LEGION HAS A FINE PROGRAM FOR 4TH

Interest in the American Legion's racing program at Waipouli on Monday, July fourth, continues at fever heat. The Legion is certainly serving up a juicy morsel for the racing fans of Kauai this year. Wherever the fans congregate all they can talk about is the heat in the quarter mile in which Johnny Fernandez's "Bridgeplayer" and David Luke's "Pegasus" will meet. When they have exhausted this subject then they have to discuss the three eighths where they meet again. Several of the local sportsmen who are backing David's little horse in the shorter sprint are putting their money down on the Fernandez horse in the longer race.

Another race that is also causing considerable interest is the mile and one quarter open. With Sakamoto's "Dinner Bell" running against his old stable mate, "Mary J." this is bound to be one of the best races of the day. John Maderios of Koloa who now owns "Mary J." expects his mare to be out in front at the finish but not without a strenuous battle. The Koloa fans are backing John's horse to the limit. Sakamoto's "Dinner Bell" is well known on Kauai and the local Japanese are behind the Kapaa entry. Both horses are doing strenuous training and both camps are trying to get a line on the other horse's time.

Quite a bit of discussion has been caused in local racing circles by some unknown young lady who called up Jim Spalding on the telephone and asked if there would be any objection to her riding an entry in the Gentlemen's race. Mr. Spalding told her that there would be no objection but that the Legion would not assume any responsibility in case of an accident. She informed him that the conditions would suit her very well and she would be at the post on the Fourth. She declined to give her name but said she would ride a thoroughbred mare which she entered under the name of "Mystery." Jim says that her voice was very familiar but just at present he cannot place it. This late entry has caused renewed activity among the gentlemen riders as none of them wished to be led at the finish by any lady rider.

Local boxing fans are sitting up and taking notice since the announcement that there would be a six round bout at the field that day. Ernest Heine, former lightweight champion of Oahu, and Maximo de la Cruz, the local Filipino champion have volunteered their services to the Legion and the committee are putting this event as an added attraction. These two boys met at the last Legion smoker and put up a rattling four round go. The decision given that night was a draw and both fighters were dissatisfied with the result. Both boys have gone into training and report from both camps that the result this time will be quite a bit different. Heine says that the old right cross is working once more and he expects to win by a knockout. Maximo is depending on his fast left hand and also on his natural speed.

The committee is also working hard to line up a few preliminaries to open up the boxing program. Bill Wright has his eye on a couple of heavyweights in Hanamulu that he hopes to sign up. The only trouble has been that he has been unable to get sparring partners for them as each one of them carries a wallop that is like the kick of a mule. Bill says that he would use either Jack Dempsey or Carpentier as sparring partners if he could induce them to come to Kauai.

The base ball game which will really decide the Championship of the Hawaiian Islands will be played at two-thirty, immediately following the boxing program. The All Chinese won the championship of Oahu last year and since that time have defeated the champions of Maui and Hawaii. As the Makee team won the championship last year, the winner of this game can be rightly called the champions of the Hawaiian Islands.

Kapaa Notes

The Kapaa baseball park is now completely fenced in, permission having been given by the board of supervisors to Mr. James Spalding to do the work at his own expense. This is decidedly a big improvement, as the fence now keeps the countless number of cattle and horses roaming the high-ways and by-ways of Kapaa out, prevents them from damaging the smooth "skin diamond", and indicates to the spectators where the "dead line" is. Prior to the erection of the fence, nobody could keep the crowd back in their proper places, but the crowd now has more respect for the new fence and does not cross into the field.

Hats off to "Sunburn" Jonah Cummings, star hurler of the Makees. If ever gameness was required and displayed in a baseball game, Jonah displayed it last Sunday, when, after being nearly knocked out by the ball, he ran after it, picked it up and threw to first before he gave any attention to his injury. He even wanted to continue pitching, but when told that his team had very little chance of losing, the score standing at 10 to 1, he was persuaded to retire. When asked by Dr. Hagood after his nose had stopped bleeding, "How do you feel now, Jonah?" he gave the crowd a laugh by unconsciously answering, "Oh, fine, doctor." Such is spirit and gameness, and these two things go a long way toward winning not only baseball games, but other things as well.

Antone Reis is taking David Luke's "Pegasus" under his wing and is treating the former Huleia "plow horse" like a long-lost brother in preparation for that great race on July Fourth against John Fernandez's "Bridgeplayer."

George Waialeale, a laborer on the County roads for many years, died suddenly early Saturday morning following a short illness of a couple of days. The deceased is survived by a wife and an adopted son.

