NELSON SUSTAINS BADLY BROKEN ARM

C. A. Nelson, foreman of the Nawiliwili Garage, met with an accident last Thursday as a result of which he is laid up in the Lihue hospital with a compound fracture of the left arm.

Mr. Nelson was engaged in repairing a gasoline engine at the ice works when a flange of the exhaust blew off, striking him on the arm between the shoulder and elbow. He was taken immediately to the hospital and given prompt attention.

The fracture is of such a character that the patient will be laid up for a couple of months.

Another man, to take his place temporarily, arrived from Honolulu this morning.

M'BRYDE SUGAR CO TO PAY DIVIDEND

One of the local sensations of the week has been the conclusion of the directors of McBryde Sugar Co. to pay a dividend of fifty cents a share to common stockholders. There had been rumors of such a dividend during the year, but even those on "the inside" hardly expected it before July or August at the earliest. The decision to pay now was undoubtedly the immediate result of the continuation of sugar prices above normal, owing to the war in Europe; and the probability that prices will keep up for a long time to come.

McBryde Sugar Company was organized in the boom days of the annexation period, and in the hurry and excitement of those times, mistakes were made in the preliminary adjustment of its affairs. This was followed by a series of events which gave its stock an unpromising aspect for years.

The plantation has been, really and in fact, taken up bodily and put upon its feet by the war in Europe. Had it not been for the war, is the opinion of many, the price of sugar would have been such that McBryde would have flourished along for years without showing a profit of a character that would spell dividends. This would have been the case, despite the aid of a powerful agency, highly efficient management, loyal staff and workmen and the most approved plantation methods.

This is the first dividend paid by McBryde to its common stockholders.

SILVER WEDDING GAILY OBSERVED

Mr. and Mrs. Elmhurst, Lihue, observed their silver wedding last Tuesday afternoon, May 25, the affair taking the nature of a very jolly reception to friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Maser.

For the occasion the place was prettily and appropriately decorated and the period of the "celebration" abounded in features of a most pleasant character.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmhurst have established many sincere friendships during their long residence here, and received numerous congratulations on the occasion of their anniversary.

THE GAME PLAYED TO 13TH INNINGS

The baseball contest between the Makawelis and the J. A. C. team on the grounds of the former Sunday afternoon resulted strangely like the game between the same teams on the same grounds a few weeks ago. On the former occasion there was a fast game with the score tied for a number of innings to the ninth, when the Japanese forced a man home, making the score 3 to 2 in their favor.

In Sunday's game the score was tied in the sixth inning and remained so through the ninth. The tenth, eleventh and twelfth were without results, but in the thirteenth the Japanese got a man over the plate, deciding the contest in their favor, the score being 3 to 2 as before.

This result ties the McBrydes and Japanese for first place, with the Makawelis next and the Lihues bringing up a remote rear.

Probably a larger crowd than usual witnessed the game.

KEALAKAI SEEMS TO BE RECOVERING

William Kealakai, the young Hawaiian who shot himself in the mouth nearly two weeks ago, is up and walking around at the Lihue hospital, and the prospects are for complete recovery. The bullet has not been removed from the back of the head, nor will it, unless trouble starts in of a character to make such an operation necessary. The wound he received was in considerable pain at one time a few days ago and, it is said, begged for poison with which to finish off the job he had not completed with the gun. This was probably, however, the result of a fit of despondency.

The circumstances of the attempt at suicide was published in last Tuesday's paper, Friends of Kealakai state that when in employment he was a good worker. As far as can be learned he was not a drinker to any considerable extent. Other physicians of the Islands have taken an interest in the case, most of them having called at the hospital to note the course of treatment being followed.

KILAUEA HAS HOLY GHOST FESTIVAL

Kilauea had a big Holy Ghost celebration Saturday night and Sunday, put on by the Portuguese residents there, but attended by people all the way from Wainiha to Lihue.

