President in Washington

Washington—President Wilson, after two months at the summer capital and on his campaign tour, has returned to work in his offices here, to find a great deal of important business awaiting his attention. The new phase of the submarine crisis and a mass of correspondence in regard to Mexico has engaged his principal attention. The President has not given any particular consideration to changes in his cabinet, although the knowing ones aver that there will be changes when the President enters upon his second term on March 4 next. Because of the doubt that the Democrats will have a majority over all in the House, the President will endeavor to secure certain legislation which he regards as important at the winter session of Congress.

Honolulu—Joe Cohen, theatrical manager, announces that he will be a candidate next May for mayor of Honolulu.

Rev. Mr. Scudder held his farewell services at Central Union church yesterday, big congregations being present.

French Make A Capture

Paris—The entire village of Sallésal has been captured by the French. The Germans suffered heavy losses, the trench defenders being wiped out by the terrific artillery fire of the attackers. The capture is of great strategic importance.

Britisher Flew U. S. Flag

Berlin claims that the patrol boat which sunk the German submarine U 41, flew the flag of the United States. Berlin also reports that in a raid of Allied aeroplanes last Friday on the towns of Vokingen and Forbach three persons were killed and slight damage done.

Official denial is made by the German general staff to the report that Belgians are forced to work in munition factories.

Zapata Forces Active

Laredo—It is reported that Zapata and his Indian band have murdered a hundred women belonging to the Carranza faction near Fronteras, in the state of Morillas.

Cases of Various Torpedoed Vessels

Paris—Confirmation has been received by the U. S. ambassador at Madrid of the sinking of the American-Hawaiian steamer Columbian by a submarine.

Survivors of the S. S. Arabia, arriving in London, declare that the submarine which sunk her was not seen. The first intimation they had of the presence of a submarine was the torpedo speeding through the water.

An official telegram from Berlin reports that the commander of the submarine which sunk the Rowantree declares that that vessel refused to stop when ordered to do so, and upon its refusal the submarine opened fire.

Japan Launches Great Dreadnaught

Tokio—The superdreadnaught Tse, 30,600 tons, has been launched at the Kawasaki shipyard.

Wilson in Washington

Washington—The President received a great ovation upon his return to the Capitol yesterday. He denied reports that changes in the cabinet would be made, saying that any such statements were premature. He expressed himself as pleased with the vote of the National Guardsmen on the border, where they gave him a ratio of 14 to 12 votes.

The Minnesota vote is still close and undecided. The President will push national defense, corrupt practices act, immigration and water conservation. The independents will hold the balance of power in the House. Mann and Champ Clark will likely be the candidates for speaker.

Sunday, November 12

Honolulu—Kuhio says he will introduce a bill in Congress providing for greater home rule in Hawaii, so that the Territory can elect its own governor. He believes that the present tendency of Congress is toward home rule and that such a bill has a chance of passing.

Nearly $2,400 was realized from the sale of seals for the benefit of the tuberculosis fund.

Kuhio will give a luncheon in honor of Senator Phelan.

Sugar is unchanged.

The Hilonian's rudder is found to be split straight across, delaying her sailing a day.

Many Battles At Once

London—Series of fierce battles on five fronts are going on. Reports from the Somme are contradictory.

A signal victory over Mackensen appears to have been won by the Russians and Rumanians in the Dobrudja district. The defeat of the Teutons appears to be decisive. They were thrown back across the track of the Allies, who captured quantities of guns and supplies.

The British have captured another long stretch of trenches at Thiéval.

Russians Claim other Gains

Bucharest—Despatches indicate that the Rumanians have gained signal victories over the Teutons in Transylvania.

Volunteers Must Stay

San Antonio—Word has come from Secretary Baker that there will be no discharge of any forces now on the border unless it can be shown that it is for the good of the government.

Writer Gets In Bad

Washington—Karl Armand Carves, a magazine writer, has been arrested on the charge of attempting to blackmail the wife of the German ambassador.

Wilson's California Majority

San Francisco—California gave Wilson a clean, unsplit majority of 3,000 votes.

Wilson Cheered In New York

New York—Wilson is cheered by up-State crowds. There is no hope whatever for Hughes.