K. Miyasato, a Japanese of Anahola, was caught on Monday night about 11 p. m., taking pineapples from the Moloaa fields of the Hawaiian Canneries Company. According to Solomon Polani, night watchman employed by the pineapple company, two Japanese came in a wagon, but one speeded away helter skelter with the horse and wagon, leaving his companion to suffer the consequences. The Japanese was arrested after he had picked only a single pineapple and put it into a bag he was carrying with him. Judge Puuiki found the defendant guilty of second degree larceny and soaked him $25, and $1. for costs of court, which is rather an exorbitant price to charge for one pineapple, even though the demand for Hawaiian Pineapple invariably exceeds the available supply.

We do not claim to be prophets or mind readers, but we are willing to wager that we know who worried the most over Cumming's injury on Sunday afternoon. It was not Henry Sheldon, manager of the team, Kion Soong, Captain, or Hermann Wolters, President, but another whose name is left to the conjecture of those who may be inclined to be a little too inquisitive.

FATHER OF MCBRYDE MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Neil Robertson, head bookkeeper of McBryde Plantation, received the sad news last week that his father had been killed in an automobile accident at Fresno, California. Mr. Robertson's mother was also severely injured in the accident.

The message came by wireless and Mr. Robertson has not yet learned particulars of the accident nor how serious his mother's injuries are.

MOONLIGHT PARTY AT MCBRYDE

About twenty members of the McBryde Social and Athletic Club enjoyed a moonlight picnic Saturday night at the McBryde Plantation beach house. A picnic supper was served at the beach. After supper a moonlight swim was followed by dancing on the club house lanai.

TWO GUARD CO'S TO BE ORGANIZED

Two companies of the National Guard were organized on Kauai this past week. A machine gun company was organized at Kapaa and a rifle company at Lihue. W. Foster Horner was appointed captain of the machine gun company, with A. Horner Jr. first lieutenant. The second lieutenant and the noncommissioned officers have not been selected yet.

Philip Rice of Lihue has been asked to serve as captain of the rifle company at Lihue. It is not definitely known yet whether he will accept or not. If he does, S. M. Carter of Lihue is to be his first lieutenant. In case Captain Rice is unable to serve in this capacity, Mr. Carter will captain the company. Who his lieutenants will be under these circumstances are not yet known.

The organization of these two companies was completed by Colonel W. D. Potter, adjutant general of the National Guard of Hawaii, and Lieut. Col. E. J. Nowlen, national guard instructor. Colonel Potter announces that $3000 has been appropriated for the equipping of these Kauai companies. It is intended to put up a small building at Kapaa for the storing of the guns, ammunition, etc. The machine gun company will be given a Browning machine gun and Colt automatic pistols as part of their equipment.

A number of White trucks are being sent from the mainland for National Guard purposes. Each Kauai company is to have one to be used in the transportation of men and materials. The officers in charge intend to properly equip both companies and to raise them to full peace time strength. Ninety-three men are needed for the rifle company and 78 men for the machine gun company. "It is our idea", Colonel Potter says, "to have fewer companies than heretofore and to have them better trained, organized and equipped. We are correcting the faults of the old guard before the war. Under the present system the men will all be paid for every drill they attend and they will get their pay promptly. And we are getting the cooperation of all the former national guard men. Even those who are unable to join at present are going to help in the training of the new men."

GRAND MILITARY BALL AT MAKAWELI JULY 2

Invitations will be out in a few days for the grand military ball at the community house, Makaweli, on the evening of Saturday, July 2nd.

The music for this occasion will be furnished by the 44th Infantry band, which will come over from Oahu with the army ball team that is to play the McBryde and Makaweli teams at the big celebration at Makaweli on the 4th.

Besides the music by the Infantry band there will be vaudeville acts between the dances.

The ball will be strictly invitation and admittance will be by card only.

SCOW BATTERS BRIDGE

The big scow belonging to the U. S. Engineers, which is anchored at the mouth of Niumalu river, drug its anchor when the tide was coming in Sunday afternoon and commenced a bombardment upon the new bridge across the river. It looked for a while as though the bridge would be demolished before the barge could be towed out where it could do no more harm.

Fortunately no damage was done other than ripping off some of the planking of the bridge.

LIHUE UNION CHURCH

Sunday School ten o'clock. Classes for children of all ages.

At the regular morning church hour, Rev. Royal G. Hall, recently on the faculty of the University of Missouri, will be the speaker. Mr. Hall spent two years in missionary work in Siam and for the past two years has been in educational work in the states. He is a forceful speaker and will bring an excellent message. Hear him next Sunday morning. R. W. Bayless, Pastor.

F. J. DOLLINGER TO BE HIGH PRINCIPAL

The board of education, at its meeting in Honolulu last week, appointed F. John Dollinger principal of Kauai High and Grammar School for the coming year.

