

FROM BLOUNT'S REPORT.

ANOTHER CHAPTER OF GREAT INTEREST.

An Attempt to Get the ex-Queen Neumann to Bow to the Queen to Sell Her Claim.

The following is a chapter from Commissioner Blount's report, supplementing that which was presented this morning by the Advertiser. The series will be continued, alternately, by both the STAR and its morning contemporary:

HONOLULU, H. I., April 26, 1893.

Sir: On the 7th inst. the Albatross reached this place in the San Francisco. The following is a chapter from Commissioner Blount's report, supplementing that which was presented this morning by the Advertiser. The series will be continued, alternately, by both the STAR and its morning contemporary:

CHILDISH CONSPIRACIES.

A GATHERING AT LITTLE PETERSON'S HOUSE.

An Alleged Scheme to Settle Hilo and Establish a New Throne for ex-Queen Liliuokalani.

Judging from the rumors about this morning the royals have about given up the idea of any further assistance from Cleveland and are proceeding upon the principle that the Almighty helps those who help themselves. After reviewing the situation they have come to the conclusion, so it is said, that any efforts to upset the Provisional Government on the island of Oahu would be futile, and hence they have turned their attention elsewhere.

MUTINY IN THE SOUTH SEAS.

Details of the Trial of the Friends Who Seized the Nihoa.

From a late issue of the Call the following details of the mutiny on the schooner Nihoa, within a few days' sail of Ponape, are gathered, the account being taken from the testimony given at the recent trial of the mutineers in Brest: On the night the schooner seized the schooner Joseph Borique took the watch from 8 o'clock till midnight. He was joined by his brother, and the murderous work at once began. The captain, Zana, was stretched upon the deck asleep, and was shot and thrown overboard. The report of the pistol and the splash of the body of the captain in the sea aroused the supercargo Gibson and the cook Mirey. Borique called to Gibson to come on deck, and he was also shot and thrown overboard. A little later Mirey was summoned to come up and obeyed, trembling with fear, begging for his life and promising the brothers that he would keep the secret if his life was spared.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.

All the Churches Were Well Attended Yesterday.

Christmas services at the various churches yesterday were numerous, appropriate and well attended. At St. Andrew's cathedral the day commenced with a celebration of the Holy Communion by the Rev. Father, followed by the singing of the Gloria and the Te Deum. The floral decorations were magnificent and the singing grand, especially at the service of Dr. Mackintosh's congregation.

REGIMENTAL SURGEONS.

Dr. C. T. Rodgers, having resigned his position as regimental surgeon, has been succeeded by Dr. Cooper, who assumes the duties of the position with the rank of captain.

TROUSSEAU AND TRUTH.

WHERE THEY FAIL TO AGREE IN THEIR EVIDENCE.

Chief Justice Judd and Judge A. S. Hartwell deny Statements of His to Blount.

EDITOR STAR: Dr. Trousseau's statements to Mr. Blount, so far as they refer to me, are totally untrue. I never met any of the gentlemen named by him at Mr. Stevens' house. I never attended any meeting with the gentlemen named or with any others at Stevens' house or at any other place, where annexation was discussed.

I do not consider that Love my "social and pecuniary position" to the "anti-annexation" cause. I have received a handsome income from my practice at the bar—greater than my salary as Second Associate Justice, which was my first appointment.

GEN. HARTWELL'S DENIALS.

EDITOR STAR:—When Dr. Trousseau, in his statement to Blount and letter to Nordhoff says that "meetings were held at Mr. Stevens' house in which the possibility of a peaceful revolution was discussed," and that "prominent at these meetings were the Chief Justice, Gen. Dole, Mr. Thurston, Mr. Hartwell, Chas. Carter and others, also Capt. Wilcox," Dr. Trousseau says, as far as I am concerned, that which is untrue.

The Cannells will not leave Kahului until after January 2d, as her cargo will not be completed until then.

Al. Smith, the new purser of the Kilauea Hou, had a good ducking at Panauhau last week by falling off the gang plank. Al hasn't got his sea legs yet.

The schooner Mary E. Foster discharged her cargo of Imahua sugar into the bark Bryant to-day and the steamer Makee placed her cargo into the Irregular.

The steamship Miowera's trial cruise on Saturday proved satisfactory and its departure for the Coast is now awaiting only the arrival of Commander Stott who is expected on the steamship Arawa which is now due. No coal has been taken on board for the expected trip as yet. The steamer is docked at Oceanic wharf.

Chief Officer Louis Johnson, of the steamer James Makee, had his arm dislocated while horseback riding at Hanalei on Sunday. He was brought back to his rooming on the steamer and is at present in the hospital under skillful treatment, for, although not serious, the injury is such that it will take some time before it is healed.

CALLED ON MRS. DOMINIS.

AND SHE MADE HIM HER ERRAND BOY.

W. H. Cornwall Calls on Liliuokalani and She Sends Him With a Letter to Joe Carter.

It is well known that there is a split in the Royalist camp over the fact that Mrs. Dominis has of late entirely ignored the so-called members of her late Cabinet and instead has relied on the counsels of Joe Carter. Among those who have felt quite hurt over this dereliction of her late Majesty is W. H. Cornwall, Bantam Billy of Bilgewater.

"If she wants any advice, why don't she come to her Ministers for it," has been often said by Cornwall and others.

The story is now going the rounds that Billy Cornwall was so worked up over the matter that he called on Mrs. Dominis to demonstrate with her about it. She received him very courteously and kindly and sometime was spent in conversation, but whenever Cornwall commenced to discuss the political situation she turned the conversation in other channels. At last Billy gave it up in disgust and prepared to leave. As he was going out Mrs. Dominis asked him if he would kindly deliver a note for her. He said he would be only too happy. When he got outside and read the superscription he found it was addressed to Joe Carter, and immediately the atmosphere in the vicinity grew blue and sulphurous.

ANOTHER CONCERT.

The Misses Albu Will sing for Kawaihau Church.

The Misses Albu, assisted by local talent, have generously announced their intention to give a concert on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Kawaihau Church. That the Misses Albu will be repaid for their kindness by a full house was shown at an early hour this morning, when the demand for tickets was great. The programme, as advertised, will comprise fine selections, the management putting forth a bill to please all. Sacred, classical, ballad and native airs are included. Intending patrons can secure their seats at L. J. Levy's, who has tickets of admission for all parts of the building.
