

School Survey Coming

The Federal School Commission will arrive in Honolulu by transport Oct. 15, and will begin work immediately. The personnel of the commission as well as the line of procedure will not be known until their arrival. With the schools in their present chaotic state they will make anything but a flattering showing.

RUBBER STAMPS made at this office on Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Where the New Homesteads Are

In the near at hand drawing for the new series of Wailua homesteads there will doubtless be hundreds of applicants for the little handful of lots that will be available, and about 90 per cent of them will be utterly at sea as to where these lots are and how to get to them.

For the enlightenment of these people, and any one else who may be concerned, we would inform them that these homesteads are not contingent to Lihue, though within the Lihue district; that at present anyway you can get to them only through Kapaa, making them 16 or 18 miles from Lihue, by a round about road; that there is a deep and impassible gorge between them and the Lihue section.

Anyone contemplating a try for one of them should take a day off and go up there and see them. Don't buy a pig in a poke. Some of them are excellent homesteads, but they are not on the main road and will not be blest with social or other community advantages for a good many years.

The Girls' Reserve

By Y. Matsumura

The Girls' Reserve Club of the Kaula High School is called the Lei Ilima Society. Yellow is its color. It had been organized last spring under the supervision and help of Mrs. Lydgate, of Lihue. A president, vice-president, secretary and other necessary officers were elected and meetings were held regularly at 12:00 o'clock every Friday in one of the school rooms. Usually a short program was rendered and often Mrs. Lydgate or some prominent person of the district gave educational talks, which were always very much appreciated by the girls.

When school commenced, last year's girls (seven in number) agreed to carry on the club. At our first meeting on Sept. 26, new officers were elected, for last year's officers had left us. The result was: Yoshina Matsumura, president; Maria Pihaleo, vice-president and treasurer; Minnie Fukushima, secretary.

We have three committees, namely:

Committee on Scouts: Yoshino Matsumura.

Committee of Innings and Outings: Maria Pihaleo, Emily Sousa, Chow Moi Chang.

Committee of Service: Minnie Fukushima, Eleanor Au, Lily Wiebke.

Last Friday Mrs. Lydgate gave a most interesting talk on Kona.

We have seven new girls. They all have applied for membership.

At the Theatres

SHIRLEY MASON AN ARDENT DEVOTEE OF HEALTHFUL SPORTS

Dainty little Shirley Mason, who will be seen in "The Rescuing Angel," her latest starring vehicle, at the TIP TOP THEATRE to-night, is an ardent devotee of healthful outdoor sports, and particularly horseback riding. Every time she gets a chance, Miss Mason will slip away from the studio, mount her steed and make off at a lively gallop for the hills.

"If you ever want me and man't find me," said Miss Mason to her director, Walter Edwards, "you will know I am somewhere up in Beverly Hills enjoying a horse-back ride."

Miss Mason is also a lover of wild animals of all kinds and spends no little time at the zoos and other places where they may be found. They would have to chloroform her to keep her at the studio when a circus comes to town.

"The Rescuing Angel" is a picture based on a story which is particularly suited to Miss Mason's talents and her work is exceptional throughout. Walter Edwards directed and James C. Van Trees did the camera work. The scenario was written by Edith Kennedy from the play of the same name by Clare Kummer. The supporting cast include Forrest Stanley, Arthur Carew, John Stepping, Carol Edwards, James Neill, Edythe Chapman, T. D. Crittenden and Parks Jones.

A correspondent in a recent number of the Outlook calls attention to a dissatisfaction and bitterness which seems to be very general if not universal. It is that of the returned soldier from overseas in regard to the treatment which he got while he was in the service. His wrath seems to be caused not by needful discipline, nor by needful privation and hardship. Rather it seems to come from the conviction that he has been made the victim of injustice, mainly at the hands of his officers, who have treated him with the utmost selfishness and arrogance.

So profound is the dissatisfaction that the general conviction is: "Never again!" "I'm glad I did my duty, but never again!"

From the home of the Outlook to Hawaii is a long way, but we hear the same sentiment very generally expressed here. It would seem as though there was something in it.