Some possibility that Minnesota may be counted for Wilson.

More Work of Submarines

London—Four steamers were sunk by submarines yesterday.

Columbian Reported Torpedoed

Washington—It is reported here that the American-Hawaiian steamer Columbian has been sunk in the Mediterranean and the crew landed at Coruna, Spain. It is not known whether any crew were lost. Secretary Lansing has cabled the American ambassador at Madrid for full particulars.

New Polish Army

Berlin—Germany has issued a proclamation calling on Poles to volunteer for the new Polish army it is proposed shall be organized.

Saturday Afternoon

Honolulu—The Governor has reappointed Dr. J. H. Raymond to be supervisor on Maui. He says he has taken no part in factional differences.

Governor Pinkham is holding up the Waikiki reclamation proposition in order to study into it more deeply.

Frank C. Atherton will become vice-president of Castle & Cooke on December 1.

Willett & Gray predict a world's sugar crop of seventeen and a half million tons.

The Retreat Of Mackensen

Bucharest—General von Mackensen is retreating from the Dobrudja district and the Bulgar population is fleeing. Great fires are seen in the direction of Sehernavoda and Constanza, the Teutons probably firing the towns preparatory to their retirement.

The German Report

Berlin—Russian lines west of Predeal have been taken with bayonet fighting. Five Russian night attacks in the Barranovitch sector have been repulsed. The French and Serbs have captured positions in Macedonia.

The British have taken advanced positions at Courcellette.

The Russian Account

Petrograd—The Russians and Rumanians have made further advances in the Dobrudja district, recapturing positions 12 miles south of Hiriva.

German Attacks Repulsed

Paris—German attacks at Alencourt have been repulsed with heavy losses.

London—A German trench 1,000 yards long, on the Somme, northeast of Courcellette, has been taken.

Carranzaists Regain Town

Eagle Pass—Carranzaists have recaptured the town of Parra.

Hughes in Minnesota

St. Paul—With eighteen missing precincts Hughes leads in this State by 239 votes.

Who Caused The Mischief

San Francisco—The governor declares that certain petty politicians and newspapers caused the defeat of Hughes in California, and have done the State an injury.

Arabia A New Kingdom

Washington—Secretary Lansing has received advices from Mecca that a new kingdom has been formed in Arabia, and that the monarch and his government look to America for recognition.

Saturday November 11

Sugar, 6.52.

Williamstown, Mass.—Thousands of people gathered at the Sayre (son-in-law of President Wilson) residence yesterday and last night, to congratulate the President. Mr. Wilson was there to fulfill a promise to attend the christening of his grandchild. In response to a call for a speech Mr. Wilson delivered a powerful address, in which he said that the nation must think in future of one thing only—our country. We must unite for the betterment of the United States, forget all differences and work together for the great country we love, which has given us liberty and peace.

Recount Still Undecided

New York—George W. Perkins, after a conference with Judge Hughes last night, said that the Republican party managers were undecided whether or not to ask for a recount in California, North Dakota and New Mexico. The official figures from those States will be examined before anything further is decided upon.

There is no change in the standing of doubtful States. Wilson has a majority of 13 in the electoral college and both houses of Congress are Democratic.

Fight In The Air

Paris—A most spectacular battle was fought in the air yesterday on the west front between thirty British aviators and forty Teutons. Berlin declares that seventeen Britishers were brought to the ground, while the Allies claim that ten Germans were brought down. Great Britain admits the loss of seven machines in the fight.

Submarine Question Again

Washington—The State Department views the submarine activity of the Teutons with grave concern, and a summary of the situation has been submitted to President Wilson.

The U. S. ambassador at Berlin wires that Germany will thoroughly investigate the sinking of the Marina.

Canal Is All Right

General Goethels brands as false the claim that the Panama canal is a failure. He assures that there will eventually be control of the slides for all time.

"I Won't Works" Charged

Everett—Forty members of the I. W. W. gang which invaded this city a few days ago have been charged with murder.

German Bases Shelled

London—British airmen have shelled the Teuton bases at Ostend and Zeebrugge. The admiralty claims that the results were satisfactory.