Saturday night one section of the affair took the form of a dance at the residence of Antone Baptiste, which drew a "crowded house" and lasted until midnight.

On Sunday all the features of the regular Holy Ghost celebration were carried out near the mill, and there were the usual church events. The festival was probably the biggest ever held by the Portuguese at Kilauea.

Francis Hanify Here

The chartered steamer Francis Hanify arrived at Port Allen yesterday morning from Honolulu, bringing 500 tons of general cargo. She did not take any sugar, and got away last night for Kahului.

Bank Clerk Is Short

Honolulu—Frank L. Hoogs, teller of the Bank of Hawaii, defaulter in the sum of $8,600, left for the Coast after making restitution. The money is said to have been sunk in speculations.

Harry Newcombe Disappears

Harry Newcombe, sales agent of the Waterhouse Trust real estate department, has been missing since Sunday, when he went with others goat shooting in Kalihi valley.

Land Commissioner Tucker will subdivide a big tract of land in the Olaa district of Hawaii for homesteading purposes.

Wilson And Mexico

Washington—President Wilson wearies of "watchful, waiting" in the Mexican situation.

The warring factions in the troubled republic will be notified today to cease their strife immediately and restore the country to harmony or the United States will take a hand.

Food Prices Advance

Food prices have advanced in some instances as much as 300 per cent, due to corn and wheat being neglected in many States.

Will Convince Germany

President Wilson will take such steps as will convince Germany that the United States is deeply in earnest in the matter presented in the recent note.

It will be made clear that the President meant just what he said when he declared that Germany would be held strictly responsible for every American life sacrificed. The determination of the administration in the new phase of things is double.

The Next Declaration

The government of the United States will meet the technical avoidance of the broad issues originally presented by prompt and positive notification that it has already been officially determined to the full and absolute satisfaction of the United States that the Lusitania was unarmed.

She carried ammunition it is admitted, and it was so stated plainly on the manifest. This has always been contraband of war, and subject to confiscation.

No Troops On Board

The unwarranted claim of Germany that there were Canadian troops on board the Lusitania is so wide of the facts that the United States government can receive it only with astonishment. Germany's assumption that the American authorities could be hoodwinked into permitting such gross cheat of neutrality rules, or worse still to connive at it, is an astonishing part of the proposition.

Germans Fail In Galicia

London—The great German-Austrian drive into Galicia, with Permyl as the objective, has been checked; and the failure of the German campaign in the Galician war zone is comparable to the failure to pierce the line of the Allies and capture Calais, and the thrice repeated effort to crush the Russian defense of Warsaw.

German Foreign Secretary Talks

Berlin—Supplementing the German reply to President Wilson's Lusitania note, Herr von Jagow, the imperial foreign secretary, issued a statement here Sunday night, in which he said:

"The German Note might be called a preliminary move toward a better understanding.

"The views of the United States and Germany are so at variance that Germany has believed it essential that an attempt be made to establish a common basis of fact, before entering upon any discussion of the facts involved."

The Baldwin Dinner

Those present at the Baldwin dinner, Makaweli, mentioned in last issue, were: Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Banham, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Browne, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Oliver, Misses Etta Lee, Ella Lee, Meta Mengler, Wilhelmina Mengler, Adelaide Whittington, Marie Anderson, Helen von Arnswaldt, and Messrs. Thompson, D. R. Murdock and son, C. O. Smith, Joe Fassoth, Radway and Percy Deverill.

High School Meeting

An important meeting of patrons of the Kauai High School and others especially interested in the rapid progress of the institution will be held in the Lihue Library at 7:30 tomorrow evening. Plans for the new school year will be among the matters considered.

DIED

PAU—In Lihue, May 27, 1915, Joseph Pau, aged about 18 years. He was born Sept. 19, 1897.

