M'BRYDE BLUES TAKE FIRST LEG

As was to have been expected, immense crowd, witnessed the first game in the championship baseball series at Eleele Sunday afternoon, where, amid all manner of "rooting" and the sounding of auto horns, the fortunes of the day swayed from side to side and finally settled upon the banner of the McBrydes.

After all is said, the game was a puzzle from start to finish. Both sides played bad at times, and made costly errors. Toward the end of the game some of the Makawelis seemed to lose their heads, with most disastrous results. At the end of the first half of the sixth innings the Makawelis had six runs to one for their opponents but in the remaining three innings the score had been so shifted around that it stood 12 to 7 in favor of the McBrydes.

Makawelis were first to bat and A. Fernandez, who hit safe, succeeded in making the circuit before his side was retired. The McBrydes failed to score. In the second innings, with bases full, Joe Fassoth hit safe and scored J. Costa, giving the Makawelis one run in that frame. For the McBrydes, Gabriel, first man up, worked around to third and on a passed ball stole the plate. In the third Akina, of the Makawelis, hit safe, was advanced by others and scored on a mix-up at the home plate. The McBrydes failed to score, John Costa making a fine one-hand catch at the close of the inning.

Ireneo Akana had pitched up to this time for the McBrydes, but at the beginning of the fourth Joe Aka took the box. No run for the Makawelis. The McBrydes did not get a man beyond first base. In the fifth Hans Fassoth landed a two bagger, and, with the usual assists, reached home. The McBrydes failed again to tally.

In the sixth innings, with two men on bases, Joe Fassoth struck for three bags, scoring both men ahead of him, but was thrown out himself at the plate on a close decision. The score was then 6 to 1 in favor of the Makawelis as above stated.

The McBrydes then tightened up for a terrific onslaught, and the Makawelis seem to go off their feet. The game fairly bristled with errors, and they were hard to account for, too, for every man played the game for all it was worth. The inning actually worked itself out as follows: Aka singled. Spalding hit for one bag and on passed ball, pitcher to third. Aka scored. Gabriel died, pitcher to first. J. Pacheco singled, scoring Spalding. T. Pacheco hit safe, and on a series of wild throws worked around to third, while J. Pacheco scored. Aka singled, scoring T. Pacheco. Akana hit for one bag. J. Costa fanned. Denchi singled, stole second and both Aka and Akana tallied. Aka fanned. Runs for the inning, 6.

Neither side scored in the seventh innings. In the eighth Makaweli got several men to first and on a wild throw by pitcher over second, Fernandez scored. McBrydes up, the second half progressed as follows: Joe Aka made first on miff by John Costa. Akana flew out to J. Fassoth. Cesta got hit on miff by Thompson, and Aka tallied. Denchi died at first. Aka got first on miff by Pitcher Kruse and Costa scored. Spalding singled and on wild throwing, Aka tallied. Then on a passed ball Spalding ran in. Gabriel struck for one bag, stole second and on J. Pacheco's safe hit, tallied. I. Pacheco was thrown out at second. For the Makawelis, Akina, Costa and Oneha fanned in one, two, three order.

The score by innings was as follows:

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|-----------|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|-------|
| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 | 6 | 7 | 8 | 9 | Total |
| Makaweli, | 1 | 1 | 1 | 0 | 1 | 2 | 0 | 1 | 0 | 7 |
| McBryde, | 0 | 1 | 0 | 0 | 0 | 6 | 0 | 5 | x | 12 |

Next Sunday afternoon's game will be played on the Makaweli grounds. In event of the McBrydes again winning, the season will end then and there. But if the Makawelis win, a third game will be played in Lihue the succeeding Sunday to settle the tie.

NEW BUNGALOWS FOR THE SCHOOLS

The trouble about the site for the proposed new school for the Waipouli homesteads has been gotten out of the way, and at the end of last week Mr. Moragne began the work of putting up the building there, on Lot 88. There was at first some question about the title to a lot on this property, but the land department at Honolulu made such arrangement as to justify the authorization to the Kauai Board of Supervisors to go ahead with the building. The school house at that place will be of the bungalow type, 24 by 27 feet.

Two new buildings have been added to the Koloa school and will be ready for service at the opening of the term in September. They are both bungalows, of the regulation size and design; and stand to the right of the front entrance.

Another bungalow, 24 by 27, has been erected near the road on the premises of the Lihue school to be used for the purposes of manual training; and another of identical design and size has been built at the Eleele school for the same purpose.

Improvements have been completed at several other schools, so that at the opening in September all will be found in excellent shape for the year's work.

RAISING MONEY FOR RED CROSS

Germans of the Hawaiian Islands are raising a fund for the assistance of the German wing of the Red Cross in Europe, and the total, it is said, will run into very big money. When all is collected it will be forwarded to the Old County through Messrs. Hackfeld & Company, Honolulu.

