THE HAWAIIAN STAR MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1897.

No. 1293

Timely Topics.

June 5, 1897.

Have you one or more cows? What is your object in keeping them? What is their product? Do they pay you and how much? Are you dairying for profit and do you wish to increase this profit, with greater satisfaction and some pleasure as well?

No subject in connection with dairying is receiving more attention, or is apparently more needful of same, than that of the harmful bacteria and disease creating germs existing in milk or capable of development in it. This is especially true of the tuberculin or consumptive germs, the appallingly dangerous importance of which is rapidly becoming more generally apparent.

It is found that the centrifugal separator, and particularly the "Alpha" milk dividing disc system now used in the DE LAVAL machine, gathers and holds in the bowl of the separator practically all the filth, fibrous and feculent matters contained in the milk, including the bacteria germs, and it is certain that this feature in the "Alpha" disc is of the most importance.

The "HUMMING BIRD" or No. 0, the smallest of the De Laval Cream Separators, possesses all the advantages of the larger styles of the "Alpha" machines, and is designed for popular household and small dairy use, from the family buying its milk and wishing to turn part of it into cream or butter as wanted, to the private family or farmer having less than 6 to 8 cows. Its capacity is 175 pounds.

A larger size is the IMPROVED "BABY" No. 2, intended for dairies of from 5 to 10 or 20 cows; and often used in larger ones. Its capacity is 350 pounds.

Among the many advantages to be derived from the use of the De Laval Separator are: Betterment of quality, saving from 20 to 50 per cent. of cream saving of skim milk and saving of time, labor and plant.

We are disposing of these at a considerable reduction on former prices, so as to place every dairy farmer in a position to possess one.

We have also CYLINDER CHURNS in four sizes, from $2.50 upwards.

ANNEXATION PROSPECTS

JUDGE HARTWELL REVIEWS THE PRESENT SITUATION.

Democratic Senators Vote Against Republican Tariff, But Strongly Favor Annexation.

It is not unlikely that Congress, in the discussion of Hawaiian tariff and treaty matters will find that a majority in each House regard the annexing of Hawaii as the most satisfactory solution of all questions. Undoubtedly there are Democratic Senators and members who, while bound to vote against any Republican tariff bill, are in favor of annexation. For this reason, a vote upon the treaty clause in the tariff bill would not show the full strength of the annexation party.

Public opinion on the subject divides itself on the following lines. On the one hand, there are those who believe that the United States ought to rely solely on moral grounds for the enlargement and maintenance of its foreign commerce, and for the protection of the persons and property of its citizens in foreign countries. In their opinion, nothing but entanglements with foreign countries, involving a big navy and constantly increasing army budget can come from any other policy. They scout the notion that England, Japan, or any other power will do anything aggressive to the United States, either within its own borders, or by acquiring influence or territory in Hawaii. They believe that there will not be the slightest difficulty in carrying out the traditional policy of "hands off" concerning Hawaii, and at the same time of avoiding the annexation policy and all the evils which they think that such policy would sooner or later involve.

It is not, in their opinion, a question of the constitutionality of annexing Hawaii; nor of the Hawaiian population, laws, and institutions easily adapting themselves to American laws and institutions; but solely a question of foreign policy. On the other hand, there are those who, while disclaiming the epithet of Jingos, and denying that they are less conservative in their views than are their opponents, regard the United States as bound to take its place with the great powers in the world's affairs. They do not propose to meddle with European questions or with anything but American interests. They do not think that a good foreign commerce can successfully be sought by the United States in any other way than it is sought and secured by all great commercial nations, and that is by showing to citizens of the United States that wherever they make investments or enter into business ventures abroad, there they will find the flag of their country with ample naval power to enforce their rights and just demands, and prevent encroachment upon the same. If all this involves a larger navy, they do not shrink from the responsibility. This means a foreign policy which accords with the natural aspirations of American citizens. They point out that the opposite course means a foreign policy, but one which is productive of nothing but to narrow and confined American industry and enterprise. "Noblesse oblige," they say is their maxim for a nation as well as for an individual. It remains to be seen which policy will prevail, the active or the inactive.

KAMEHAMEHA RACE DAY

SKETCH OF HORSES ENTERED FOR COMPETITION.

Promise of Some Good Racing on the Midsummer Holiday—True Sport to Be Seen at Kapiolani Park.

Fourteen runners, nine pacers, and five mules will participate in the Thirtieth Annual Race Meet of the Hawaiian Jockey Club.

Aside from the bicycle events, there will be six races on Friday and five on Saturday. The most important races are down for Kamehameha Day, and include the Honolulu purse, Merchants' Purse, Irwin Cup, Widemann Cup, Oceanic Steamship Company's Cup, with a purse of $150 added, and the Kapiolani Park purse. The rules that will govern the races are those of the National Trotting Association and the Blood Horse Association.

The animals training for the races, without a single exception, are showing up well.

Foremost among the runners is W. H. Cornwell's Lord Brock. This splendid animal seems to be a general favorite this year.

Billy C is another of Mr. Cornwell's animals that will try for honors in some of the running events. Billy C probably enjoys a better reputation with the Honolulu sporting fraternity than any of this year's aspirants. He has won laurels for his owner on numerous occasions, including the Kala-kana Cup. He was defeated in a match race last July by Antidote. Billy C has done a half mile competition in 50 1/2 seconds.

A 3-year old filly and a true Briton, at that, concludes Mr. Cornwell's entries. This animal has never started before. The Cornwell string is being housed at the Spreckels barn.

Annexation, 2 years old, by Amorino out of Queen L. will be entered by Mr. Daniel, and is regarded as a dark horse.

George Roderick's Antidote will start.

