It is hoped the seal design competition will not result in the adoption of an extravagant or freaky stamp for state documents.

A PRACTICABLE road over the Pali means more trade for Honolulu and rapid settlement of the fertile and healthy Koolau district.

It is an organ of the G. A. R. that suggests the 100,000 blue and gray veterans who attended the recent encampment in the South succeeded in stamping out the Mason and Dixon line.

FILIBUSTERS have been forgotten and the only "music in the air" now is the sound of the carpenter's hammer and the stone-mason's pounding.

THE Salvation Army people, most of whom are constantly undergoing self-denial, ask their friends to join them for a week of moderate deprivation in the interest of the evangelical work now being prosecuted so successfully in so many sections of the world.

AN American exchange says it is to be hoped that a position was given to the young man who, to the civil service question, "How near is the moon to the earth?" answered "I don't know; but it is not near enough to seriously interfere with an honest and faithful discharge of duty, when I get a clerkship."

In a city note the other day, THE STAR mentioned the praise of a traveler for the beautiful palm avenue at the Queen's Hospital.

OUR friends of the Japanese colony are inclined to raise merry cain over the failure of a steamer to bring them a mail.

THIS Hilo Tribune will be expected for a time to have an amateurish cast. The "independent" paper, "espousing the cause of neither (no?) faction, yet reserving the right of criticizing the government or officials," is of course, a myth.

It is seriously claimed by the Philadelphia Times that Mr. Cleveland will go into history as the greatest of American Presidents.

In his well-considered and spirited address at the American League hall, A. B. Lobenstein struck several key-notes. He speaks by the card when he tells of the uniform success of the small farmer in Hawaii and of the attractions for capital.

A FRAUD EXPOSED.

An alleged newspaper here called the Evening Bulletin, the wreck and remains of a publication that was once fairly successful, has been singing in a quite loud tone lately.

THE purpose of these lines is to expose the Evening Bulletin as a fraud and worse. The evidence is at this office and will be shown readily to any owner, agent, editor or reporter of the Evening Bulletin or to any other person interested.

With the exhilarating sense of renewed health and strength and internal cleanliness, which follows the use of Syrup of Figs, is unknown to the few who have not progressed beyond the old time medicine and the cheap and worthless pills offered but never accepted by the well informed.

Miss Ella M. Friend of Nahua, N. H., spent several weeks at one of America's famous seaside resorts. She went in bathing and got sunburned. After returning home and using

Hind's Honey and almond Cream, she writes:

"I am a member, wife, of the organization of the Fifty-second congress the senator one day walked over to the house and proceeded to go by the doorkeepers.

"No, sir," said the Mississippi gravely. "I am a member, wife, of the United States senate, and I wish to see Representative Kluge," said.

"This doorkeeper was one of Ieman Tarnor's appointees, who had cultivated a grim sense of humor which he was in the habit of exploiting at the expense of men with idiosyncrasies. He promptly replied:

"Representative Kluge," said. "Is not upon the list?"

"No, sir," said the Mississippi gravely. "I am a member, wife, of the United States senate, and I wish to see Representative Kluge," said.

The young man we want must have style enough about him to buy one of those beautiful Stearn's Combination Tandems.

A large number of young ladies in this city are now able to ride wheels, and one of our young men's best girls must be among the number, and he should take her on Saturday afternoons and moonlight evenings for a spin on the "Yellow Fellow."

He must also arrange with the ambulance wagon to follow him and pick up those who "die from envy."

Just think a Combination Tandem weighs only 44 pounds, and a Diamond Frame Tandem weighs only 39 pounds. A year or two ago single wheels weighed 50 pounds as a rule.

Combination Tandems are for ladies who say bloomers are "horrid things" and they won't wear them. Diamond Frames are for the other kind.

Up to this time there has been but one Stearn's wheel in this town, and this was brought by a gentleman who says he rode it from San Francisco to Los Angeles and return, and did not have any repairing to do on the round trip, or after he got back.

From now on there will be plenty of these wheels in Honolulu, for a wheel that is popular as this is, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, cannot fail to please here.

Any one wanting a wheel will do well to call on us, those who who think they do not want one will change their minds soon after seeing our fine line. Call and see the "Yellow Fellow."
