to have a postoffice and school house. The latter has been granted, but it is not altogether likely it will be occupied until the opening of the next fall term. A new name for their town is also in the stage of incubation, some Hawaiian name being the unanimous choice.

It was at first thought the Kealia Plantation interests would suffer from the labor point of view—that the pineapple factory, as well as the growing of pines, would seriously interfere with the plantation labor. However, as the pineapple crop develops, it is seen that the work can be done in its entirety by the homesteader himself, and that the cannery will probably be run from the same source, thus eliminating any possible disagreement as to labor. The majority of stockholders and officers are residents of the Garden Island which fact guarantees a straight deal to the homesteader who will, at the expiration of a certain time, become a part owner of the plant, thus making it one great co-operative concern. As this will be the first digression from the old time-worn path of doing business, in the Territory, the results will be observed with more than ordinary interest. Many of our prominent business men have advocated this method, but never as yet had an opportunity to put their ideas into action, and as a consequence wish to closely follow every phase of the experiment with a view to satisfying themselves as to the merits of the case.

H. H. Brodie, the recognized authority on growing pines on Kauai, and who has furnished the bulk of seedlings for the Kapaa Homesteads says: "I am sure that Kapaa will be one of the greatest producers of pines that we shall have in the Territory." Promotor Lutted, in sizing the situation up said: "I am more than gratified with the results so far, of my efforts to establish the pineapple industry at Kapaa. There is a brilliant future ahead for the place, and I expect to see, before long, the largest town on Kauai, nestling around our factory in Kapaa."

Manager Horner managed to stop work long enough to remark that were he given from sun to sun, he could hardly even begin to say all he could concerning the future for Homesteader Tracy, for a number of years identified with Jas. Dole, the Wahiawa pineapple king, but who is at present one of the many Kapaa enthusiasts, and says he is certain that the Kapaa lands are far superior to those of Wahiawa, and that the first crop will bear him out in his statement.

Courteous to the last degree, and as busy as bees, the colony composing the Kapaa homesteaders, is like one great, big, happy family, and a day spent in the shadow of their beaming hospitality, is a delightful experience never to be forgotten.

Come Into Court

The following additional names of persons on Kauai have been added to the Federal Jury list at Honolulu:

William John Kruse, Jr., Kekaha; Frank Crawford, Lihue; Richard N. Oliver, William James Smith, Waimea; William George Pillar, Wahiawa.

Ready---Play Ball!

Quite a large and enthusiastic meeting of the Kanae Athletic Association was held in Lihue Saturday evening, at which organization for the year was completed, officers elected and plans for the baseball season shaped out. In the absence of the president, who was unavoidably absent, Vice President Gaylord P. Wilcox was in the chair and Dr. Glaisyer officiated as secretary.

All of the clubs of the island were represented, either by delegates or by proxy.

The following were elected officers for the new year: B. D. Baldwin, president; Gaylord Wilcox, vice president; A. R. Glaisyer, secretary; H. D. Wishard, treasurer.

Finance Committee—Gaylord Wilcox, W. D. McBryde, H. D. Wishard and C. B. Gray.

Schedule Committee—A. R. Glaisyer, D. K. Hayselden and Allan Wilcox.

Umpire Committee—J. A. Akina, A. R. Glaisyer and A. Honan.

It was decided to follow the same plan of playing the games at different parts of the island, provided enough money can be raised for defraying expenses. This year, as in the past, transportation will be the big item of expense. If subscriptions are forthcoming, it can easily be arranged to play games at all centers; but if the muzzuma does not show up it will be necessary to arrange the schedule accordingly and contract the territory in which the teams may appear.

Last year about $600 were raised with which to clear off a previous debt and about $500 more for the season's expenses. This year only the expenses will have to be looked out for, so that $500 will probably be enough. The hope was expressed that no difficulty would be experienced in raising this amount. Of course, the plantations will have to be relied upon pretty heavily, as in the past; but it is to be hoped that this time much more than the usual amount can be raised by popular subscription in small sums.

