The Polynesian.

HONOLULU, SATURDAY, MAY 28, 1853.

No 3

The Polynesian.

NOW LANDING AND FOR SALE—A ship, named the Ceres, Capt. G. G. Underwood, Master, late of the China ports, and bound from Canton, China, to Honolulu, O. C., is now, by special permission of the Governor, landing at Honolulu for the purpose of unloading her cargo at the rate of $1.00 per ton, and she is for sale. The vessel is in good order, and the cargo consists of copra, rice, and hemp. The ship is fitted out for a voyage to the Sandwich Islands, and the price is $5,000. The cargo is estimated at $15,000. The vessel is 300 tons, and the cargo is estimated at 1,200 tons. The vessel is well provided with fresh water and provisions, and is in good order.

THE POLYNESIAN.

HONOLULU, May 26, 1853.

Vo1.1(M)

CASES, 1853.

HAWAIIAN LEGISLATURE.

The legislature met on Monday, May 17, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

The legislature met on Tuesday, May 25, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

The legislature met on Thursday, May 27, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

The legislature met on Saturday, May 29, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

The legislature met on Monday, May 31, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.

The legislature met on Tuesday, June 2, for the opening of the session. The members presented their reports, and the bills passed in the last session were read. The session was opened by the Governor, and the bills were read and passed. The bills were then sent to the House of Representatives for consideration.