KOLOA HI-Y ENTERTAIN LAWAI

The members of the Lawai Community Club were given an insight of the working of the Hi-Y Club meeting last Friday evening when they were entertained by the Koloa boys. The regular discussion period was observed, the topic being discussed "Making Good or Just Getting By?"

A number of the Hi-Y fellows told of the pleasure and help they were getting out of the well-planned program in which they participated each week. A variety of games and stunts and topped off with refreshments sent the Lawai men home feeling that they had seen and heard something of value in the conduct of club work.

A return meeting is planned at an early date by the Lawai Club.

ANAHOLA Y FELLOWS HAVE EVENING OF FUN AND ENLIGHTENMENT

More than twenty members of the Y Club of Anahola were present last Saturday night at the meeting held in the Japanese school house. The regular bible study discussion was led by Hosea Lovell, followed by a short talk by Mr. Locke. Mr. Riley then told of his experiences in Russia and Siberia and showed many pictures of the life and people in that far-away country. Many things were learned which could have gotten from no other source. A flashlight of the members of the Young Men's Club was taken, another new experience to not a few. Indoor games, full of life and laughing, occupied the remainder of the all too short evening.

LIHUE HI-Y HOLD BUSINESS AND SOCIAL MEETING

The Lihue Hi-Y Club held its regular weekly meeting at the home of Secretary Locke last Friday evening. The fellows were introduced to the mysteries of the great American pastime in its parlor version. The final score of a hotly contested five inning game stood 32-32 in favor of Shorty Thomas' team. A whirlwind come-back was staged by Robinson's team in the last inning when 19 men came over the plate before three goose-eggs were chalked. The feature of the game was the Babe Ruth batting of Slim (alias Dick) Rice. His repeated emulations of the famous bambino gave the desion of the final score.

A new method of deep-breathing and lung enlargement proved all that was promised for it in the game of puff-pong.

Bill Moragne's team seemed to have the strongest breath and disarmed the other delegates on the modern 5-3 basis.

The weighty problems disposed in the business meeting were some what lightened by the appearance of a pitcher of circus lemonade and well stocked plates of cookies and cake, and they were still further forgotten during the recital of Mr. Riley of his war experiences and the adventures of a feline friend.