Halstead Brothers will bring a string of four horses. Confederate, who won the Oceanic Cup last year; Magnet, good for all distances and a winner of one or two important races; X Ray, a 2-year old bay, and Meardo, a 4-year old maiden. Magnet seems to be the strongest of the quartet, at least the owners bank their faith on her. It will be Meardo's first start. X Ray will run a match race during the meet with a 2-year old in charge of Mr. David.

The Duke of Norfolk, Amorrant and Amethyst are Colonel Z. S. Spalding's horses, brought down from Kealia. The Duke of Norfolk has made a mile and a half in 2:46. Amethyst is a 7-year old and won the mile dash last year in 1:48.

Gus Schuman's entries are Vernon, a chestnut gelding, holding several trophies for races won on the Bay District track in California, and Sympathetic Lost, a brown gelding, a recent importation from the Coast.

Cunningham's gray mare, Gladys, with a record of 2:29 1/2, is believed to be among the speediest of the pacing animals. The mare defeated Tom Hollinger's mare, Margaret, in a match race last week.

Watermelon Joe, owned by Dr. Shaw has a record of 2:34 1/2.

Billy Norton's roan pacer will make her first start. The animal was recently brought from the Coast. She will keep company with the 2:35 class.

Ralph, also owned by Mr. Norton, will enter the 2:30 class.

Johanne Goldsmith belongs to Cecil Brown and will try for honors in the 2:35 class.

Billy Button, owned by John Humberg, is well acquainted with the Honolulu sporting public. He has gone a mile in 2:32 1/2.

Irish Lassie, belonging to Lincoln McCandless, has been in training a month and may be a starter.

Captain Tripp, Captain Cloney, and Theo. Hoffman are the judges, W. F. Love and James Torbett the timers, Edward Dowsett, clerk of the course, and Charles Wilson the starter.

Budget of News from Maui—Plantation Finishes Grinding for the Season—Kula Still in Need of Water.

Maui, June 5, 1897.

The kahuna case occupied the Court in Wailuku all day Thursday and all day yesterday, going to the jury about 9 o'clock last night. After being out three hours, they brought in a verdict of guilty, standing nine to three. This morning the Judge fined the prisoner $150. The sentence was made light, owing to the efforts of Antone Rosa, who made a strong plea for the prisoner.

The Court is occupied this morning by a liquor selling case against J. T. Atull and J. P. Sylva, that has been hanging fire since the 4th of July last. Night sessions have been held every evening, that of Thursday being taken up with divorce cases.

Paia plantation finished grinding, as expected, this morning, and when all their sugar is dried off, the total crop will reach 6225 tons. Haiku Sugar Company has about two weeks yet to run.

High winds and dust clouds have prevailed most of the week. Last night copious showers of rain fell in Lahaina, Wailuku, Makawao, and Hana, laying the dust and making things fresher. Kula, as usual, was passed by.

The barkentine Planter, Dow master, towed to sea this morning with a full cargo of Paia and Haiku sugar.

FOR THE NATIONAL GUARD

ELECTION OF OFFICERS TO BE HELD SHORTLY.

Candidates Foreshadowed—Lieutenant Colonel Fisher to be Colonel—Major McLeod for Lieutenant Colonel.

President Dole Commander in Chief of the Military force of Hawaii, has just issued an order designating the evening of June 19 for a meeting of the officers of the National Guard of Hawaii.

The business that will be brought before the officers is the election of a colonel of the National Guard to succeed Colonel R. H. McLean, who tendered his resignation some months ago.

It has been practically settled among the military that Lieutenant Colonel J. H. Fisher shall be advanced to the vacancy; that Major George F. McLeod of the First Battalion, shall be made lieutenant colonel. The vacancy that will occur by Major McLeod's promotion is still left open, and it is difficult to say who will be honored.

Captain Charles McCarthy of Company D has been mentioned for the majorship, and he may be decided upon. It is certain that he would be very acceptable. Captain McCarthy's fitness for this important post in the military cannot be questioned. He is recognized by his brother officers as one of the best informed men on military tactics in the Regiment.

The name of Major J. W. Pratt is also mentioned in this connection.

While the friends of Captain E. O. White are anxious to see him promoted in recognition of the valuable services which he has rendered the military, they fear Company B's welfare in the event of such a change.

Major J. Walter Jones of the Second Battalion will be the senior major of the National Guard, should the above plan be carried out.

Captain Zeigler of Company F, regulars, is the senior captain of the National Guard, and Captain J. M. Camara, Jr., of Company C, is the oldest volunteer captain.

TWENTY-FIVE PER POUND

SHIPMENT OF KONA COFFEE BROUGHT THIS FIGURE.

Hackfeld & Company Make the First Shipment of Hawaiian Coffee to Sydney by the Alameda.

The coffee growers of this country will be happy when they learn that a recent shipment of Kona coffee sold on the San Francisco market at a much higher price than has been known for sometime.

By the sailing vessel Aloha, which left Honolulu for San Francisco in April, H. Hackfeld & Company shipped 250 bags of Kona coffee, extra prime. The coffee has gone through the new mill recently started and was placed on the open market.

The figure it brought was 25 cents a pound. This is four and five cents higher than the usual quotation. The Hackfeld firm believe that the advance was largely due to the cleaning, assorting and polishing of the coffee done by the new mill.

At the time the Aloha shipment was made Hackfeld & Company sent samples of the same coffee to Sydney, and to the house of Liggett & Company of New York. An order for 250 bags was received from Sydney. This shipment was made by the Alameda on Friday and is the first coffee ever sent from these islands to New Zealand for commercial trade. The price paid was on a basis of 25 cent a pound in San Francisco.

Liggett & Company have not been heard from as yet.

The meeting of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association has been full of interest. Many of the native pastors will return to their home this week.
