprehension and conviction of the said James F. Lewis and the recovery of the property aforesaid.
JOSEPH BOOTH.
Honolulu, Dec. 25, 1847.

TO ALL CLAIMANTS OF LAND IN THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS.
NOTICE is hereby given to all persons having claims to land in the Hawaiian Islands, that the Board of Commissioners to quiet land titles will continue to hold its meetings on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, of each week, at "HALE KAWILA," in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, to hear the evidence of claimants in support and defence of their claims.
The claims of persons not residing on the Island of Oahu, will be taken up and heard out of their regular order, so as to suit the convenience of such persons, whenever they may visit Honolulu with their witnesses and evidence to support their claims.
WILLIAM L. LEE,
JOSEPH BOOTH,
Z. KAAUWAI,
N. KAAUWAI,
J. N. MAUWAI.
Dated Honolulu, Feb. 26th, 1848.

M. REDDINGTON,
HOUSE, SIGN, COACH AND ORNAMENTAL PAINTER, has established himself in the above named business at the store owned and recently occupied by Mr. C. W. Vincent, where he will be prepared to execute all orders in his line with neatness and dispatch.
M. R. has constantly on hand and for sale—
Spirits turpentine—boiled linseed oil—Venetian red—lampblack—French yellow—chrome yellow—copal and Japan varnish—white lead, superior quality—verdigris—Paris green—yellow ochre—red ochre—Prussian blue—black paint—putty—whiting—glue—etc., etc.
A large assortment of paint, whitewash, and other brushes.
All orders to be left at the carpentering establishment of Mr. C. W. Vincent.
Honolulu, Nov. 13, 1847.—tf.

ISAAC MONTGOMERY,
DEALER IN GENERAL MERCHANDISE, will keep on hand and for sale, a general assortment of English, French and American Dry Goods, adapted to this market, which he will sell at the lowest cash price.
He has on hand and is constantly receiving a large supply of very superior Salt, which he will sell for cash or barter, on reasonable terms.
Mat Bags, capable of holding half a bushel each, manufactured to order, on hand and for sale.
Shipping supplies with Stock and Hawaiian Produce, at short notice, at the lowest market price. my22

COOPERAGE.
MADISON CLARK takes this method of returning thanks to his patrons for past favors, and would inform them that he has taken the building on the wharf near the store of G. W. Punched & Co., where he will be happy to receive orders in his business.
All orders thankfully received and promptly attended to.
List of Casks of all descriptions, Hoop Iron and Rivets of all sizes, Bathing Tubs, Shower Baths and Buckets, constantly on hand and for sale cheap. aug 21. tf.

COOPERAGE.
THE subscriber would inform his former patrons and the public, that he still continues business at the old stand, next door to Williams & Co., where he will be happy to receive orders in his line of business, which will be executed promptly on the most reasonable terms.
For sale, about 2,200 bbls. superior Casks, and 10,000 lbs. superior American Hoop Iron. aug 28. ly.

JUST PUBLISHED!
HISTORY OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS, embracing their Antiquities, Mythology, Legends, Discovery by Europeans in the sixteenth century, re-discovery by Cook, with their Civil, Religious and Political History from the earliest traditionary period to the present time. By JAMES JACKSON JARVES. Third Edition. For sale at this Office. Price, $1.00 in paper, $1.25 in sheep.

STATIONERY.
JUST received and for sale at the Polynesian office, cheap for cash, an invoice of Stationery, consisting in part of Blank Books, Writing do., Memoranda do., Foolscap paper, ruled and plain, superior Letter paper, Letter Envelopes, Slates and Pencils, Inkstands, Card Racks, Pen do., Lead Pencils, Sealing Wax, &c. &c. Honolulu, March 4, 1848. if Eligible Building and Garden Lot.

THE subscriber offers to sell a portion of land, on the new cross road in Nannau, sufficient for a house and garden lot. It is within a mile of Honolulu and pleasantly situated—good soil, &c. nov 27. tf. G. P. JUDD.

STORAGE.
THE large Yard adjoining the premises of the subscriber is offered to the public for the storage of lumber, spars, &c. Also, a part of the Shed now being erected on the premises. oct 23. tf. F. RODRIGUEZ VIDA.

F. RODRIGUEZ VIDA
WILL keep constantly on hand a general assortment of Ship Chandlery, Provisions, &c. usually required for whale ships touching at this port for recruits; and will supply them at the lowest market prices for cash or Bills of Exchange on the United States, England and France. my 22. tf.

NOTICE.
THE undersigned hereby gives notice that I do not intend, but am authorized to contract debts on the private account of H. H. M., and that he will pay no debts which are not duly authorized by himself. A. PAKI, June 30th, 1847. tf. Chamberlain.

EVERETT & CO.,
IMPORTERS, will keep constantly on hand an assortment of English, French and American GOODS, suitable for export to California and these Islands, which will be sold at low prices. my 22. tf.

WANTED.
A GOOD Sign and Ornamental Painter, of steady habits, to whom constant employment and liberal wages will be given, on application to I. H. WRIGHT.

