DAVID I IS HOST AT CHINESE DINNER

David I celebrated his twentieth birthday with a Chinese dinner at his home yesterday evening. A large circle of friends were his guests for the evening and wished the usual felicitations for the day.

Miss Elizabeth Lindsay arrived on last Wednesday from Honolulu for a short visit with her sister, Mrs. A. B. Braue of Port Allen.

NITRATE BOAT IN PORT ALLEN BRINGS 1200 TONS FOR A. & B.

The British steamer Sheasmead arrived in Port Allen yesterday morning with 1200 tons of nitrate for that port. The Sheasmead brought her cargo from Chile and has already unloaded part of it at Kahului and Honolulu. She will depart about Friday morning.

Neutrality

It was during the impaneling of a jury, the following colloquy occurred: "You are a property holder?" "Yes, your honor." "Married or single?" "I've been married five years, your honor." "Have you formed or expressed any opinion?" "Not for five years, your honor." —Journal of American Medical Association.

MRS. KELIHO'S CORNER

Delegate Baldwin sent a wireless that the Senate of the Congress had passed the amendment to the Organic Act so that women would be eligible to hold public office. That should remove the last shadow of doubt as to my eligibility. Yet there are those who still insist that I cannot be seated if I am elected. It seems to me that no amount of argument would convince these people otherwise. So their knocking may as well be ignored. When you hear such argument against me, think it over, and do not let such talk influence you.

It is an honor to be the first woman candidate for the office of representative to the House. That honor is mine. Nominate me on October 7th and elect me November 7th, and that honor belongs to Kauai. Does Kauai wish to have the honor of electing the first woman to the legislature? Think it over.

We will have another chat next week. Aloha.

Adv. ROSALIA KELIHO.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE

I hereby announce my candidacy for nomination on the Republican ticket for member of the Territorial House of Representatives from the Sixth Representative District, subject to the will of the voters of that District as expressed at the primary election.

D. K. HAYSELDON.
