

Blaming the Dentists. "Talk about the exports of gold setting our financial system," said the economic reformer as he bit a crescent out of a doughnut in a Park row lunch bazaar. "It isn't the exporting that is driving our gold out of the treasury. No, sir. The trouble is with the pluggers—the high toned tooth pluggers. They are ramming a cool $1,000,000 worth of gold away into the back teeth of the American people every year. That means just so much of the yellow metal lost to trade and commerce every twelve months—lost completely and irretrievably. This must be stopped. Let Congress pass a law prohibiting the use of gold in filling teeth, and the monetary pressure will begin to ease up in no time. When our gold is drawn away from us by business transactions with foreign nations, we can get it back in due time through the natural processes of trade, but when it is plugged away in the cavernous molars of our proud dukes and millionaires it is locked up so tight that a writ of foreign attachment couldn't reach it. This business must stop, or the government will slump before the next shad season opens.—New York Herald.

Effect of Faith in Time of Sickness. The effect of belief or faith, the effect of mind over matter of the body, is one of the mysterious things in all science. It is unquestionably a fact, demonstrated beyond all dispute by thousands of observed cases. Long before it was admitted or studied by scientific men it was commonly known, and that, too, among races of little mental development. Who shall say when the first enemy prayed his enemy to death among the natives of the South Sea islands? Who can say when the first Obi man "put conjer" on him who had defied him? The religious mysteries of vanished nations are full of recorded occurrences that may only be explained by this extraordinary power.—Cyrus Edson, M. D., in North American Review.

Ruined by Face Improvers. A young widow, who had been endeavoring to add artificially to her charms of person, is the complainant in an interesting case which will be before the law courts before long. She visited a well known west end beautifier who deals in lotions and powder warranted to improve the complexion, but after a very brief trial was compelled to call in a physician. The latter after hearing the facts and analyzing the stuffs she had been using declared that she was being slowly poisoned by a lotion. The lady is about to sue for damages.—Sheffield Telegraph.

A Quarrel Between Kings. According to a foreign correspondent Emperor William almost quarreled with King Humbert because the latter would not call out the Italian troops at midnight with a view to ascertaining their discipline. The Emperor insisted, the King protested, and it was not until Queen Marguerite explained that such a proceeding would arouse the city and alarm the Pope—the bersaglieri being quartered under the walls of the Vatican—that the Kaiser renounced his purpose and went to bed in very ill humor.

The River Tinto. There is in Spain a river called Tinto, which has very extraordinary qualities. Its waters, which are as yellow as the topaz, harden the sand and petrify it in a most surprising manner. If a stone falls into the river, and rests upon another, they both become perfectly united and conglutinated in a year. It withers all the plants on its banks as well as the roots of trees, which it dyes of the same hue as its waters.

None for Tom. Tom listened with great interest while his father read from a newspaper an account of life among the Mormons. Seeing the boy's attention, his father asked: "Would you like to live among the Mormons, Tom?" "What?" cried Tom, "and have to ask a dozen mothers every time I wanted to go in swimming? No, sir!"—Exchange.

A Cannon Ball in a Tree. Two negroes in cutting a great tree in a swamp near Snow Hill, Md., the other day came upon an old cannon ball completely embedded in the trunk. The tree measured three feet in diameter, and much of its growth had taken place since the ball found lodgment in the trunk. There has been no artillery firing in that region since the Revolutionary war.

Odds and Ends. McSwine's gun is a prodigious cavity in the cliffs on the coast of County Donegal, into which the tide rushes with such force as to produce a sound like the booming of a cannon which can be heard twenty or thirty miles away. Were the superfluities of a nation valued and made a perpetual tax or benevolence, there would be more almshouses than poor, more schools than scholars, and enough to spare for government besides.—Penn.

Too many of us in our eagerness after facts simply for the sake of storing up knowledge neglect the necessary means of making our knowledge useful. It is agreed by medical authorities that the virulence of an epidemic may be increased by the element of fear in the public mind. The canyon of the Colorado is 300 miles long, and the cliffs on either side are from 5000 to 6000 feet above the water.

Aim at the Drake

And you are bound to hit some of the ducks. This is precisely the same with

Wampole's

Tasteless

Preparation

Cod Liver Oil.

It aims to cure Consumption, Hits the Mark, too, and it most effectually breaks up Colds, Coughs, Hoarseness and all Throat and Lung troubles that cause this disease. It is natural logic to conclude that if WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION OF COD LIVER OIL has power to prevent Consumption, it surely is able to cure these lesser emergencies.

This vigor-making, fat producing preparation is Absolutely Tasteless, in so far as Cod Liver Oil is concerned. All you notice is a delightful flavor of Wild Cherry and Anise.

But the purest Norwegian Cod Liver Oil is there all the same. It is a great blood enricher. Best of all it is a natural food that in its stomachic effects, actually assists its own assimilation.

In Pulmonary or Bronchial troubles it is unequalled. No one doubts the value of Cod Liver Oil, but not every one is able to take it.

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION removes the nauseous objection and actually makes Cod Liver Oil palatable.

Sample copies mailed to any address. A limited number of advertisements inserted at reasonable rates.

The Hawaiian Annual now in its Nineteenth year, and acknowledged not only as the best authority on all information pertaining to the islands that residents should know and strangers invariably ask, but the only reference book of Hawaiian statistics, and annual recorder of current and reminiscence events. There are homes probably in this land in which it is unknown, except by name, and there are numerous friends abroad to whom this publication would afford untold satisfaction for the fund of reliable information it imparts in its one hundred and fifty or more pages, with nothing of the "Guide Book" gush about it. Price per copy to any address in these islands, 75 cents; or mailed to any address in the Postal Union for 85 cents each,