Professor Forrest John Dollinger, newly appointed principal of Kauai High School, comes to this position supported by a wealth of experience in the teaching profession. Mr. Dollinger's great grandparents were pioneers at Dayton, Ohio, and Forrest John was born in Covington near that city. He graduated from Covington high school in the classical course and from Ohio Normal College. Subsequently he studied in Ohio Wesleyan University and was transferred to the University of Denver, Colo., where he was graduated with the degree of B. S. in 1904. He also took graduate work and received the B. A. degree in the same school.

Mr. Dollinger has been principal successively of Aspen, Colo. high school, superintendent of schools at Glenwood Springs three years and principal of Yakima high school, Washington, three years. For about eight years prior to the War he was principal in the city schools system of Seattle following which he spent a year travelling and teaching in the Philippines, China and Japan. During the world war he was commissioned captain in the Red Cross and was put in charge of the hospital at So. Hampton, England. After the war he travelled in England, Scotland, Wales and France.

Returning to his home in Seattle, he sold his fruit ranch in Washington and came to Hawaii where he has been teacher of music and history in Kauai high school.

Throughout his educational experience Professor Dollinger has specialized on training for supervision of schools. He has been reared in this atmosphere. For seventeen years his brother has been superintendent of schools in Sidney, Ohio. Kauai High School, which has developed so rapidly and well under the direction of his predecessors, has become a field of far reaching influence and promises large returns from the new administration.

P. H. COOLEY APPOINTED PRINCIPAL OF MAUI SCHOOL

P. H. Cooley, principal of Koloa public school for the past two years, has been appointed principal of Kahahameha 3rd. school at Lahaina, Maui, to succeed B. O. Wist, who has been selected by the department of public instruction as head of the Normal School in Honolulu.

WE GREET YOU

The latest publication to make its bow to the Kauai public is the Kauai High School annual, "Fabula Anni", Vol. 1, No. 1 of which is just off the press. It is an extremely neat and well written little book of 60 pages, with a cover of blue printed in gold—the school colors.

The staff of "Fabula Anni" follows:

Literary Editor, Isami Dol
School Reporter, Emily Sousa-Exchange, Richard Sloggett
Boys' Athletics, George Kuboki
Girls' Athletics, Anna Scott
Jokes, Homer Tracy
Art, Thelma Hopper
Secretary, Sadao Yokomoto
Alumnus, Robert Hogg
Class Editors—Senior, Yoshimitsu Morimoto; Junior, Shinkichi Nishimoto; Sophomore, Iwao Miyake; Freshmen, Helen Wedemeyer and Tadashi Nagai.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Mr. Eugene Rapoza and Miss Theresa Rapoza at St. Katherine's Roman Catholic Church, Kapaa, next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. The wedding reception will be held at the Waipouli arce track.

The Lurline arrived at Port Allen Sunday. It was considerably delayed this trip on account of the seamen's strike in San Francisco.

Personals

Mr. George N. Wilcox returned Friday morning from a brief visit to Honolulu.

Dr. J. T. Wayson, of Honolulu, was among the passengers arriving by the Kinau this morning.

Miss Josephine Moragne came over this morning to spend the vacation at her home in Lihue.

E. Cropp, manager of Koloa plantation, returned from Honolulu this morning.

Geo. P. Cooke, with Miss Dora, Harrison, Paul and Judd Cooke, were arrivals by this morning's Kinau.

C. J. Dow is back at his post at the wireless station again after two weeks hunting and camping at Kokee.

Mrs. H. D. Wishard, of Lihue, returned by the Kinau this morning from a visit of several weeks in Honolulu.

Gaylord P. Wilcox, of the American Factors, is paying Kauai a visit. He came over on the Kinau Friday morning.

Mrs. Charles Rice, Mrs. Philip Rice and Mrs. C. M. V. Forster have been taking a short vacation at their mountain house at Kokee.

W. O. Crowell of Waimea has been confined to his house for the last week by a light attack of intestinal flu.

Mrs. Gaylord Wilcox and children sailed for the coast aboard the Maui to spend the summer at Lake Tahoe, California.

Jimmy Oxberry of McBryde Plantation is busy training his little speedster "Sooky Blue Skin" for her initial debut into the racing game.

Dr. Wallace McFarland, agricultural chemist of the Hawaiian Fertilizer Company, is making a business trip to Kauai this week.

Miss Florence Geyer, welfare nurse of Kealia, sailed aboard the Maui last week for San Francisco where she will be married to Mr. Frank Williams.

Mrs. J. M. Kuhns entertained a number of Lihue ladies last Wednesday afternoon at her home in Lihue. Bridge furnished the chief source of entertainment.

Fred Jamieson, treasurer of the Hawaiian Trust Company, was the guest Friday and Saturday of last week of his brother, D. Jamieson, head luna of the Lihue Plantation.

