HIS FATE IN THE STARS
ASTROLOGERS DRAW KING ALFONSO'S HOROSCOPE.
He will die in Exile or Prison. Is Afflicted by a Sesquiquadrate of the Moon.

The horoscope of the infant King Alfonso shows a boy fit to wear the crown that awaited his birth, says the astrologist of the Chicago Times Herald. The human sign Virgo rises with Mars and Jupiter on the ascendant, and the Sun in conjunction with Neptune, less than eight degrees from the midheaven. This position of Mars makes the little Alfonso a natural soldier, and a defiant, daring, reckless one, but Virgo is a very diplomatic sign, and so he will not lack caution and discretion. The influence of Jupiter in his "house of life" makes him as generous as he is daring and the position and aspect of the sun make him popular and beloved worthy of the confidence and loyalty of his subjects.

It is difficult to associate this young King's horoscope with the atrocities of the butcher Weyler. He is also superior in mentality, being what we term "long headed" and foresighted. He is quick and alert in intellect, although very obstinate and persistent in his views. In some things he is phenomenally bright; he memorizes without an effort, and mathematics is an easy study for him. But his greatest gifts are his intuition, which amounts almost to clairvoyance, and his ability to read character. He possesses wonderful analytical powers to dissect the motive of others. So marked are these latter characteristics that if Alfonso XIII were the King of Spain in fact to day he would be able to cope single handed and alone with the President, the Cabinet and Congress, and would no doubt be able to head them all off by his finesse, which is remarkably strong. Emotionally he is weak, very weak.

His destiny on the whole seems to be to hold the throne until he occupies it in fact, as he does now in name, but it will eventually be wrenched from him and no direct descendant of his will ever occupy it. Across the destinies of his kingdom is written, as in Babylon of old, "Mene, mene, theckel, upharsin," and his fate is sealed.

Saturn alone occupies the "house of honor," and he is afflicted by a square of Uranus, and a sesquiquadrate of the moon. His kingdom was a house divided against itself before his birth, his foes are those of his own household, and treachery besets his life from the cradle to the grave. Ecclesiastical power protects him thus far; he and his Government will have this support as long as they are faithful and obedient allies.

He will die on the water, either as he is being carried into exile or in trying to escape from imprisonment.
SAVED BY PRAYER.
New York Herald: Silas Hill, a farmer in Metuchen, N. J., believes in prayer. His barn was burning and the flames, driven by a strong wind, were fast approaching his house. In the presence of a throng of neighbors, the farmer knelt and prayed that the wind would change. Fifty trustworthy men assert that almost instantly the wind veered around, driving the flames in another direction.

Mr. Hill is 68 years old and well off. He is religious and of strong faith. His barn caught fire, and the farmer nearly lost his life in trying to rescue his live stock. A strong breeze was blowing directly toward the house, which was in momentary danger of catching fire. With head uncovered, the farmer fell on his knees and prayed fervently that the course of the wind be changed by divine interference. Every man stood with bared head. As he finished his prayer there was a shout from the bystanders. The wind had died out. There was a brief calm, then another breeze came, but from a different direction and the house was safe.

FOLLOWED THEIR ADVICE.
"I broke out with great blotches on my face, and friends told me my blood was out of order and that I ought to take a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla. I followed their advice and from that time to this I have not had any eruptions on my face. I know Hood's is a good medicine."—Mrs. A. E. Radkey, St. Louis, Michigan.
