More Prize Letters

Kealia, Kauai, April 16, 1912.
Dear Mr. Bridgewater:
Thank you very much for the dollar which you sent to our school. I am the lucky girl, I drew it with four other children and I got the lucky paper so I have the dollar. This is my first letter sent by mail. I am ten years old. I am in the third grade.
Good-bye,
Yours truly,
ELIZABETH KAHANU,
Anahola School.

Makaweli, Kauai, April 16, 1912.
Dear Mr. Bridgewater:
Thank you very much for your present. I am a little Korean girl. I am seven years old.
Respectfully yours,
TAI BAI NUM.

Makaweli, Kauai, April 16, 1912.
Dear Mr. Bridgewater:
You gave a one dollar prize for the best boy or girl in the IV and V Grade.
I won it because I tried my best to please Miss Lee by helping and obeying her.
After I went home I gave it to my mother.
LOUIE FRATES.
Twelve years old, IV grade of the Makaweli School.

Makaweli, Kauai, April 16, 1912.
Dear Mr. Bridgewater:
I thank you Mr. Bridgewater for the one dollar prize you gave me. I gave it to my mother, she bought me a nice new shirt. I will wear it on Sundays. I am a little Russian boy eleven years old. I came from Russia six months ago. I am in the second grade.
Thank you Mr. Bridgewater,
MECHAYEL BOGDANOFF.

Excuses To Teachers

Among a collection of notes from parents to teachers are the following, reprinted from the National Monthly:
"Dear Miss, Please excuse my being late she has been out on a herring."
"Dear Madam: Jane has had to stop home as I have had twins. It shan't occur again."
"Dear Sir: Please excuse Harry. He hadnt no trousers and his father wouldnt let him come without any."
"Dear Miss Smith: Please excuse Rachel Abraham. She had to fetch er mother's liver."
"Sir: I must strictly forbid you punishing Thomas again for anything he does, as we never do ourselves except in self-defence.
Yours truly,"

Chance To Win a Prize

It is astonishing how many well educated people are a little lame in mathematics. For instance, just to test you, how much dirt is there in a hole 5 1/2 ft. long, 1 1/4 ft. wide, and 3 1/4 ft. deep. THE GARDEN ISLAND will give a prize to each of the first five persons sending correct answers. The correct answer with the names of the winners will be published in the next issue.

A Grand Old Teacher

Newberry country boasts a teacher who has taught thirty-nine full terms in the public schools of that country and is now entering upon her fortieth term. In Mrs. Jane A. Long Newberry country has a faithful and devoted servant. She was born and reared in Newberry and has spent her life there teaching in the public schools. Thirty-nine years of teaching is an unusual record for a woman. —Southern School News.