In conjunction with the general campaign for funds, a list was started on Kauai about ten days ago. In Lihue nearly $1,900.00 was raised, and more than $500 has been added at Koloa, while between that town and Kekaha about $500 additional has come in. The grand total for the island of Kauai will probably reach $5,000.00.

It is understood that Germans all over the United States are raising money for the same purpose, so that the receipts from American sources will likely be enormous.

The supposition locally is that the money will go to the headquarters of the Red Cross in Switzerland, to be distributed from there through the proper channels.

Employees Have Outing

Eighteen employees of the Lihue and Hanamaulu stores motored over to the Barking Sands on the Lihue Store truck last Sunday, having an all around "good time". After a dip in the ocean, a picnic was enjoyed under the lea trees. On their way home the baseball game at Eleele was taken in. The party consisted of: John Raposo, N. Napoleon, Y. Yoshimoto, Teramoto, Philip Adolfo, John Mikalaina, Ishii, Doi, Nagao, Fujita, Ota, Gunichi Muraoko, M. Raposo, Anton Nobrigo, Otto Koerta, Frank Nobrigo and M. Camara.

Palmer Woods Coming

Palmer Woods, of Hawaii, who is a candidate for nomination on the Democratic ticket for delegate in Congress, will arrive on Kauai in the Kinau tomorrow and will vie with the Juvenile Bostonians in holding public attention for a few days. It is assumed that he will make a hurried tour of the island, speaking at various places and returning to town Saturday night.

Homesteaders Wed

Marion Robello and Miss Perrier, both of Kalaheo (Homesteads), were married Sunday.

BOSTONIANS TO STAGE BEST PLAYS

The Juvenile Bostonians will arrive at Waimea by the Kinau tomorrow, will be met by members of the Waimea committee and taken to the Bayview Hotel. Two entertainments will be given there, in the social hall, the first on Wednesday evening, the play being "The Isle of Spice"; and the second Thursday evening, the company then presenting "My Tango Maid".

It is assumed that the troupe will remain in Waimea Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and on Friday evening will present "The Dream Girl" to an audience at Koloa.

The troupe will then proceed to Lihue where "The Golden Slipper" will be presented on Saturday evening, to be followed by "The Loves of Lenore" on Monday evening.

Reservations for each of the performances have been quite heavy, so that crowded houses at each place is already assured.

It is to be noticed that not a single program is to be repeated anywhere, in consequence of which it is presumed that at each place quite a few people will come from neighboring towns.

Kinau Leaves Friday

The Kinau this week will leave Nawiliwili Friday afternoon, September 4, in place of Saturday, September 5.

Misses Wilson (two sisters), recent arrivals from Canada, have been added to the teaching staff of Koloa school. They will likely arrive on Kauai next week.

HANAMAULU HAS A BURGLARY CASE

The Hanamaulu store was burglarized a few nights ago, three watches and two pocket knives being taken. It is just possible that some other odds and ends were picked up but if so they have not been definitely missed.

The thief got into the store through one of the side windows. The method of getting in and character of merchandise taken has caused the authorities to suspect Filipinos.

A strange thing about the burglary is that no attempt was made to take anything of very large value or any large amount of anything. The thief was evidently satisfied with a small haul for his trouble.

Two Cars Collide

At the head of the lane leading to Makaweli mill, the car of H. S. Padgett, of Makaweli, collided with a car driven by one Makishima Sunday afternoon, the wheels of the former being broken and both cars being otherwise slightly injured.

The police allege that Padgett was on the wrong side of the road when the accident happened, and have issued a penal summons for him to appear in court and answer to the charge.

Picnic At Lawai

Mrs. B. D. Baldwin, of Makaweli, is giving a picnic at McBryde's beach house today to members of her family and a few friends.

KAUAI SUGAR THAT SOLD VERY HIGH

Hawaiian Sugar (Makaweli) got a big lot of sugar into New York at figures above 6 cents, returns concerning which have begun to arrive. In the first lot there were 537 tons, which brought the very high figure of 6.52. This was followed a few days later by a very large shipment of Makaweli sugar, which arrived at Delaware Breakwater at 6.01. There were 2,579 tons in the latter shipment, the total value of which ran into big money.

McBryde plantation is known to have been about equally fortunate, in proportion, of course, to output; although the exact figures have not yet been received by Mr. Alexander. In the shipment for which Makaweli received 6.52, McBryde also had something like 600 tons, and in addition had considerable in the shipment which brought 6.01, but the exact number of tons is not yet known.

Sugar was 3.29 at the time the present boom started some weeks ago. Taking those figures as a base, Makaweli is ahead $174,987.80 from the two shipments indicated, alone, as a result of the advance in price, with more to follow. In proportion to output it is believed that McBryde is doing very nearly as well.

Koloa is also in fine position for some high prices. That plantation has 1886 tons afloat or, at any rate, away from here. It is believed that considerable of it reached the market in time to catch a price above 6 cents, but particulars have not yet been received. In addition to that lot of 1886 tons, Koloa has 814 tons ready for shipment and about 500 tons yet to be milled. The unshipped as well as the unground sugar stand a good chance of high prices also; so that Koloa will come out fine on a very large per cent. of the year's output.

