Tornado Hits Alberta

Red Cliffe, Alberta—A disastrous tornado hit this town yesterday, destroying homes and other buildings and inflicting damage on the wheat crop.

French Towns Penalized

Amsterdam—In retaliation for the bombardment of a German consulate in Turkey by a cruiser of the Allies, the French towns of Valenciennes and Raubax have been fined $30,000 each, which must be paid forthwith.

German Submarine Run Down

London—It was announced in Amsterdam yesterday that another German submarine in the North Sea had been run down and sunk by a British cruiser.

Russian Successes Continue

The Russians continue to hold the Dnieper line, and have thrown the Austro-Germans back on their left with heavy losses. Reinforcements have arrived and the Russians are fortifying their latest positions in Galicia.

Austro-German assaults are growing less impetuous, and it is believed that they are feeling a lack of ammunition. The lengthening of the lines has caused no end of difficulty and delay in forwarding supplies to the troops at the front.

Saturday Afternoon

Judge Stuart has written the Interior Department advising the cutting up of large estate holdings in the Territory. Little attention has been paid to the letter.

Eugene Love, a former partner of the notorious Jack Scully, pleaded guilty today to a charge of embezzlement from Lovejoy & Co.

Japan And Chinese Boycott

Tokio—Five of the elder statesmen held a conference today with Marquis Inouye on the Chinese boycott. Premier Okuma was advised to take immediate steps to check it, and save Japan's trade with China from destruction.

Princess Hatsuko Died Today

Rather than suffer the dishonor of becoming prisoners of war to the Austro-German forces, two Japanese officers committed hara-kari. They had joined the Russian forces in Galicia.

Russians Are Rallying

London—Harried and shattered in the disastrous retreat from Galicia, the Russian forces have turned at bay and have checked the Teuton advance. The left bank of the Dnieper has been entirely cleared of the Teutons, and they are making a desperate effort to force a passage of the river elsewhere. Bridging operations have been begun by them south of Bukaszowice. Remnants of detachments which had previously crossed the Kozany district were rallied and now attempting the advance.

The German drive elsewhere in the eastern arena has been partially checked.

Italians And Austrians

Further successes at the Trent and Triente fronts are reported by the Italians. They are keeping the Tyrol and Trentine front clear by artillery fire and isolated infantry operations. Progress is being made along the Isonzo river.

In Belgium And France

British aviators dropped bombs today at Roulers, Belgium, where the Germans had established an ammunition depot. The bombs exploded in the depot, killing fifty Germans.

Trains loaded with heavy guns have left Essen for the German front at Buko river in Poland. It is believed that they will be used in the German advance on Warsaw.

Little activity is taking place on the west front, according to reports from France.

At The Dardanelles

Constantinople—A Turkish patrol destroyed a party of Allies and captured their guns.

Will Be No Embargo

Washington—The report that the government is considering placing an embargo on shipments to belligerent nations in retaliation for British interference with America trade with neutrals is officially denied.

Zapata Defeats Carranza

Zapata forces in possession of Mexico City have inflicted a crushing defeat on the army of Gonzales and Carranza, which had advanced upon them.

Peace Talk In Germany

Berlin—The question of peace was debated in the Prussian Diet yesterday.

The leader of the Socialists declared that the masses of the people desire an early ending of the great conflict.

The Minister of Interior said in reply that the Teutons must win. The only thought that can prevail is that strife may be concluded in such way that a repetition of it cannot occur.

The Experiment Blew Up

Pittsburgh—Ten persons were seriously burned in an explosion at the Aetna Chemical Works yesterday, which occurred while experiments were being made with a new process of manufacturing gasoline.

Excitement In Georgia

Atlanta—Jewish merchants yesterday received threatening letters warning them to leave Georgia before Sunday. The mayor of Marietta, the home of Mary Phagan, the girl figuring in the sensational case, has been ordered to hold himself in readiness for possible disorders.

Neutrality Being Violated

San Francisco—United States District Attorney Preston reports flagrant use of the neutrality rules in the recruiting of men at San Francisco for the British army.

Food For Luxemburg

Paris—A consignment of food from Switzerland for people in the Grand Duchy of Luxemburg has been allowed to pass through France to its destination.

Another Chicago Strike

Chicago—The Master Builders' Association last night ordered an absolute lockout in all building trades, effective immediately. Two hundred thousand men thrown out of work.

Back To British Registry

San Francisco—Captain Robert Dollar announces that owing to the new shipping laws his steamers flying the American flag will be put under British registry.

Portugal With Allies

Paris—Ministerial declarations at Lisbon last night were to the effect that Portugal will continue in sympathy with the Allies in revenge for the encroachments of Germany on the rights of Portugal.

WISE AND MILTON COMING TO KAUAI

Hen Wise and Katie Milton, two of the very best known of colored minstrels, will arrive on Kauai next Friday morning, and will appear Friday and Saturday evenings at Kealia, in connection with the motion picture program of W. A. Fernandez. With them will be Miss Spencer, a n accomplished singer and dancer.

The minstrels will appear in Lihue Monday and Tuesday, and will then proceed down the line to Waimea, the dates at various points to be announced later.

Wise and Milton were stars of the famous Hogan minstrel company. They stopped off in Honolulu years ago and have been there most of the time since. Miss Spencer is a Hawaiian girl, and is reputed to be very clever. Advt.

Supervisors Thursday

The old board of supervisors will hold their final meeting Thursday morning, at which time business for the period will be closed up. At noon the new board will come into office, and will hold its first meeting in the afternoon.

Among the items at the forenoon session will be endorsement of Hon. D. P. R. Isenberg to be the representative of Kauai in the Hawaii Promotion Committee.

Teachers To Tour

Quite a few teachers of the Lihue school will be absent during the Summer. Miss Mumford, principal, and Misses Hannah and Daisy Sheldon and Miss Lottie Jordan will "take in" in the San Francisco fair. Miss Starkweather will visit her old home at Berkeley, while Mrs. Burke will likely tour Japan.

Cyril O. Smith, of the Kapaa school, and W. C. Avery, of the Kauai High And Grammar school, left Saturday afternoon for Honolulu to take up work in the Summer school.

Mrs. Clarence H. Cooke and three daughters will arrive tomorrow from Honolulu to visit Mrs. Hens Isenberg.

The children of Fred and Dr. E. C. Waterhouse, of Honolulu, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Wilcox, Lihue.
