FOREIGN NOTES OF INTEREST.

An eleven-year-old daughter of Emin Pasha is being carefully educated in Europe. The Crown Princess of Sweden is trying to establish women photographers in Stockholm. Among the notables of Lucerne this summer is Mary Anderson Navarro, with a devoted husband in attendance. The tallest tree on earth is perhaps a gum tree, eucalyptus regnans, recently discovered in Australia. It is 415 feet high. Doing is the great thing. For if, resolutely, people do what is right, in time they come to like doing it.--Ruskin. The new program of public instruction adopted in France devotes more time to the study of English and less to the study of German. Some London music-hall shares, lately sold, show that business is good. The Tivoli sells at nearly 200, the Pavilion at 125 and the Empire at 350. Miss Amye Keade, a niece of the novelist, Charles Reade, has followed in the footsteps of her uncle to the extent of writing two novels, "Ruby" and "Zerma." The British Medical Association has at last admitted women as members. The principle was approved last year, and this year the by-law excluding women was formally expunged. Queen Victoria proposes to erect a cairn in memory of the marriage of the Duke of York. It will be in Scotland, near the one she erected in remembrance of the wedding of the Prince of Wales. A boy has been born in Falkirk from a seventeen-year-old mother of a family of laboring people. His grandmother is 34, his great grandmother 54, and his great-great grandmother 83. All are well. Baron Edmond de Rothschild's colony in Palestine shows such great promise of success that he has purchased more land. In accordance with the Baron's request, the colonists have all abandoned the use of Yiddish, and now speak nothing but Hebrew. There are 110 women lawyers in the United States, and eight of this number have earned the right to practice before the Supreme Court. To acquire this it is necessary to have practiced for three years at the bar, without a flaw in that career. Empress Elizabeth of Austria lately built, at an enormous cost, a magnificent marble villa at Corfu and christened it "L'Achilleion." Her majesty has made the following official to her will: "I wish to be interred at Corfu, near the river, so that the waves can continually break on my tomb." The largest family is that of the King of Siam. He has two official wives, 88 of the second class, and 72 children. He has 50 brothers and sisters and 226 uncles and aunts. They all board with the King, so that there are more than 200 cooks in the royal kitchen. The Prefecture of Police has established a Service of Identity, in order to identify released convicts. Since 1808 there have been 1,500 sentences recorded against men named Louis Lefevre, by which innumerable innocent Louis Lefevres have been brought into trouble. Another of Queen Victoria's oldest servants has just died. This time it is Mr. W. H. Gower, who was "yeoman of the silver pantry" at Windsor Castle. Yeoman Gower had been in the Queen's service for over half a century and was much esteemed by his mistress. It is to be feared that the Infanta has been spoiled by her taste of this land of the free, for she is reported as having a little lark in London. She has been living "incog" in a furnished house, riding in the park on a hired horse and shopping on foot. Her two small boys, Princes Louis and Alfonso, have been with her. Every year since Victor Hugo died, eight years ago, a fresh volume of his poems has appeared, so that it has become rather a standing joke. There will be, in all probability, similar volumes for years to come. Victor Hugo wrote an enormous lot of poetry which he never published; but it was preserved, and now his heirs are putting it out little by little. The German Government has arranged for a competition among German builders for the construction of a series of torpedo boats with a minimum speed of twenty-four knots. An important object of the competition is to determine the value of the tube boilers used by Thornycroft. The Shakespeare Reading Society is going to experiment with a Shakespearean play under the conditions it was written for. "Measure for Measure" will be acted on a stage built after the model of the sixteenth century. There will be no scenery. The costumes will be those of the day, and groups of spectators will flank the stage. Women who want to marry should turn their eyes toward Johannesburg, in South Africa. There are at least ten men to one woman there. Every moderately attractive woman marries inside of a few months after landing. It is impossible to keep servants or feminine employees of any sort. Typewriter, nurses, cooks, maids, gardeners all melt quickly away before the warmth of South African wooings.
