

HE ESCAPED PURSUIT.

SUCCESSFUL FLIGHT OF A SUSPECT.

A Man Believed to be Bruett Gets Away From Officers Who Fire on Him.

Last night about eleven o'clock a telephone message was received at the Station House from Mrs. Judge Bickerton, residing at cottage 100 in the Hotel grounds. She requested that a foreign policeman be sent there at once.

Within a few minutes Captain Juen called and found Justice Bickerton and his wife awaiting his arrival. Mrs. Bickerton was somewhat perturbed, and told Captain Juen that she did not feel that she could go to sleep until she had made the police a statement of what she had incidentally discovered at Waikiki during the afternoon.

Mrs. Bickerton told the officer that during the afternoon she and Mrs. Woods had gone to Waikiki to call on Mrs. Green and Mrs. J. N. S. Williams, residing at the Bishop premises, opposite the old Macfarlane place, and extending to the beach. The large house and cottages are built near the beach, and the entrance to the premises is through a gateway in the main road.

While Mrs. Bickerton was walking along the fence looking for the gate she nearly stepped upon an ugly looking man who was seemingly lying in hiding. It was very early in the evening. Being possessed of presence of mind and unusual nerve, Mrs. Bickerton did not cry out or show that she had seen the man; on the contrary she walked on a short distance and then called to the man in the cottage to send the yard Chinaman out to open the gate.

When the servant arrived they returned to the spot, but found the man had gone and the two ladies then made their calls.

Although very suspicious themselves they did not tell the ladies at the cottage of the ugly customer hanging around the premises, as they were alone and it was thought best not to frighten them. On Mrs. Bickerton's return to town, later in the evening, and after consultation to the Judge Bickerton the officers were sent for.

As soon as Captain Juen returned to the Station House, he and Captain Schlemmer armed themselves, and proceeded on horseback to Waikiki.

After some trouble they discovered the place, but found the gate locked. Leaving their horses they went to search the premises on foot. Captain Juen took one side of the yard and Captain Schlemmer the other and they so timed their movements as to meet at Mrs. Green's cottage. At this point they separated and Schlemmer took the cottage, while Juen went over to the Bishop house to investigate.

As Juen was nearing the large house he saw somebody moving toward the gateway, between the house and the beach. He at once hailed the prowler, but got no answer, and the man began running to get behind the house. Juen gave chase, and by the time he reached the beach gate, he saw the fugitive just turning the further corner of the house nearest the sea. As the man was about to escape, Juen fired twice at him before he got out of sight, missing each time.

When Juen reached the corner he saw the fellow disappearing among the trees beyond, and at once fired a third shot at him; as he pulled the trigger, however, his foot tripped and he fell violently to the ground missing the last chance of hitting his mark. Before he fired the last shot, Juen called to the man to stop or he would kill him.

At this point Captain Schlemmer joined the chase, but thinking the fugitive might be Captain Juen, he was afraid to fire in the dim light. By the time Juen succeeded in making himself known, the stranger had made his escape.

It was now after 12 o'clock, and the inmates of the cottage were alarmed. By the time the officers had explained matters a squad of the mounted police from the Park arrived and they were stationed on the premises with instructions to keep a sharp lookout.

It is the belief of both captains, Juen and Schlemmer that the prowler was no other than the escaped Bruett, who was out on a foraging expedition. This theory is based on his size and general appearance and his exceeding swiftness of foot.

EWA PLANTATION.

Sugar Mill Record—Visitors Numerous—Low Excursion Rates.

The Ewa Sugar Mill has established a 50-ton per day record, and is keeping close to that figure. Supt. W. J. Lowrey is very much pleased at this, as well as of the fact that the eight-ton of sugar to the acre record is also being maintained in good shape.

Never before have there been so many visitors to the Plantation and Mill as during the past month. Even the town people are visiting the place with greater interest than they have before to manifest. This is no doubt owing to the continued excursion rates over the Oahu Railway on Saturdays and Sundays, rates which Supt. Ashley of the O. R. & L. Co., has decided to keep on tap indefinitely.

OFF FOR MOLOKAI.

The Board of Health Will Make an Inspection There.

The President and members of the Board of Health will leave this evening at seven o'clock for the leper settlement on Molokai. They will go over in the steamer Lehua and expect to return during Sunday morning.

As considerable difficulty has been met in dealing with certain affairs pertaining to the settlement, owing to a

HE PLAYED THE TOWN.

BOWEN'S ADROIT PLAN TO GET INSIDE NEWS.

A Correspondent Pa'ms Himself Off as an Official Visitor and Lives in Clover.

The way that the correspondent of the New York World lived on the fat of the land in Hawaii and took in the natives bids fair to become one of the classic annals of the newspaper guild.