KAUAI TO HAVE MEMBERS OF PROMOTION COMMITTEE

At a special meeting of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce held Thursday afternoon an amendment to the by-laws of the Chamber was discussed and approved unanimously, under the provisions of which the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce will enlarge the scope of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, its standing committee, so that instead of the Promotion Committee's personnel being composed of five members as heretofore and appointed solely by the president of the Chamber of Commerce, there will be allowed the appointment of four additional members to the Hawaii Promotion Committee, making a total of nine members. (Continued on page 6.)

M'BRYDES AGAIN WALLOP LIHUES

The game at Eleele Sunday afternoon between the McBryde and Lihue teams was won by the former in the first three innings, five runs being recorded to none for the visitors. The game was without startling features, ending 9 to 4 in favor of the sugar men.

The biggest feature of the game was a home run made by Kuhlmann, of the Lihue team.

Moonlight Lawn Party

Mrs. F. Carter entertained a number of friends, last Friday at a novel moonlight lawn party. A beautifully smooth section of the lawn had been reserved for dancing, which was indulged in until the moon was well along in its course. Refreshments and vocal solos terminated an enjoyable evening.

Memorial Services

Very pretty memorial features were carried out at the Lihue Hawaiian church Sunday morning, coming right after the Sunday School exercises. From the church the entire congregation, each member bearing floral pieces, repaired to the burial plot where the graves were decorated. W. H. Rice, Sr., delivered the address.

Address By Col. Cox

Col. Cox, of the Salvation Army, delivered an interesting address at Lihue Union church Sunday evening before a fairly large house. Colonel Cox arrived on Kauai last week and has been inspecting the Salvation Army posts here.

ENJOYABLE DANCE WEEKEND FEATURE

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Avery entertained a number of friends at a most enjoyable dance at their home Saturday evening. The old school-room was very artistically decorated for the occasion, and proved to be capable of accommodating a large number of couples.

The dances were many and varied, ranging from the old fashioned square dances to the latest "canter."

Delicious refreshments were served, and it was with much regret that the delighted guests finally bade their hosts adieu, near the midnight hour.

Among those present were: Messdames and Messrs. Broadbent (4), Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Hopper, Mr. and Mrs. W. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Windas, Mr. and Mrs. F. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Moragne, Mrs. Burke, Misses Mumford, Jordan, Omanney, Thelma Hopper, Starkweather and Messrs. C. S. Dole, H. Vincent, F. C. Morrow and Middleton.

"THREE WEEKS" AND "QUO VADIS" NEXT

W. A. Fernandez has planned an exceptionally fine bill of pictures for the theaters of Kauai, to begin at Kealia tomorrow evening and continue along down the line. There will be two evenings in Kealia, two in Lihue and two in Waimea. That much is definitely settled, and programs in other towns will be announced later.

The first night in each place will be presented Elinor Glyn's sensational drama of thrilling love and royal intrigue, in five parts, carrying 280 scenes, "Three weeks" a whole, big show in itself. Miss Madeline Traverse appears in the role of the temperamental queen, while Mr. Mahlon Hamilton plays the role of Paul. Miss Traverse, by the way, is one of the country's most attractive younger stars. There will be shorter sketches put on each evening with "Three Weeks."

QUO VADIS

The second evening of each of the play houses will be presented George Kleine's stupendous photodrama "Quo Vadis," adapted from the famous novel by Henryk Sienkiewicz. This is in three acts and eight parts, produced by the Societa Italiana Cines, of Rome, Italy.

This great film opens with the first section of "Quo Vadis." The second part illustrates the Burning of Rome and the third the Christian Martyrs, the crowning events of a series of great spectacles being the throwing of the Christians to the lions.

"Quo Vadis" is far and away the most spectacular and probably the most expensive film series ever brought to Kauai; and no one can afford to miss it.

Chinaman Goes Insane

Chong Ing, cook for the Chung Kee restaurant in Kekaha, was before the Waimea court last week for investigation and was adjudged to be an insane person. Saturday night Police Officer Otto Lihau took him to Honolulu for treatment at the insane asylum.
