

OUR ELECTRIC SYSTEM.

DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW BUILDING.

A Splendid Brick Structure About to be Erected at Halekauwila and Alakea Streets.

The Board of Directors of the Electric Light Company held an informal meeting yesterday in the office of architect Ripley for the purpose of considering the plans prepared for the new building about to be erected on the ground recently purchased by the company on the corner of Halekauwila and Alakea streets. While several minor details have not been fully decided on, the plan of the main building and its general features has been approved. The building will be one-story high, built of brick, and will front 102 feet 9 inches on Halekauwila street, and 100 feet on Alakea street. The front, looking towards the water, will present the appearance of a double building there being a wide central arched door at each end, with arched windows on either side, one of these doors entering into the boiler and fuel room and the other into the engine and dynamo room. On the Alakea street side there will be five large windows and two doors. The height of the building from floor to ceiling will be 17 feet; the walls ranging in thickness from 13 to 17 inches. On the Ewa side there will be two windows, while the rear wall juts against another building. The structure will have a double truss roof, covered with corrugated, each half being surmounted with a raised ventilation extending the whole length of the building, similar in appearance to that over the new Spreckels warehouse. In the front of the building are two long, narrow openings for the wires. The corners of the building and the window and door facings will be of native dressed stone and will present a handsome and imposing appearance. The foundation walls will be of stone and cement, laid directly on the coral, six feet below the level of the street, while the main floor will be one foot above. The interior plan of the building shows a main brick partition wall cutting the structure into two rooms connected by an arched doorway. The room on the Ewa side will be 44 ft. 4 in. by 97 ft. 10 in. in the clear, and is designated as the boiler and fuel room. The floor of this room will be macadam. The other room will be 54 ft. by 97 ft. 10 in. in the clear and will contain the engine and dynamo, storage batteries, offices, etc. The new building will be amply sufficient to contain all the machinery needed to supply electric lights and motor power for a city twice the size of Honolulu, and architecturally considered would be an ornament to any city. C. B. Ripley is the architect, and bids for the prompt construction of the building will probably be asked for in a few days.

ST. ANDREW'S PRIORY SCHOOL. Closing Exercises of the Term Yesterday Afternoon.

The large school room of the St. Andrew's Priory school for girls was crowded almost to suffocation yesterday afternoon during the closing exercises of the term. The interior of the room was beautifully decorated with flags, flowers, ferns and palms. The examinations which have been going on for some days past not only reflect great credit on the scholars, but on their teachers, Sisters Beatrice and Albertina and the Misses Armstrong and Danford. The following program was rendered: Pianoforte duet—"Semiramide"; Song—"Hawaii's Song"; Play—"The Sleeping Beauty"; Song—"The Alphabet"; Recitation—"Twenty Frogs"; Glee—"Clustering Roses"; Play—"The Merry Queen"; Action Song—"The Co. King"; Play—"As You Like It, Act 2"; Song—"The Minstrel"; Glee—"The Wood Thrush"; Play—"The Queen of the Night"; Pianoforte duet—"Fugue"; Recitation—"Quarrel Among the Flowers"; Play—"Revolution in Sugar, Candia"; Recitation—"Sivabheries"; Action Song—"Flag Drill"; Song—"Hawaii Poni". At the close of the exercises Bishop Willis distributed the prizes. There are two graduates this year, Miss Maud Niopio and Miss Alice Lelen. The young ladies were each presented with gold medals, with St. Andrew's Priory on one side and their names on the reverse. The other prizes consisted of handsomely bound books.

Mr. Kauffman Goes. Mr. Max Kauffman, of Berlin, left yesterday for the coast on the Australia, and presented a very conspicuous appearance at the gangway of the steamer, covered with leis, and shaking hands with most of the numerous host of friends that he has made during his four month's stay in Honolulu. Preferring the quiet and comfort of the seaside to the bustle of town, Mr. Kauffman while here, took up his residence at the Sans Souci Hotel, Waikiki, and is loud in his praises of that famous hostelry, the proprietor of which, Mr. George Lycurgus, has provided many a good feast at his order. Mr. Kauffman, who is possessed of considerable wealth, goes from here to the Yosemite Valley and Yellowstone Park, thence

TO Alaska and the World's Fair, and intends afterwards to take in Florida, Mexico, Samoa, Tahiti, and Australia, whence his movements are uncertain. It is not impossible that Mr. Kauffman will revisit the islands during his future travels, as he declares it to be one of the most delightful places in the world.

BAD LATIN AND WORSE GERMAN Inscriptions That Any Schoolboy Would Be Ashamed Of.

The Latin and German inscriptions on the case presented to Claus Spreckels have been the cause of much amusement to educated people. The authors of that insulting and libelous inscription, besides showing an abundance of impudence combined with a want of common decency, have displayed the grossest ignorance of the first principles of both Latin and German composition. The Latin line "Ave, Claus, morituri te salutamus" combines a plural subject with the first person singular of a present participle. The original expression, familiar to every primary scholar in Latin, was used by the gladiators on the occasion of mortal combats in the Roman amphitheatre and was addressed by them to the great Caesar as he sat in the royal box just previous to the actual combat. The original reads, "Ave, Caesar, morituri te salutamus," the correct translation being, "Hail, Caesar, who are about to die salute thee."

But if the Latin is bad the German composition is even worse. On the name the inscription reads, "Leben Sie hundert Jahre und niemals sterben." It should have read: "Leben sie ein hundert Jahre und sterben sie niemals," which, correctly translated, means, "May you live a hundred years and never die." The authors of this wonderful array of hog-Latin and German, not content with displaying their ignorance of those languages, must needs accompany it with faulty English composition. The expression of the wish that King Claus should never die makes the wish that he should live a hundred years a superfluity. The expression of agony which will be apparent on the faces of the educated men to whom Spreckels is liable to show the case when he gets to San Francisco can better be imagined than described, while the ignorance displayed in the inscription itself will reflect on the intelligence of all those whose names accompany it.