The outlook for good baseball this year is all that could be desired. All of the teams, except Lihue and Kealia, are now practicing, and very shortly the two mentioned will likely get down to hard work.

It is the intention of the committees to get to business right away, so that in a very short time the details for the season will be in shape for the command: "Play Ball!"

Makaweli Happenings

Dr. Norris, sugar technologist at the H. S. P. A. Experimental station, spent three days in Makaweli last week.

Clem Akina has been selected to captain the Makaweli baseball team this season.

Last Saturday afternoon a committee of three of the white employees of the Hawaiian Sugar Co., made the annual award of cash prizes offered by the management for the best appearing yards and quarters of the laborers. Three prizes were awarded. This is a practice which the management has carried on for three years and the results show it to be an excellent one.

Carl Bayer, manager of Makaweli store, has recently received a Spaulding rowing machine. Mr. Bayer, who in his early days was a "crack" stroke on one of the large university crews in the "old country," contemplates teaching all aspirants from this section the art of scientific rowing.

It is reported that C. W. Smith of this place has ordered a large vulcanizing outfit, upon the arrival of which he proposes to repair all tubes and tires of plantation people free of charge.

Mrs. Carl Spillner left for Honolulu in the Kinohiki last week.

Church Services

Rev. Mr. Lydgate preached in the Lihue Union Church Sunday morning, and Sunday evening had an exceptionally large congregation at Eleele, considering the threatening weather. Next Sunday morning there will be services again in Lihue Union, and in the afternoon Mr. Lydgate will preach to the people of Koloa.

Waimea Court Cases

In the Waimea district court last Friday Judge Hofgaard heard the case of the Territory against Kouchi, charged with embezzlement. Defendant was employed as a clerk in Naruse's store, and it appears that he had been abstracting money in small amounts for a long time. The total so misappropriated amounted to between $300 and $400. The accused was found guilty and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of four months.

On Friday two Filipinos were arraigned in the same court on a charge of stealing coconuts from the premises of Gay & Robinson. They entered pleas of guilty and were fined $2 and costs each.

Eleele News Notes

The "people of the Highlands" entertained their friends and themselves quite royally Saturday evening in the way of a "pedro party" at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morse. The attendance was quite large and all had a jolly, good time. Beginning at 8 o'clock, the function progressed until the early hours of Sunday were (inadvertently, of course) encroached upon.

The lady's first prize was won by Mrs. R. L. Hughes, and the gentleman's first prize by Mr. Chas. F. Dillingham. Miss Janet Hastie annexed the lady's "booby", while Mr. Geo. A. Gonsalves was the star of the evening in the same class for gentlemen.

After cards, there was dancing and refreshments.

Among those present who took part in the competition were: Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bole, Mr. and Mrs. Rath, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. K. Roendahl, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Morse, Misses Mable, Janet, Marion, Eva and Maile Hastie, Misses Grace and Esther Ing, Miss Rach and Miss Blue; Chas. F. Dillingham, Ecklund, Miller, Gonsalves, H. H. Brodie, Captain Leavitt, C. H. Alspaugh and Eby.

The "people of the Highlands" are organizing a pedro and dancing club, and intend to have a pedro tournament, running over a considerable period, in the near future.

Miss Helva Schimmelfenig, of Koloa, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Silva.

Messrs. H. H. Brodie, J. I. Silva, R. L. Hughes, Captain Leavitt, K. Roendahl, F. A. Alexander and Walter McBryde attended the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce in Waimea on Thursday.

Briber Fined Heavy

The Chinaman accused of bribing Judge Puuki, at Kawaihau, had his case thoroughly aired in Judge Dickey's court last week. It appears that the defendant had "slipped" $25,000 to the court, which the latter took out, like all good officials, proceeded to press charges against the celestial for bribery. The case was a plain one, apparently, and the jury brought in a verdict of guilty. Judge Dickey, also, evidently does not believe in bribery, for he assessed the defendant $300.00. Notice of appeal was given by Mr. Hannestad, attorney for the Chinaman.