Dwelling Houses to let or for Sale.
THE extensive premises now occupied by Dr. R. W. Wood. For particulars, inquire of T. C. B. ROOKE. Jan 5. if.

HAWAIIAN SPECTATOR.
COMPLETE Sets of the Hawaiian Spectator, for the years 1838 and 1839, for sale at the Polynesian Office. Price $1 per volume.

FOR SALE.
BLANK BILLS OF EXCHANGE For Whalers and Merchants for sale at the Polynesian Office. my 22

LIST OF PAMPHLETS
PUBLISHED and for sale at this Office, a few copies of the following Pamphlets published by order of Government.
Correspondence between H. H. M.'s Secretary of the Hawaiian Affairs, and Her Britannic Majesty's Consul General, on the subject of Richard Charlton's Claim to Land, 1845. Price 75 cents.
Investigation pursued at the Palace, by command of the King and Premier, in the fall of 1845, in vindication of the course pursued by His Majesty relative to R. Charlton's alleged claim to the land Palahala, in Honolulu, 115 pages with a map. 1845. Price $1.
Supplement to the Investigation at the Palace, containing the particulars of the inquiry before the King, and Rear Admiral Sir George P. Seymour, upon the authenticity of Mr. Charlton's Deed, and the complaints of William Miller, Esq., H. H. M.'s Consul General, touching the events and the case of James Roddick—55 pages—with an Index for reference—1846. Price 75 cents.
Second Supplement to the Investigation at the Palace by command of the King and Premier of the Hawaiian Islands, containing the evidence, given under oath, by Mr. David Male, before the King and Premier, at Lahaina, in March, 1847, upon the subject of Mr. Charlton's claim to land; the whole evidence having been taken in the presence of, and carefully interpreted by the Rev. Dwight Baldwin, to which is added sundry letters relating to that investigation, the San Francisco News, Kaitiaki, and all the other chiefs, and the principles adopted by the Board of Land Commissioners, appointed by the King, for the settlement of titles to land—For sale at this office. 1847. Price 30 cents.
Appendix to the Second Supplement to the Investigation at the Palace, in 1845, on the subject of Mr. Charlton's Land Claim; being a reply to what was published in the San Francisco News, Nov. 27, and 28th February, and 2d March, 1847, in the name of Robert Cheslere Janion, Esquire, on behalf of those against whom he institutes charges of perjury and subornation of perjury—refuting those charges—showing that his extracts from the Missionary Herald are unfair, garbled and deceptive and proving clearly that Kaahumanu was always the superior of Kaitiaki—that neither Kaitiaki nor Boki ever were regents of these Islands—that the functions of Regent belonged to and were exercised by Kaahumanu, and that neither Kaitiaki nor Boki, nor any other chief, ever held powers by their own authority to grant away any lands whatever, far less to grant to third parties the lands belonging to other chiefs, and more especially those of the guardian of the kingdom and the supreme directing chief, Kaahumanu. For sale at this office. Price 25 cents.
In Admiralty—Foreclosure of the Hypothecation on the British brig Epiphania, Captain John S. Nightingale. Price 25 cents.
Correspondence with Consul General Miller, relative to case of Thomas Phillips v. Kohiapuu. Price 12 1/2 cents.
Correspondence between H. H. M.'s Minister of Foreign Relations and the Commissioner of Oahu, in the case of John Wiley. 1845. Price 75 cents.
Principles of Settlement in the final Accounts of Executors and Administrators, adopted by the Court of Oahu, in the case of R. W. Wood, Administrator of the estate of W. C. Little, deceased. Price 25 cents.
Report of the Case of C. Brewer & Co. v. John R. von Pister, tried before the Governor of Oahu, Aug. 19 and 20, 1845. Price 30 cents.
Report of the case of James Gray, an American citizen, Plaintiff in Appeal, v. the Hawaiian Government. 1845. Price 50 cents.
Average Adjustment in the case of American brigantine Lafayette, by M. Kekuanana, Admiralty Judge. Price 25 cents.
Report of the Trial of Brimmade v. Jarves. Price $1.
Official Reports of the Minister of Foreign Affairs, 1845—6, 7. Price 25 cents.
Official Reports of the Minister of the Interior, 1845—6, 7. Price 25 cents.
Official Reports of the Minister of Public Instruction, 1845—6, 7. Price 25 cents.
Official Reports of the Attorney General, 1845—6, 7. Price 25 cents.
Official Report on the existing Harbor laws of the Hawaiian Islands. Price 25 cents.
Official Report on the Registry of Vessels in the Hawaiian Islands. Price 25 cents.
Lex Fori, Court of Oahu. Price 6 cents.