William Shaw Bowen arrived when Harold M. Sewell did and on the same vessel. He played Paul Neumann en route as a sucker—a rather difficult thing to do, by the way—by telling him that he was going to Honolulu as a sort of confidential agent of Mr. Cleveland to make a private report on the situation.

GOING TO THE FAIR.

Hawaiian Teachers Will Take in the Big Show.

Several of the government school teachers on the islands will visit the Columbian Exposition during the summer vacation. Among those who have already announced such a purpose are Prof. M. N. Scott, of the Fort Street School, and Prof. H. S. Townsend of Lahaimaluna Seminary. Besides these several teachers from the island of Kauai have already been heard from and it is expected several others will go.

To accommodate those desiring to leave, the Board of Education has determined to close the public schools a week earlier than usual. This will be on July 22nd, which will give tourists five days in which to reach Honolulu for the steamer sailing on July 27th.

BASE BALL.

Opening of the Season To-morrow by the Crescents and Hawaiians.

The base ball league will open the season at the league grounds to-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The first game will be played between the Crescents and Hawaiians. The Hawaiian band will be in attendance. The present season promises to be one of unusual interest as the clubs do not admit that last season's work was entirely unremunerative and several important changes made and the results will be eagerly looked for in base ball circles and elsewhere.

SUCCEEDS MR. CASTLE.

Arthur Johnstone to Edit the Morning Advertiser.

Arthur Johnstone of the STAR local staff will succeed Henry Castle as editor of the Advertiser, beginning his duties with the week. Mr. Johnstone has done excellent work in these pages and will, no doubt, add to his reputation in the field that has now opened to him. We wish him good luck.

What the Town Wants to See.

A cleaner Chinese quarter. More of the white cruisers. Stronger bars for criminals. Better marksmanship by soldiers and police.

The hidden facts about the Custom House scandal. A stock company from the coast in the local theater.

The Kennebec Journal when Mr. Stevens get his pen in hand.

A Staunch Annexationist.

Consul Glade indignantly denies the story told in a royalist print that he has deserted the annexationist cause. Mr. Glade states that he is as clearly convinced as he ever was that annexation to the United States is the pressing need of this country, and that he does not intend to lessen his efforts to secure that end. He does not understand how a report of his defection could have been started.

Torbets' Pineapples.

In addition to native apples, Torbet Bros., have in cultivation something over 500 pineapple plants of the smooth leaved Florida variety, which they imported direct at a heavy expense. These plants are showing splendid fruit and numerous slips for new plants, and this despite a setback to them caused by a lack of knowledge as to their peculiar requirements under cultivation.

Serious Charges.

Marshal Hitchcock states that lately very serious charges have been preferred against the police department of Waialua district, Island of Oahu. Investigations have already been commenced and will be made thorough and exhaustive. The Marshal at present declines to make known the exact nature of the allegations.

Bug-Ravaged Trees.

W. J. Lowrey, Manager of the Ewa Plantation called to day on the Bureau of Agriculture and left samples of foliage devastated by the ravages of the brown bug in that district. Among the samples were leaves of the monkey-pod and royal palm, grape vine leaves and several others.

Diving for Bricks.

Native divers at the Oceanic wharf are making good wages bringing up bricks which they sell for two cents apiece. They say there are 2000 bricks on the bottom and any quantity of coal.

Scraping the Mohican.

Divers from the Boston are at work upon the bottom of the flagship Mohican. They will scrape it free of barnacles before the vessel leaves for Behring sea.

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

The battery will drill again this evening.

The Y. M. C. A. building. The Australia's outgoing cargo was valued at $67,564.

The Hawaiian band will play at Thomas Square this evening. Base ball to-morrow between the Alohas and Crescents.

The Aloha brought the latest quotations of sugar. They were 3 1/2. The Boston will be moved in the fall by the U. S. S. Atlanta, a sister ship.

Capt. Nelson and other officers of the Mohican, called on President Dole yesterday. There are too many looking dogs in town for the comfort of people who want to sleep.

The correspondents sent out a very full report of Mr. Spreckels' sugar republic scheme. Commissioner Blount's report has now assumed the proportions of a good-sized pamphlet.

The U. S. S. Adams has now got its telephone adjusted and is in free communication with the shore. It is now announced that the Mohican will delay its departure until the Mariposa arrives from the coast.

The Honolulu cricket team will play the Hyacinth cricketers at the base ball grounds next Wednesday. The band will not play at Kawaiahae Square to-morrow afternoon owing to the opening of the base ball season.

