THE SMALL FARMER.

The one great domestic need of Hawaii is the small farm of the industrious white man. The frugal agriculturist of France is the mainstay of his country in thrift and virtue; and the same may be said of the yeomanry of England in his relation to the wealth of the British Isles and to the high moral character of their inhabitants.

Once upon a time the State of Illinois permitted a principality of its most fertile soil to fall into the hands of one Scully, an absentee landlord. He applied the rack-rent principle to his tenantry and employed the cheapest of cheap labor upon his lands.

Thomas Gay and Father Theodore were passengers by the Claudine. At last accounts Claus Spreckels was in Chicago after his hurried departure from Washington.

It is the wise policy of the Hawaiian Government to make these lands available and to induce immigration to them. As the leases expire they could be put on the market at a low price with an improvement proviso, whereat, we have no doubt, a large new population could be gathered from the States.

OUR Royalist friends proclaim that "all will be well" when Minister Willis arrives. Meantime the few natives and half whites who have an interest in politics begin to show impatience at prophecies that are all sail and no anchor.

THE appearance of the uniformed forces of the Hawaiian Government upon dress parade last Saturday was all that could have been desired by the peace-loving and property-owning people of Honolulu.

THE STAR is indebted to Messrs. A. G. M. Robertson and Arthur Wilder of the Myrtle boat club for many courtesies shown its representative on Saturday and at other times.

THE ex-Princess Kaulani has to day reached the age of eighteen, whereat the STAR proffers her the assurance of its distinguished consideration. May she have many happy returns of the day, and may she come to the knowledge that, in these times, when thrones totter and the people of the world are girding themselves for home rule, the post of honor is the private station.

men present, and was an assurance of good soldiery in time of need. Men of the most responsible class were numerous in the ranks, content to carry muskets and obey orders.

THE Australia should arrive at San Francisco to-morrow with a solution of what the papers have doubtless been calling the "Miowera Mystery."

THE sight of a blue uniform Saturday gave our conscience-smitten friends of the Holomua a touch of the friens.

MORE TROUBLE AT EWA.

Attempted Rescue of Prisoners From the Police.

Marshal Hitchcock and others under his department have had an eye on the Chinese and Japanese located at Ewa since the recent murder there, and it was determined long since to clean out the gang of Asiatic thieves, gamblers and cut-throats which have invested that vicinity.

When the officers were about to start with their prisoners, the big bell on the plantation was rung and in two or three minutes nearly every Chinese on the spot was on the scene, armed with stones, pick-handles, sticks and clubs of every description.

Our Esteemed Selves. The STAR's newspaper and job printing plant left San Francisco early in the month on the Aloha and is due to arrive here soon.

PERSONAL. Thomas Gay and Father Theodore were passengers by the Claudine.

At Washington Place. The hookupu and luau given at Mrs. Dominis in honor of Miss Cleghorn's eighteenth birthday is in progress as the STAR goes to press.
