"INJUN ROBBER TIRES."

Bicycle dealers sometimes receive amusing letters. The one we present indicates that the writer would like a pair of our great G. & J. tires, though he don't seem to know them by name—

"Dear Sirs—I live on my coffee farm near Hilo Hawaii, am 57 years old and just a little sports. My nephew in Honolulu bot his-self a new bisicle and sent me his old one by frate, and ive learned to ride same. Its a pile of fun, but mi bisicle jolts considerable. A feller come along yesterday with a bisicle that had holler injun robber tires stuffed with wind. He let me try hissen, and mi, it run like a kushin. He told me you sell injun robber tires just the same as hissen. How much will it be to fix mine up like hissen? Mine is all iron wheels. Do you punch the holler hole through the injun robber, or will I have to do it myself? How do you stick the ends together after it is done? If your injun robber is already holler will it come any cheaper empty? I can get all the wind I want up here free. How much do you charge for the doodad you stuff the wind into the robber with and where do you start? If you will rite me about u I this you will much oblige."

We have written to him all about the G. & J. tires, but have advised him not to put any on his "all iron wheels," but to buy a RAMBLER or a COLUMBIA, 1897 model, which sell now at $75 and $85 and have the "injun robber tires all stuffed with wind" already on.

He won't pay a hundred for any wheel when he can get these wheels at above named prices.
