

POETRY.

From the American Monthly Magazine.
TRUST IN GOD.

Trust in God! and he will guard thee!
When the tempest threatens, ward thee!
In the chill and cheerless hour
He will light thy lonely bower;
And, when earth is dark and dreary,
Pleasure palls, and life grows weary,
He will lend thee, for the fight,
Strength of more than mortal might.

Trust in God! The bleakest mountain
Bears within its breast a fountain,
Where the worn and weary rover
May his failing strength recover.
Every heart that looks above,
Trusts in God, and shares his love,
Is a fount of life, however
Rough the channel of its river.

Trust in God! The things we cherish
Most and fondest, soonest perish;
Hopes, the brightest, quickly fly;
Friends, the truest, early die;
But when hopes and joys decay,
Friends and kindred pass away;
Trust in God! and he will be
Worth the world beside thee.

Trust in God! and when to death
Yieldest thou at last thy breath,
Angel-pinioned, thou wilt fly
To His mansions in the sky;
There the loved and lost will meet thee!
There thy friend and God will greet thee!
Freed from sin, from sorrow freed,
Thou wilt then be blest indeed. Io.
