Naval Station Wrecked

News has been received by the navy department that the U. S. naval station in the Danish West Indies was wrecked by the recent hurricane. Monday Afternoon

Berlin—Trapped by enveloping movements of Gen. von Falkenhayn's troops operating in Transylvania two Rumanian armies of invasion have been badly cut up, one of them virtually wiped out. An Overseas News Agency despatch today says that the Rumanian second army retreating toward the border after a disastrous battle with the Austro-Germans, lost approximately two divisions. The Rumanian first army, which led the invasion and bore the brunt of determined Teuton defense, was virtually annihilated, and the second army has lost a majority of its troops, adds the despatch. Transylvania is now clear of Rumanians, just a month after they poured through the passes by thousands. The Rumanians are making a determined stand on the other side of the Danube.

Strange Disease In Germany

London—An Amsterdam despatch says that travellers returning from Germany report a remarkable disease as spreading in Berlin, Hamburg, Munich and other large cities as the result of the population continually eating preserved foods. The disease is called "tin sickness." It is rumored that there are thousands of cases of this ailment and the public authorities are much concerned at evidence of its character.

Greek P. G. Recognized

The Entente Allies have formally recognized the provisional government in Greece set up by the war party. Government has already been organized on the island of Crete by Venizelos.

Operations In The West

In the Balkan arena today the Entente Allies resumed the offensive south of Monastir in southern Serbia. Sofia reports officially that the Bulgarians frustrated attacks west of Monastir along the line of railway to Florina. Along the Struma river the British have made progress toward Demir-hissar British patrols entered the town of Bur-suki.

On The West Front

Berlin—The British today attacked German positions south of Guedecourt. Three miles south of Bapaume the British succeeded in penetrating the German first line, but the Germans, counter-attacking, regained the ground.

German Attack Repulsed

London—The Germans today attacked the newly won British positions in the vicinity of Schwaben on the west front, but were repulsed with heavy losses.

French Also Gain

Continuing their attack on the west front the French penetrated German positions at Sailly and Saillisel. The Germans made counter attacks but French fighting is progressing.

Capital City News Notes

Honolulu—Nelson K. Kaloa, defaulting postmaster of Paia, Maui, entered a plea of guilty today and will be sentenced next Monday. He stole $817.20 from his postoffice.

The plea of Dr. K. F. Li, charged with violating the Harrison narcotic act, will be taken next week.

Canning merger people are still after a big combination with local pineapple men. The stock rises and is above former figures.

Sugar, 6.15.

Honolulu—The municipal bond issue question is again to the fore. Ed. Towse is attacking the position, it generally being understood that he voices the opinion of merchants. Dan. Logan defends the issue on behalf of the supervisors.

Supervisor Hatch says that Kuhio's tact in knowing when to stay and when to leave Washington is a principal qualification for the office of delegate.

Powder Cache Explodes

Portland, Maine—A secret hoard of powder blew up Saturday afternoon with such force that the whole coast of Maine was shaken. The powder was in an old house that had not been occupied in years. A mysterious vessel is known to have visited the locality that morning.

Wilson And Gerard

The destroyer McDougall has been rushed to sea on a secret mission. It is believed that the Germans have been operating along the Maine coast for a submarine base, and the cruise of the McDougall probably has something to do with that.

Another Country Heard From

Paris—Jean Perbette, military strategist, says that the U-53 in attacking neutral ships off the American coast violated the Monroe Doctrine, and that in the situation the country faces a tremendous issue. He says that if Wilson abrogates the doctrine of Monroe the political equilibrium of the world will be overturned. Wilson cannot tolerate naval operations in the American zone without tolerating military operations also.

Cholera Suspects on Coast

Port Townsend—Thirteen cholera suspects were taken from the Panama Maru by health officials yesterday and landed in quarantine here.

Long Branch—The President will hold a number of conferences with Mr. Gerard, the American ambassador to Berlin, on the situation with Germany.

Strike In Canal Zone

Panama—The strike here is gaining strength. Five hundred strike-breakers have joined the strikers. It is said that the bakers will also walk out.

Famous Engineer Dies

New York—Virgil Boger, famous civil engineer, dies while enroute from Mexico to New York.

Hughes Rested at Lincoln

Lincoln—Hughes had a great day here yesterday, resting up.

Japan Denies The Story

Tokio—Japan flatly denies the story that she had protested against a canal contract in China being given to an American. The Tokio foreign office admits questioning China about the Shantung canal project but insists that no objection was placed in the way.

11,000 German Prisoners

Paris—Poilus has taken 11,000 Teuton prisoners in bitter fighting.

Berlin admits that the Germans have been forced to retire before British and French pressure on the Somme.

Sir Douglas Haig also reports a fine bag of captives.

Rumanians Return To Attack

The Rumanians, reinforced by Russians, have turned upon their Austrian pursuers and are delivering counter attacks in northeastern Transylvania.

Boilermakers Strike Pau

San Francisco—The strike of boilermakers on the coast is at an end. Mayor Rolph had much to do in bringing about a satisfactory settlement.

Shoes Take To The Air

Pittsburg—In the last seventy-two hours wholesale prices on shoes have advanced 25 cents a pair.

Constantine Waits

Athens—King Constantine has postponed the session of the Chamber of Deputies one month.

