Stranded in London.

The following advertisement appeared in the Morning Post of Wednesday: "Will you help an American with a wife..... to secure a second cabin passage home....."

Dear me, this is too admirable an opportunity to be missed. I feel sure that many will readily assist any of our American cousins who may desire to return "home."—London Truth.

Lord Iveagh's Million.

Lord Iveagh, of Guinness stout fame, recently gave a quarter of a million pounds sterling toward the housing of London's poor. He has spent £750,000 for his Saverlake property and is now daily extracting sheets from his check book in payment of bills incurred in putting the neglected estate in order.

The Cynic's House as a Kennel.

The eccentric lady who has turned Carlyle's house in Cheyne Row, London, into a kennel, has been fined £18 and costs by the Westminster Police Court Magistrate. The neighbors have tried in vain to clean this Augean stable with rosewater and appopanax.

Lord Roseberry to Wed Princess Maud.

Lord Roseberry is to wed Princess Maud, the third daughter of the Prince and Princess of Wales.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Indians first utilized petroleum. Worth's cheapest dress is $150. A ton of gold is worth $493,360. Hats are polished by electricity. Chicago has 1500 grade crossings. The emerald supply is decreasing. China has a bridge 5 1/2 miles long. Uncle Sam has 460 electric roads. Silk is to be made from wood pulp. Chicago will exhibit an Irish village. The banana seeds only in one small spot on earth, the Andaman Islands. Everywhere else it must be raised from suckers.

A Canadian has invented a contrivance to do away with holding the telephone receiver to the ear while talking over the wire.

The bones of the whales that the German Kaiser slaughtered in the North Sea last summer are now to be turned into furniture for the Norwegian boat-house at Potsdam.

A hay saver, consisting of a three-sided device, which enables the horse to insert his head into the manger, but does not permit any lateral movement of it, is a late invention.

Work is in progress on 279 buildings, to be used as hotels, in the immediate neighborhood of the World's Fair grounds. These structures are of wood, brick or stone, and will contain a total of 33,945 rooms. They will cost nearly $4,000,000. With this abundance of accommodations, it is believed that hotel rates will not be excessive.

M. McINERNY.

Are we to be, or not to be, a part of the Great Republic, seems to be the burning question of the day, and one we had rather leave to wiser heads than ours to solve; and while great statesmen are wrestling with this momentous question, we want to have a little "how-to-do" with you on some other subjects, that concern you as well as ourselves.

Has it not occurred to you that you've been wearing that old hat long enough! In these progressive times if you intend to be "in it," you've got to keep pace with fashion. No matter how otherwise well dressed you may be, unless your hat is the correct thing you bear a shabby appearance.

We have already laid in a stock of the Latest Hats of the coming Spring and Summer styles, in hard felts, soft felts and straws, and including a line of the celebrated "Fidora" Hats, at present all the rage in the United States. There is therefore, no necessity for you to hang on any longer to that old Tile that bears such a strong resemblance to the hat "your father wore."

Believing that business will be better in the near future, we have not hesitated to keep our stock full in all lines. Take collars for instance: We have almost everything you could wish for. If you wear a standing collar, just come in and take a look at our "Narenta" or "Ardonia;" or if you prefer a turn down collar, try the "Winnipeg" or "Goswell;" we have have lots of others, and can't fail to suit you. Cuffs in abundance, links or otherwise.

Neckwear in profusion, scarfs windsors 4-in-hands, and a special lot of "Boys' Bows;" suspenders in great variety, leather and woven ends, good strong, serviceable goods.

We might go on indefinitely, but space is valuable, and to enumerate everything we carry would fill a pretty fair sized Book. If there is anything you want in the men's line, just drop in and see us, and if we can't suit you, we don't believe any one can.

If you should want a pair of nice shoes, let us try a hand at fitting you. Did it ever occur to you

How much a man is like his shoes; For instance, both a soul may lose. Both have been tanned; Both are made tight by Cobblers; Both get left and right; Both need a mate to be complete; And both are made to go on feet.

They both need healing; oft are sold, And both in time will turn to mould. With shoes the last is first; with men The first shall be the last; and when The shoes wear out, they're mended new; When men wear out, they're men dead too.

They both are trod upon, and both Will tread on others nothing loth. Both have their ties, and both incline When polished, in the world to shine; And both get out. Now would you choose To be a man, or be his shoes.