The Advertiser of last Wednesday contained the following on this general subject:

The American-Hawaiian Company's steamer Pennsylvania and Georgian arrived at New York last Monday, according to advices received in Honolulu. Both vessels carried a total cargo of fifteen thousand tons of sugar from these Islands, the price of which increased to the amount of $816,600 during voyage from this port to the point of destination.

When the sugar was started from here the price quoted was 3.29 or $65.80 per ton. When the sugar arrived in New York Monday the price for which it sold was 6.01, or $120.20 per ton. Both cargoes had a value of $987,000 when they were placed aboard the ships in Honolulu and other Island ports. This had jumped to $1,803,000 when the sugar reached destination.

Probably never before in the history of the sugar industry in these Islands has there been such a tremendous advance in such a short time in the price of its principal product.

MEANS A HIGH AVERAGE

It is the belief of A. M. Nowell, secretary and manager of the Sugar Factors Company, that the rapid rise in the price of sugar in the past few weeks will result in bringing the average price for the entire crop of 10,000 tons up to $3.80 per hundred, or $76 per ton. Last year the price averaged $3.50 per hundred or $70 per ton. About at an average price of 3.20.

The price of sugar yesterday was quoted at 5.77, while refined sugar was quoted at 7.25. This difference of nearly $1.50 per hundred in the price of raw and refined sugar is taken here to indicate that there is still a strong demand for sugar and that the price will not go much lower. The rule heretofore has been to make the differential between raw and refined sugar about eight-fifths per hundred. It is now nearly double this amount.

MILLIONS FOR HAWAII

It is now figured that the last of 148,000 tons remained unsold up to July 31, at which time about 320,000 tons had been disposed of the present crop of sugar will have been disposed of by October.

MR. M'CANDLESS COMPLETES TOUR

L. L. McCandless, aspirant for the nomination of the Democratic ticket for delegate to Congress, completed a tour of Kauai at the week end and returned to Honolulu Saturday night. He was well received everywhere and, as a rule, very fair audiences turned out to hear him spiel. A great deal of his work was done along the roads and in the camps.

Upon landing in Lihue, Mr. McCandless made a shoot for Hanalei and held meetings at Waiiiaha, Hanalei, Kilauea and Kapaa, jumping over from there to Kekaha and Waimea. His Waimea meeting, as well as the one in Kapaa, was quite well attended.

From Waimea, the candidate worked back to Makaweli, Hanapepe, Eleele, Homestead and Koloa, meetings being held all along.

In general, McCandless paid his respects to all of the candidates, including Palmer Woods. In regard to his own policies, he dilated quite a great deal on the subjects of improvements to the home-steading laws and also on the matter of leases. He accused George Carter, then Governor, of giving away the island of Lanai.

On the sugar question, he attempted a defense of the Democratic national policy of low duty, and proposed a sort of elastic duty arrangement, under which the duty would rise and fall, like the mercury in the tube, according to the price of sugar.

Mr. McCandless delivered one of his principal addresses at the wharf in Nawiliwili Saturday afternoon, where quite a large number of people had gathered to witness the sailing of the Kinau. There the Democratic leader, standing in front of Spitz' lemonade emporium, poured hot shot into the crowd. He appeared to be just a little severe on George K. Carter and, to some extent, Palmer Woods; but had little to say of either Kubio or Rice, except along party lines.

The speaker touched upon the sugar situation, but found other reasons than the new tariff scheme for hard-times talk. Low duty was not the worst thing in the world, to his mind; and he then dilated upon his plan of an automatic duty, which would rise and fall according to the price of sugar on the New York market. He sailed into Conkling, the late Territorial treasurer, and the tax assessors of the islands for reducing assessments on the sugar plantations, a move which he regarded as premature and not justified.

Just before leaving, McCandless expressed himself as much pleased with his reception everywhere on Kauai, and remarked that he would "be back again" after the primary election, indicating that he has strong hopes of running ahead of Palmer Woods on September 12.

Dakotan Arrives

The big freighter Dakotan arrived at Port Allen Saturday morning, bringing 23 tons of freight and one day's accumulation of mail. She will sail this afternoon for Hilo, taking 5,000 bags of sugar and 3,000 cases of pineapples.

The first of the 1915 crop it is figured will begin to move about the last of November.

"Unforeseen circumstances have worked a wonderful transformation in the sugar situation," said a broker yesterday. "At the beginning of the year our industry was threatened with ruin. The price of sugar was away down and threatened to go lower. In face of this we looked forward to one of the worst years in our history. Here we are now winding up with the price away up and promising to go further. We will get an average of six dollars per ton more for our sugar this year than we did in 1913, a grand total of $3,060,000 that has literally poured into the laps of the people of this Territory."