Honolulu—Thirty per cent. is the cut on wireless messages to Japan, the new company announcing their rate to Tokio to be only seven-tenths that of the cable rate. Service will be given six hours out of twenty-four. Tests have proved the entire practicability of this, the longest wireless reach in the world.

The Republican candidates have fixed upon October 21 as the date for beginning their campaign.

In an automobile clash on Hotel street yesterday afternoon, Mrs. C. R. Bell, wife of an army captain, received a broken nose.

Anxiety About Far East

Washington—Official circles are admitted to be anxiously awaiting development of the latest phases of the situation in the Far East.

A Cattle King Dead

San Francisco—Henry Miller, owner of cattle ranch as large as the kingdom of Belgium, died last night here. He began life as a butcher boy and was a multi-millionaire at death.

Alarmed About A Steamer

Montreal—Canadians are alarmed by rumors of the sinking of the Allan liner Sicilian, eastward bound from Montreal. The story is that she has fallen a victim to German undersea craft operating toward America.

Fighting East And West

Paris—The French sweep the Teutons back in terrific Somme fighting. Village of Genemont near Ablaincourt falls into their hands after days of steady struggle.

The Rumanians halted in their retreat and counter attacked the Germans, recapturing a small town near their own frontier. King Ferdinand assumes personal control of his armies, and the Russians rush reinforcements of men to their allies.

Censorship Overhauling

Washington—Mistakes, faults and abuses of Entente censors will be corrected, says an official reply to a protest from Secretary Lansing.

Great Wheat Yield

Ottawa—The Canadian wheat yield will be approximately nearly a billion bushels more than in 1914.

Republicans Urge Protection

Lincoln—Republican speakers urge a return to the protection policy. The present prosperity is temporary only, they say, and the guard must go up before hard times come again. This is now the keynote of Hughes' speeches everywhere.

N. G. H. Withdrawal Impossible

Long Branch—The President has written to Governor Whitman, of New York, to the effect that the withdrawal of the National Guard from the Mexican border at the present time would mean fresh aggressions along the border.

Bigger Warships For U. S.

Washington—The United States plans bigger warships. The new dreadnaughts will be monsters of 38,000 tons displacement.

Saturday Afternoon

Peking—An emphatic protest has been filed with China against a contract which an American firm has received for canal construction in the young republic. Japan and Russia have joined in a protest in such terms that its imperative requirements are not misunderstood. They claim that the Chinese government has no right to agree to the American concession, and point out that the Japanese and Russian interests will be injured. The Russian minister to China says that the Chinese minister in Petrograd eighteen years ago promised verbally that Russia would have the privilege of building canals in the vicinity of Mongolia. The line in question is 400 miles long.

Money For France

New York—Americans are to give a huge sum of money to France. Greatest philanthropy in history is planned through relief society. Leaders in business, finance and society back of it.

Big Losses At Somme

Berlin—A British and French army exceeding one million men has been virtually annihilated in the terrific fighting since the first Somme drive began, says the Overseas News.

It is also stated that Russian losses on the east front from June 1 to October 1 approximates one million men.

Germans On The Offensive

Paris—The Germans today attacked Ablaincourt south of Somme and occupied a part of the trenches of the village from where they were driven. Later the Germans were entirely expelled from their positions. North of Somme the French today made progress.

The Bovic Arrives

New York—The steam freighter Bovic arrived here today and the officers gave an account of their sighting a submarine 200 miles out. The submarine was east bound and apparently pursuing the Danish passenger ship Hellig Olav, which has Americans aboard.

Keohokalole Indicted

Honolulu—Morris Keohokalole, postmaster of Paia, indicted on the charge of embezzlement.

Saturday October 14

Sugar, 6.15.

Honolulu—It is reported that Wade Warren Thayer has resigned from the office of secretary of the Territory. The official most concerned denies the accuracy of the report, but refuses to be interviewed on the matter. The capital gives full credence to the report. Lack of harmony between the governor and secretary is a state known to have existed for a very long time, and those on the inside have anticipated a break for more than a year.

Madame Melba will return to Honolulu December 1 and will spend the winter in the Islands.

Weekly vessels are to be resumed in the Pacific. The Pacific Mail and T. K. K. will operate under a joint schedule. The Venezuela, Korea Maru and Columbia will go on the route this month.

The Matsonia will take only 100,000 cases of pineapples in place of her expected cargo of 400,000 cases.

Work Of U-53 Illegal

London—Lord Cecil says that the U-53 raised no new issues. All such warfare is illegal, according to the view of the United States, and while all submarine warfare is objectionable to the United States, the raid of the U-53 is particularly so because her work of destruction was carried out on the American side of the Atlantic.

Italians Are Victorious

Italian victories form the feature of the day's big news. At Carso and other places the Austrians have been defeated.

The Rumanians continue to fall back toward the frontier in Transylvania.

The Russian offensive in Galicia slackens and the Germans have begun counters.

Allies Absorbing Greece

Athens—King Constantine is out in the open as an ally of the Entente. Commenting on the situation he said, however, that Greece would be foolish to join the Allies without pledges of territorial integrity after the war. He says that Rumania will be overrun.

The Allies have presented new demands and assumed control of the Greek police. The Crown Council bows to the ultimatum of the Admiral.
