(Special to the Garden Island) HANAIEI, May 20. Mrs. Ah Hoy, wife of a well known Chinese merchant here, paid her respects to Judge Huddy here today, to whom payment was made in the sum of one hundred dollars as an excessive liquor license in connection with a "blind pig."

Journal Compiler Loses His Job

(Special to the Garden Island) HONOLULU, May 22. So much fault was found with the manner in which the House Journal was progressing, that the work has been taken from David Hanalei and handed over to Woodward to finish.

Directors Decide Against Protest

At a meeting of the Directors of the Kauai Athletic Association held in the parlor of the Fairview Hotel last Saturday evening, a decision was rendered against protests which had been filed by the Kilaua and Kawaihau teams, the former being based on importing players and the latter on a blocked ball.

Grove Farm In Market For Mules

Manager Broadbent, of the Grove Farm Plantation, dispatched Dr. Glaisyer to Honolulu Saturday for the purpose of selecting eight mules for plantation work. A new consignment of fine stock was recently received by a Honolulu firm, from which the plantation will get first choice.

Obstructing Road With Automobiles

If the owners and drivers of automobiles would use a little care in lining up to one side of the road on steamer days, there would be less difficulty in passing along the highway in front of the freight house. There is room makai of the road for every automobile in Lihue to line-up with perfect safety.

President Diaz Down And Out

President Diaz hopes to end hostilities by stepping down and out. He has submitted his resignation to take effect "Mui pronto," giving ill health as his reason for resigning, filing his resignation with the Peace Conference.

Wailua Grows Spuds--Six Negroes Are Swung

(Special to the Garden Island) KAPAA, May 23. The Homestead lands here are being developed and improvements are being made as rapidly as time and means will permit. Manager Fairchild is giving the homesteads his personal assistance and the remaining lots will very likely be taken up within the next few weeks.

Falls Into Boiling Vat--New Director--Oil Roads

Kapaa Homesteads Interest Settlers

(Special to the Garden Island) KAPAA, May 23. The Homestead lands here are being developed and improvements are being made as rapidly as time and means will permit. Manager Fairchild is giving the homesteads his personal assistance and the remaining lots will very likely be taken up within the next few weeks.

Wailua Grows Irish Potatoes

(Special to the Garden Island) WAILUA, May 22. Thirty bags of Irish potatoes were shipped to Honolulu by Saturday's Kinau from here, having been grown in this district by a Chinese gardener. This is the first shipment from here this season and a fair price is the result.

Lynchers Swing Six Murderers

(Special to the Garden Island) LAKE CITY, ALA. May 22. This city was thrown into a great excitement this morning when six negroes charged with the murder of white men, were taken from the city jail by a small band of lynchers and hung. The crowd dispersed before any identification could be made.

New K. A. C. Man Made A Director

(Special to the Garden Island) KEALAHUA, May 23. At a meeting of the members of the K. A. C. ball team here last Friday evening the name of C. B. Gray was placed in nomination for the position as director in place of J. W. W. Brewster, resigned. Mr. Gray was duly elected and placed his credentials before the meeting of the Directors at Saturday night's meeting, on which favorable action was taken.

Oiled Road Is Cause of Trouble

One man was sent to the hospital and another painfully bruised as the result of an accident one day last week, caused by oiled roads. The first accident occurred when a Japanese boy who was on horse back, made an attempt to turn his horse, when the latter slipped, throwing the rider to the ground. A Japanese Minister was passing at the time, and in attempting to pass the same spot, his horse also slipped, throwing him from the buggy and landing him on his head. He remained unconscious for some time, but is not thought to be seriously hurt.

Falls Into A Boiling Vat

(Special to the Garden Island) KAKAHA, May 17. A Japanese workman, while passing a vat of boiling sugar here today, accidentally fell in and received burns from which it is doubtful he will recover. It is not known how the accident occurred as no one witnessed it.

BURIAL ASS'N IS ORGANIZED

Beautiful Monument Will Be Erected, The Sculpturing Upon Which, Is Done By Famous Danish Artist

An organization to be known as the Lihue Burial Association has recently been completed, the object of which is to provide free burial places for those who are so unfortunate as to have no arrangements made for such. All who desire, however, will be allowed to purchase a family plot. The association has acquired a tract of land for its needs, having an area of several acres, which partly surrounds the Lihue cemetery. In a conspicuous part of this plot, perhaps in the center—a beautiful marble monument will be erected the gift of Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. Hans Isenberg and Mr. Paul Isenberg. The artistic sculpturing on this magnificent stone is the work of the famous Danish artist Sinding, whose time is divided between special work in Paris and Denmark and when completed, will cost thousands of dollars.

Hans Doden, an employee of the Kilaua Sugar Co. a man who has been educated as a land-scape gardener, laid out the plot, and if present plans are carried through, pretty flower gardens will be artistically grouped here and there throughout the grounds.

Officers of the association are Hans Isenberg, president; W. H. Rice, Sr., vice-president; H. D. Wishard, Secretary and Treasurer. Directors including the above officers are, A. S. Wilcox and G. N. Wilcox. Mrs. Hans Isenberg will act as manager.