CAVEAT.
THE public attention is called to the following facts:
1st. That on the 24th of November, A. D. 1841, the King and Premier of the Hawaiian Islands, signed a contract, without any proper or valuable consideration, by which Peter A. Brimmade, William Hooper, or their assigns, were allowed to locate unimproved and unoccupied lands for certain purposes, until the 24th November, 1842, which right of location, was on the 12th September, 1842, extended without further consideration to the 24th of November, 1845.
2d. That when there yet remained two years and six months of the term for such location, said Brimmade, Ladd and Hooper, by their duly empowered Attorney, P. A. Brimmade, sold and transferred all their rights under said contract to the Belgian Company of Colonization, and by a contract executed at Brussels, on the 17th of May, A. D. 1843, with that Company, divested themselves of the right to locate and enjoy such lands.
3d. That the Belgian Company not having located or demanded the right of locating such lands, from the 17th of May, 1843, to the 24th of November, 1845, the time for such location has completely elapsed; and the said two contractors have become bound by their own terms.
4th. That said contract of 1841, in accordance with the established custom of these Islands, having been made in duplicate, one being left in the hands of each party thereto, and each duplicate consisting of an English and Hawaiian version, duly signed and sealed, it has come to the knowledge of the undersigned, that Ladd & Co., notwithstanding they have sold and delivered the English version of said contract to the Belgian Company of Colonization, have lately assigned the Hawaiian version of said contract to other parties for purposes unknown to said King and Government.
Therefore, know all men, that in case any person or persons shall hereafter pretend to claim or assert any right under either of those void contracts by reason of purchase, transfer or assignment, such person or persons will meet the just and legal opposition of the Hawaiian Government.
And be it further known to all men, that whoever shall purchase or contract to purchase lands at his or their own peril, and be deemed to have purchased a nullity.
Done by order of the King and Government of the Hawaiian Islands, at the Department of Finance, in Honolulu, Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, this 21st day of May, 1847.
G. P. JUDD,
Minister of Finance and Attorney for the King's Government. my 22. ly.

RULES RELATING TO COASTERS, &c.
1st. ALL DECKED VESSELS, of every size and description, must be Registered before engaging in the Coasting Trade or hoisting the Hawaiian Flag.
2nd. Vessels that carry only the produce of the owner's farm or plantation, while such produce remains his property, require no Coasting License, but they must be Registered.
3d. Hawaiian Subjects may transport the native produce purchased by them on the particular Island where they are licensed to Peddle, to any part of the Kingdom, in their own registered vessels, without a Coasting License.
4th. Any Vessel engaged in the Coasting Trade and carrying freight on shares or for hire, without having first obtained a Register and Coasting License, will be confiscated and sold for the benefit of the Royal Exchequer.
JOHN YOUNG,
Home Office, Minister of the Interior.
Honolulu, 20th September, 1847. sept 25

JUST PUBLISHED!
LADD & CO.'S HAWAIIAN GOVERNMENT.—The printed record of the Court of Arbitration held by Messrs. Stephen H. Williams and James F. B. Marshall, Arbitrators under commission of His Majesty, King Kamehameha III., on the 15th day of July, 1846, in the case of the Hawaiian Government, Plaintiff, against the Hawaiian Subjects, Defendants. 671 pages octavo; price $2.50. For sale at this office. aug 21. tf.

STORAGE.
MAY be had in the Store Premises formerly owned and occupied by Ladd & Co. Please apply to WILLIAM PATY. Honolulu, Aug. 13, 1847. aug 17

OFFERS for sale on liberal terms, Best Broom, Portland Cement, Copper Nails, and Woolf Nails, and a general assortment of Ship Chandlery. sept 18. tf.

J. J. SARANAVE
OFFERS for sale on liberal terms, Best Broom, Portland Cement, Copper Nails, and Woolf Nails, and a general assortment of Ship Chandlery. sept 18. tf.

PRICE OF PUBLIC STAMPS of the Hawaiian Islands, to be impressed at the Office of the Minister of Finance, in Honolulu, on the 1st day of the month of August, 1847. The following documents to be legally required by Law, to be stamped.
"All deeds, leases, mortgages of present property, hypothecations, bonds, and other contracts, agreements not to be performed, or in other contracts, all articles of co-partnership, all engagements, extensions, powers of attorney, petitions and applications to the departments, licenses, letters testamentary and administration, inventories, receipts and exhibits, one dollar each."
"Process of the Courts of Judicature, in the island districts (judicial), 3/10ths cent."
"The following documents of law, which require a fifth part of the act, to be at the expense of the party therein prescribed; and the judicial costs, which are at the expense of any party therein prescribed."
STAMPED PAPER, Letter and Receipt, 1/10th cent. 1/20th cent. 1/40th cent. 1/80th cent. 1/160th cent. 1/320th cent. 1/640th cent. 1/1280th cent. 1/2560th cent. 1/5120th cent. 1/10240th cent. 1/20480th cent. 1/40960th cent. 1/81920th cent. 1/163840th cent. 1/327680th cent. 1/655360th cent. 1/1310720th cent. 1/2621440th cent. 1/5242880th cent. 1/10485760th cent. 1/20971520th cent. 1/41943040th cent. 1/83886080th cent. 1/167772160th cent. 1/335544320th cent. 1/671088640th cent. 1/1342177280th cent. 1/2684354560th cent. 1/5368709120th cent. 1/10737418240th cent. 1/21474836480th cent. 1/42949672960th cent. 1/8589934