Hawaiian Electric Company.

The cleanest, brightest and really, in the long run, the cheapest and best light for use in the family residence, is the incandescent electric light. Safe; nothing could be safer. A few days ago a prominent gentleman of Honolulu came rushing down to the office of the Electric Company and said: "Give me figures for wiring my house, and I want it done at once; no more lamps for me. Last night a lamp slipped over and it came so near setting fire to the house and burning my children and I take no more risks."
This is the sentiment of quite a number in the past few weeks, who have ordered their houses fitted with the perfect light.
Just think it over and make up your mind that you want the best and safest light; send for the Hawaiian Electric Company and tell them what you want.

We have a complete stock of everything in this line and have just received a lot of the very latest designs in chandeliers

Are You Poisoning Yourself?

You might make a single meal of rich pies and cakes, and not mind it. But you could not live on these all the time without ruining your digestion.
Yet, week after week and month after month, you allow your brain and nerves to be fed with impure blood.
The general debility, thin blood, pale cheeks, nervousness, loss of appetite and depression of spirits, are long warnings from nature. Your nervous system is weakening. Before the ruin comes take

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

It removes the poisons from the blood, and thus removes the cause of all your trouble. It aids the digestion, strengthens the nerves and supplies the body with rich, red blood.

For constipation take AYER'S PILLS. They promptly and surely cure. Take them with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; one aids the other.

THE BOY ALPHONSO XIII.

MARQUISE DE FORTENAY TELLS OF HIS WAYS.

Is a Delicate Child but Carefully Reared, Gentle and Dignified—Something of His Daily Life.

Alphonso XIII is adored by his mother the queen regent, Christina of Hapsburg, and by his magnificent grandmother, Archduchess Elizabeth. He is idolized by his sisters, the infantas. When on the opening of the cortes, he drives into Madrid in his golden coach drawn by six mules, seated at his mother's side, her majestic superb in her diadem and white veil, the people show enthusiastic loyalty.

Opinions differ as to whether the king bears a family likeness to the Bourbons and the Hapsburgs. There are those who aver that he strongly resembles the sons of Charles IV. I have seen the king but for a moment at a time, yet I was at once impressed by his striking likeness to his late father. His only too apparent nervousness, notwithstanding a look of resolution, of intrepidity, pervades his countenance, which is the more engaging because it is enhanced by an expression born of genuine lightness of heart.

Alphonso is reared on principles strictly hygienic. His dress, his food, his walks, his gymnastic drills, his very games, are a stern study. He spends his boyhood in an atmosphere of ease, of soothing isolation. By 10 o'clock at night he is in bed, and he is up and out of doors by 8 in the morning. Astride horse or wheel he is in buoyant spirits, and in his precocity applies himself to his studies with gravity beyond his years. He speaks Spanish, English and French, and is mastering the rudiments of Latin and German. For modern history and natural science he has a decided predilection. On attaining his 10th year several professors were appointed in charge of his schooling. To the teachings of these able men—for they are the pick of the profession in things elementary—he does full credit. In a word, his conduct is exemplary.

I must not let a characteristic anecdote escape me illustrative of the royal boy's precocious powers. One of his tutors, moralizing on the evils of flattery, told him that kings in particular should be on their guard against the silver toned voice of the flatterer. They were out riding together a few days later, when the tutor went into ecstasies over the boy's equestrian skill. Alphonso turned in his saddle and called his monitor to task with: "Pray remember, sir, what you cautioned me against. I know how badly I ride."

Alphonso will come to the throne, if the dynasty stands the storm, on reaching his 16th year. Thousands despair of his attaining manhood, but then the sanguine argue that, although of delicate constitution, the monarch is admirably matured and his health meanwhile is good. In support of this view the young duke of Cilia is taken as an example. In infancy he was puny, and his life was despaired of, his parents having been cursed with hereditary disease but the duke, through paying strict attention to hygiene, escaped the inheritance. From court circles at Madrid and Vienna is the mournful intelligence that the girl archduchess, Natalie, who died in her teens at Presburg, in Hungary, quite recently, and who was cousin-german to Alphonso, was destined by her parents to become Alphonso's wife. She was a sweet and gifted child, for whom her paternal aunt, the queen regent, entertained a deep affection.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURES.

E. Burton Holmes Expected Here by the Next Steamer.

E. Burton Holmes who has achieved success and popularity in the States by a series of descriptive lectures illustrated by original colored motion pictures projected by the chronomastograph, is expected to arrive in Honolulu by the next steamer. His object in coming is to gather material for an illustrated lecture on the Hawaiian Islands. While he is here he will probably give one or more lectures in Honolulu on other lands that he has visited.

The Boston Traveler of a recent date thus speaks of him.
"The success which has attended Mr. Burton Holmes' lectures has been a surprise even to himself. For a young man he has reached a position which excites envy as well as admiration, and he has the field practically to himself. It was in 1893 that he made the modest beginning which decided his career. From a boy he had been interested in photography, and from his paternal relatives he inherited a taste for travel. As a member of the Camera Club he contributed interesting talks about them, and was advised to make that line of work a paying one. Finally reverses forced him into a business career in his native city, Chicago, but it was distasteful to him, and then for the first time he was tempted to try his fortune as a lecturer."

Bad management keeps more people in poor circumstances than any other one cause. To be successful one must look ahead and plan ahead so that when a favorable opportunity presents itself he is ready to take advantage of it. A little forethought will also save much expense and valuable time. A prudent and careful man will keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, the shiftless fellow will wait until necessity compels it and then ruin his best horse going for a doctor and have a big doctor bill to pay, besides; one pays 25 cents, the other is out a hundred dollars, and then wonders why his neighbor is getting richer while he is getting poorer. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., wholesale agents for the Hawaiian Islands. All druggists and dealers.

TO RIDE OR NOT TO RIDE!

That is the question.

Whether it is nobler in man to bark his shins, disfigure his features in learning to mount the untamed steed, or to take up arms against a score of cycling friends, and, by refusing to adopt their favorite sport, exile himself forever from their graces:

Our answer would be
Ride a Rambler
or Columbia,
and wheel away from all the ill-fated flesh is heir to.