Good-Bye. Victurus, non moriturus, te Imperator saluto, Imperator, Imperator of whom? Imperator of sugar and stocks, Imperator of steamships and statecraft, Imperator of debtors and bankrupts, But of hearts and of men—omnium, no, never. Vale, Imperator, good-bye, sir; for you— I've no particular use.

How About Your Eyesight. This is a matter that H. F. Wichman, the popular Fort-street jeweler, is anxious about, according to the terms of an adv. in another column. In conversation with Mr. Wichman this morning he told a STAR reporter that his business in the optical line has more than doubled since he moved into his new store, while his business generally has largely increased. He is more than satisfied with the returns from his new venture. With recent improvements in optical machinery, Mr. Wichman is now prepared to grind special lenses to order, which is more than can be done at any jewelry establishment west of the Rockies outside of San Francisco.

Another Band Concert. Professor Berger's effort to please the music-loving portion of this city's inhabitants certainly ought to be appreciated. Under his direction the Hawaiian band will give an extra moonlight concert to-night at Emma square, commencing at 7:30, the following being the program:

- PART I. 1. March—"Hawaii Nei".....Berger 2. Overture—"Italia in Algeri".....Rosini 3. Finale—"Bilbao".....Lumatti 4. Selection—"Ernani".....Verdi
- PART II. 5. Medley—"Echoes of the Night".....Riviere 6. Dance—"The Aborigines".....Thiere 7. Waltz—"Vienna Baboons".....Strauss 8. Galop—"Street Cars".....Arndt

Changing Things Around. The cornice, crimson hangings, etc., together with the furniture of the old Legislative hall, is being put up in the Supreme Court room this afternoon, while the furniture formerly in the Supreme Court room is being set up for the use of the Circuit Court.

Motion for Allowance of Costs. Bruce Cartwright, administrator of the estate of Eliza B. Holt, has filed a motion in the Circuit Court to have his bill of costs on the recent sale of real estate allowed. The cost-bill totals up $264 25.

Going to Washington. "Yes, we shall go to Washington, where Mr. Spreckels has business," said Mrs. Spreckels yesterday morning. "We expect to remain in San Francisco a week—not longer."

Significant. Minister Blount was closeted with President Dole for an hour or more this morning. There was no session of the Circuit Court this morning. The hearing of the motion for alimony in the case of Hail vs. Nawai was set for 2 P. M.

The Libel Suit. In the Katzenjammer libel suit the following order was entered by Judge Foster this morning: "It appearing that no record in this case has been sent down from the Supreme Court, at the request of counsel for the prosecution it is ordered that the case stand over for one week."

NEWS IN A NUTSHELL. No arrests up to 3 P. M. to-day. The Board of Health did not meet yesterday. The Australia took 2910 letters and 709 papers yesterday. Work on the Volcano road is now in charge of John Moore. The Warrimoo is due from Vancouver to-morrow with three or four days' later news. The unsecured creditors of Sam Parker are taking measures to throw him into bankruptcy. The petition for letters of administration on the estate of L. N. Kauai will be heard on August 11th. One unfortunate Chinaman was fined $50 in the District Court this morning for having opinion in his possession. In the matter of the estate of George Snyder the settlement of the administrator's final account has been set for August 2d. The petition for the probate of the last will and testament of Sarah E. Austin comes up before Judge Cooper in chambers to-morrow. The preliminary examination of Nawai took place this morning before Judge Foster and resulted in his being held to answer to the Circuit Court for assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm.

PERSONAL. George Ross, manager of the Hakalau plantation, is in the city, accompanied by his wife and family. Justice Fearid did not leave on the Australia yesterday although his passage was booked some two months since. It is possible that he may not leave at all. Lugubrious Tremors of Age. Mr. Edmunds of Vermont sees danger in the acquisition of Hawaii. He remarks: "If we should annex the islands it would be only a question of time when we should admit them as a State. They would then have two Senators and be as powerful in the Senate as the State of New York. This is only one of the many good objections that have been offered."

Alaska was annexed. The time may come when it will want to be admitted as a State. Then Alaska would have two Senators and be as powerful in the Senate as the State of New York. If Mr. Edmunds' argument amounts to anything the United States ought to proceed with the utmost expedition to get rid of Alaska.—New York Sun.

PLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

THE TERN GLENDALE FOR EUREKA TO-MORROW.

The Schooner Ka Moi Leaves for Kohala—The Lavinia Laid up—The Kinau Again.

The tern Glendale leaves to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock for Eureka without any freight except a few hundred bunches of bananas. The captain expects to be back here about the middle of September with another load of red-wood lumber. To-day is the last one the water front native salvagists will hold forth at the foot of Nuuanu street. The fog horn voices of these apostles were too much for the denizens of the neighborhood, and upon their earnest petition to the police the native exhorters have been ordered to move elsewhere. The Canadian-Australian steamship Warrimoo is looked for to-morrow evening with a cargo and passengers for this port from the northwest. A phenomenal dullness exists on the wharves to-day. Only three vessels are alongside, all the others having hauled into the stream. The German bark George N. Wilcox is unloading the last of her cargo of coal at the railroad bunkers. The steamer Ka Moi left this afternoon with a small cargo of freight for Kohala. Bert Fuller is again at his post as captain of Allen & Robinson's fleet. The schooner Lavinia is laid up in the stream. A murky day on the reef.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with Wampole's Tasteless Preparation OF Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease. It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOL'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise. But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it. WAMPOL'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.