Marshal Hitchcock is confident that he will be able to lay hands upon the escaped prisoner Bruett in a few days. Ah Han was arrested this morning for assault and battery on Ah Kiu, at the corner of Smith and Hotel streets.

Ex U. S. Treasurer Huston, one of the applicants for a Honolulu bank charter is off on a South American trip. The Tacoma insurance rating has been adopted here. It amounts to one per cent. as a basis with an ascertained percentage of risk added.

Will Commissioner Blount call on the Queen? Inquires an exchange. It all depends on the character of the game.—Washington Post.

The answer of Commissioner Thurston to the letter asking him to accept the Washington ministry is expected by Wednesday's steamer. Marshal Hitchcock emphatically denies the royalist report that he suspects any member of the Provisional party of the opium theft.

Last evening, Harry Davison was married at Kawaiahae to Miss Mary Kawahee Kye. Rev. H. H. Parker tied the knot. The wharf rats had an annexation and royalist tug of war on the water front the other day which was won by the annexationists after a prodigious pull.

News received at the Annexation Club from Maui and Hawaii give accounts of good progress on those islands. Several Chinese coin, an antiquated salt cellar and a carving fork heavily encrusted with marine deposits were brought up by the dredger recently.

C. B. Reynolds, Executive officer of the Board of Health, is at the Kalihui Receiving Station to-day on a tour of inspection. There are now 23 lepers there awaiting transportation to Molo kai.

A large transparency, 9 by 12 feet, has been placed in position at the angle of the Fishel building, bearing the words "Annexation Club" in large black letters.

Mrs. Angeline Kuhui filed in the Circuit Court this morning a motion to pay the debts of the estate of Keoni Kuhui. On stipulation of the parties a hearing was set by Judge Whiting for May 2nd.

Bishop Willis' reply to the resolutions adopted at the last meeting of the Second Congregation of St. Andrews church has not yet been received by the representatives of that body.

It is rumored that another bond scandal has been discovered at the Custom House. A partial admission of the fact has been made to a STAR reporter, but he was refused the particulars "at present." A large sum of money is said to be involved.

A larger number than usual gathered at Maake island last night to enjoy the drive and listen to the Hawaiian Band concert. The road was crowded with private carriages and hacks. And exceptionally good programme of music was given.

As often as possible the coast steamers carry an iceed consignment of island plover to John D. Spreckels. Mr. Spreckels says that they are the best game birds to be had at San Francisco and if shipped to the markets there would find a regular line of custom at a fancy price.

Incipient hulas and the attendant indulgences in poi and other delicacies are occurring frequently in the vicinity of Pearl City, Waiau, Honolulu and the Ewa Mill. Last night entertainments of this sort were given in at least two of these places, at each of which haole bloods were participants as well as guests.

SHOT HIS OWN HORSE.

An Accidental Discharge of a Pistol and its Result.

As W. Scott, one of the mounted patrol was leaving the Club Stables, the revolver which he carried dropped from his holster. The hammer of the weapon struck a rock, discharging the weapon. The shot passed through the horse's neck. The animal will probably die. Scott accounts as his reason for carrying the pistol, that he was about to proceed to the house of C. Klemme, where the mounted patrol were to be photographed in a group.

PERSONAL.

Supt. Ashley is in Pearl City to-day personally directing important improvements to streets, crossings and track along the Peninsula spur of the Oahu Railway.

Mrs. A. T. Baunister and Miss Baunister left for Mahukona, Hawaii, to-day. M. A. Gonsalves, the Honolulu merchant, has gone to Maui on business.

Andrew Moore, manager of the Paahau plantation, Hawaii, returned to his post by the steamer Kinohi.

Gonsalves the photographer has gone to Hawaii to take views.

W. A. Hardy has gone to Hilo to assume the duties of deputy sheriff of that district.

Mrs. J. Vievea and children returned to Hilo to-day. Edward Dehon makes a flying trip to Spackelsville by the Kinohi to-day.

C. E. Richardson, a prominent Hilo merchant, returns by the Kinohi to-day. A. M. Gilmore and Miss M. L. Dehon were passengers for the volcano this afternoon.

Murray Liebstein is occupying one of the Herber cottages at Waikiki.

MARINE NOTES.

The bark Puritan will have finished unloading her coal by to-morrow noon, when the Cayton will take her berth at the railway wharf to take on Ewa Plantation sugar.

The barkentine W. R. Home is discharging coal at the railway wharf. The cargo is for the Makaweli Plantation, and will be warehoused.

The steamer Lulu arrived this morning with a full cargo of sugar from Honolulu.

The steamers Iwala and James Makee which arrived this morning leave again this evening for their respective ports. The Makee will return Sunday morning. She has made three trips this week to clear away the sugar at the plantations.