Farewell Dinner To Beno-Weldon Stars

The Hotel Fairview's dining room was the scene of gaiety last Friday evening, the occasion being a farewell dinner given the Beno-Weldon show troupe by the guests of the hotel. Places were laid for eleven, the table decorations consisting of a beautiful centerpiece composed of red carnations, artistically hidden among a profusion of maiden-hair ferns. Present were Mrs. Weldon, Miss Hazel Weldon, Miss Ida Weldon, Miss May Weldon, Miss Hurst, Ben Beno, Fred Weldon, Dr. Derby, H. Morgan, K. Cameron, and E. B. Bridgewater.

Mrs. Chas. Rice Hostess At Tea

On Friday afternoon, Mrs. Charles A. Rice, entertained at a very enjoyable tea, at her beautiful sea-side home, "Kalapaki" complimentary to Mrs. Arthur Rice, who has just returned from the coast. Artistic in every detail was the affair, and the decorations especially pleasing. The lanai, overlooking the bay, with a fascinating view of the mountains beyond, presented a most inviting appearance to the guests as they entered and were cordially received by the charming hostess. Here, maiden hair ferns in profusion, contrasted pleasantly with crimson carnations. Graceful to a degree, was the arrangement of ferns, dahlias and bright yellow daisies, which made a veritable bower of the spacious living room. Under large hanging baskets of maiden hair ferns and begonia, dainty tables were set, where delicious refreshments were served. The motif of the center table being yellow, the epergne was a large cluster of nasturtiums, gracefully arranged in a low reed basket. The invited guests were Mrs. Arthur Rice, Mrs. S. W. Wilcox, Mrs. Hans Isenberg, Miss Irwin, of Chicago, Mrs. A. S. Wilcox, Mrs. W. H. Rice, Jr., Mrs. Conroy, Mrs. F. L. Putman, Mrs. R. L. Wilcox, Mrs. Christ, Mrs. Carter, Mrs. Rohrig, Miss Hodgins and Miss Ellison.

Electric lighting For Lihueites

At a meeting last week, of the directors of the recently projected electric lighting plant for Lihue, it was decided to go ahead with the project, work on the power plant to begin at once. The power will be generated at a water source on the mauka side of the plantation and transported to Lihue and surrounding communities. It is thought that the juice will be ready for consumers within two years.

Laborers Of Jury Are Deferred

The work of the present Grand Jury has been deferred. Several indictments were found against Kauai Citizens, among whom were George Bertram and Charlie Ah Nee, the former being charged with white slavery and the latter, the Edmunds Act. They were taken to Honolulu Friday by Deputy U. S. Marshal D. K. Sherwood.

Soldiers To Live Right In Honolulu

Plans are on foot for the bringing into Honolulu, the soldiers now stationed at the barracks in the different parts of the island. Negotiations are under way for the purchase of several blocks of property in the immediate vicinity of the palace, on which a building sufficiently large to house thousands of men and their equipment will be built. The Honolulu people look upon this immense project with hearty approval.

Eleele Wedding Bells - Diaz Exports Big Sum

Waimea Park--Peace Is Nearing--Dying From Heat

Wedding Bells For A Popular Couple

(Special to the Garden Island) ELEELE, May 22. The wedding uniting Mr. I. Akana and Miss Rose Aea, was solemnized in the Catholic Church here at half past seven o'clock Saturday evening, witnessed by only intimate friends of the couple, the local pastor officiating. The happy couple immediately after the ceremony, departed for Waimea, where they were tendered a sumptuous luau at the home of the bride's parents. The bride is one of Waimea's fairest young society buds, while the groom is an employee of the McBryde Sugar Co. in the capacity of pump engineer. Mr. and Mrs. Akana will reside in Eleele, where they are now "at home" to their many friends.

English Rule For Our Territory

(Special to the Garden Island) HONOLULU, May 22. It is rumored that English rule may be adopted here, which will mean military commission in so far as soldiers are concerned. In army circles, the subject is being broadly discussed and is looked upon by some as impracticable.

Waimea Owns Too Many Parks

(Special to the Garden Island) WAIMEA, May 22. Much was said in praise of those who figured in establishing the Hofgaard park, but little can be said of this nature as regards those responsible for its upkeep. The grass is looking shaggy and too little interest is shown in that which means so much to the attractiveness of our pretty little village. Instead of creating another park, judging from appearances, Waimea has too many parks already.

War Dogs Are Suing For Peace

(Special to the Garden Island) JUAREZ, May 22. A peace agreement has been signed by both fighting elements and all out posts are being notified as rapidly as possible. An independent band of insurgents has been organized, who are pillaging stores and residences.

Heat Depopulates City Of Chicago

(Special to the Garden Island) CHICAGO, May 22. A hot wave, the equal of which has not been experienced here for years, caused the death of fifty-four babies yesterday.

Mexico's Leader Becomes Exporter

(Special to the Garden Island) JUAREZ, May 22. President Diaz strongly denies the charge that he has exported ten million dollars to another country as an act of security to his fortune. In spite of this denial, however, the report is generally thought to be true.
