

POETRY.

"RETURNING A STOLEN RING.
BY C. SHERRY.

"Well, lady, take again the ring,
To deck that lily hand of thine,
And with it take the gift I bring
To lay on beauty's golden shrine.

"With every joy and pleasure gay,
May all thine hours roll swift along,
And life in beauty glide away,
Like the rich cadence of a song.

"May friendship shed its gentle rays,
To make the path before thee bright;
And love serenely gild thy days,
With a more deep and brilliant light.

"And in that future happy time,
Thine earlier friends perchance forgot,
Say wilt thou read this careless rhyme,
And him who wrote remember not?

"Remember not! and can it be
That joyous memories ever die?
That all my heart can feel for thee
Is but a lightly whispered sigh?

"Ay, it is written on our lot,
That lot so varied, dark, and strange,
To meet, to pass, and be forgot,
In painful and perpetual change.

"But dash this idle gloom away,
And be again the gay and free;
Thou must not to thy dying day,
Forget this stolen ring and me?"