Mrs. J. M. Lydgate returned from Honolulu this morning where she has been for the past two weeks with her son Mortimer who has been ill with pneumonia, but who is now nearly recovered.

Colonel W. D. Potter and E. J. Nowlen of the National Guard of Hawaii returned to Honolulu last Friday after a week's visit to Kauai. They both express a great admiration for Kauai's scenic beauties.

Mrs. J. S. B. Pratt Jr. of Kilauea, and son J. S. B. Pratt 3rd. were passengers on the Kinau returning to Honolulu Saturday. Mrs. Pratt and Scotty expect to visit her mother, Mrs. J. S. Kastle, for about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eklund arrived in Honolulu last Wednesday after a two month's vacation on the mainland. They are expected on Kauai next week. Walter reports that on this trip he saw his first live snake out of captivity. If he had seen that snake on Kauai we might be suspicious.

ADVERTISER EDITOR TO WED MISS HOLMES

The engagement of Miss Mathilda Holmes of the Star-Bulletin staff to Samuel B. Trissel, editor of the Advertiser, has been announced. The wedding will take place on July 20 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Taylor, 2515 Upper Manoa Road. Miss Holmes came to Honolulu from Chicago six months ago, and is a member of the Star-Bulletin editorial staff in charge of the women's department.—Star-Bulletin.

Thirty young people from Lihue and vicinity made a trip up the Waialeale river Saturday night where they had a swim and picnic supper.

YOUNG JAPANESE KILLED BY AUTO

E. Isawa, a young Japanese employed by the Hawaiian Canneries Company, died at the Kealia Hospital on Friday morning from injuries received early that morning as the result of being hit by Ford Car No.1430 alleged to have been operated by G. Masada of Hanalei. The accident happened opposite the Hop Wo store in Kapaa at about 1:30 a. m. Friday morning.

According to officer Dan Hano, who was only about fifty yards away from the scene when the accident occurred, the Ford car rounded the turn at a moderate rate of speed and just before the end of the turn, its headlight revealed two men in single file, walking on the road from the Lihue side of Kapaa, the Ford being on the way to Nawiliwili. The first man, who was an elder brother of the victim of the accident, just managed to dodge but his brother was caught by the left fender and knocked senseless, the left side of his stomach being struck.

The injured man was immediately rushed to Dr. Yanagihara, who made an examination and then ordered the man sent to Dr. Hagood at Kealia Hospital, as the case was too serious. He died without gaining consciousness, a surgical operation by Doctors Kuhns and Hagood having failed to save the man's life. The deceased was 19 years old and came into the employ of the Hawaiian Canneries about three weeks ago.

A coroner's inquest held at the Kapaa Courthouse yesterday afternoon came to the following verdict: that the deceased came to his death on the 17th day of June, 1921, from being hit by a Ford automobile, causing the rupture of the colon, (large intestine) contributory cause, surgical shock incident to the accident and the operative procedure.

The following persons served on the coroner's jury with John Hano as coroner: John F. Rapoza, James C. Taber, Jose K. Contrades, Louis E. Seghorn, J. N. Pualihau, and D. W. Keyes.

BABY HIT BY BATTED BALL

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Alameda of Koloa had a very narrow escape from death last Sunday when a foul ball travelling at terrific speed grazed the top of her head.

Mrs. Alameda, with her baby in her arms, was seated in the car of J. S. Ornellas, which was parked beyond the first base line at the Koloa-McBryde game at Koloa Sunday afternoon. Monsarratt, the Koloa third baseman, was at bat and hit a foul drive along the first base line. The ball, hot off the big third baseman's bat, went as straight as a bullet for the car, passed through a small space between the top supports, and struck the child in its mother's arms.

It was thought at the time that the baby was killed by the blow, as it was unconscious, but fortunately it did not receive the full impact of the force as the ball hit a glancing blow on the top of the head.

Dr. Waterhouse was summoned and ordered the injured baby taken home where restorative measures were taken, with the result that it revived and is believed now to be out of danger.

FRIDAY'S KINAU A STUDENT BOAT

Most of the passengers aboard the Kinau arriving last Friday morning were students coming home for the summer vacation. Prominent among those returning were Master B. Knudsen, Miss Alexandria Knudsen, Alfred Chal, Master J. Jorgensen, Harwood Danford, Edith Ewart, Emma Haniaki, Helen and Jack Sanborn, Robert and Lindsey Ewart, Frank Broadbent, Y. Ishii, Master F. and Miss R. Scott, J. Gensen, Grace Wilkinson, L. Tuttle, Misses B. and M. Cockett, Miss E. Benton, Corydon Benton, Eddie Robinson, V. and J. Lizama, K. and N. Montgomery.
