WANT TO HEAR THEM TALK

ANNEXATION CLUB TO GREET THE COMMISSION.

The Proposed Outing Down the Railroad Tended by the Chamber of Commerce—Departure.

There is some talk of a mass meeting to be held under the auspices of the Annexation Club before the Commissioners leave. There is a very general desire on the part of the members of the club and the public generally to hear Senator Morgan, Senator Cullom and Congressman Hitt speak on the topics of the day and the future of the territory of Hawaii, as well as to show the Commissioners the full strength of the Annexation Club's membership. If the Commissioners conclude to remain until the 23rd, as seems likely at this writing, there is every likelihood that a meeting will be arranged.

The reception tendered by the Chamber of Commerce will probably take the form of a trip down the railroad with a stop at Eva mill and the plantation, but this also depends on the wishes of the Commissioners and the time of their departure.

Senator Cullom said at the hotel this afternoon: "We discussed the matter of our departure at this morning's session and definitely concluded to leave by the Gaelic on the 23rd. While we were all particularly anxious to get away sooner, still we none of us wanted to leave feeling that we had left any portion of our work undone. As we have now concluded to remain until the 23rd, we shall be able to finish up our business nicely, and at the same time accept some of the many courtesies that have been tendered us."

MAY DEVELOP INTO MURDER.

There was a cutting scrape on Hotel street last night between two Japanese, one of whom stabbed the other four times in the head with a pocket knife. The man's wounds were dressed by the police surgeon and he was sent home. He is now under the care of a Japanese doctor, and this morning symptoms of blood poisoning set in. His assailant is under arrest but no charge will be preferred until it is seen how his victim comes out of the trouble.

ACCIDENT AT HANA.

Portuguese Killed and Mangled Under a Moving Train.

Maui, September 9. A frightful accident occurred at Hana, on the plantation railroad yesterday afternoon, in which a Portuguese laborer lost his life. The man was standing on a moving car, and fell between the same and another car, and part of the engine passed over him before the train could be stopped. He must have been instantly killed, as he was horribly mangled. A coroner's jury returned a verdict of death by his own carelessness.

A HUNG JURY.

After a trial lasting fifteen days the jury in the Lucas-Perry case has disagreed. They returned into court at 3 o'clock on Saturday, after an absence of three hours, stating that they were hopelessly divided, standing 6 for plaintiff and 6 for defendant, whereupon Judge Stanley discharged them.

MAUI SOCIAL EVENTS.

Maui, September 9. Mrs. F. W. Hardy of Makawao gave a delightful "military tea" to the ladies of Makawao district on Wednesday afternoon last. The Stars and Stripes prevailed, and the eighteen ladies present spent a very enjoyable afternoon. A picnic party gotten up by S. R. Dowdle and C. W. Baldwin spent a very pleasant day yesterday at Halehaku gulch.

WHITNEY ON THE RACES

HIGHLY COMMENDS THE "FORM" SHOWN.

Healanis Win a Victory in a Race Which Compares With Club Racing on the Mainland.

"I was surprised and gratified to see the form exhibited," said Casper Whitney, the well known authority on amateur sports, in speaking of the Saturday boat races. "Of course, I saw only the finish and not the whole race. But in every way it compared favorably with club racing in the United States and with that of the colleges of the middle west. There was a good deal of splashing in the earlier part of the race, as there nearly always is in races of that length. But at the finish the rowing was clean and smooth. One of the crews, I am not familiar enough with them to say which, had a better grip and were stronger in the 'catch,' the beginning of the stroke, than the other, and that is considered the better form. Their boat also moved better between strokes, which is the crucial test. I went to enjoy the races and not to watch them critically, and I must say I enjoyed them, and was surprised to find such excellence and such a healthy spirit in sport."

With a magnificent burst of speed in the last quarter, that was all the more admirable from the immense reserve power it displayed, the Healanis senior boat crew shot past the final stakes and to victory, half a boat length ahead of the Myrtles.

It was a dashing finish to a clean, hard rowed race, the 1,500 people said at Pearl Harbor Saturday afternoon in the great boating event of the year.

The three crews got off well together, and rowed an even stroke. Before the half mile stake was reached, the Leilanis were practically out of the race, though they gamely rowed over the course. The Myrtles and the Healanis rowed an even course with a 32 stroke, the Healanis if anything the steeper and cleaner. At the three-quarters stake the Myrtles were slightly in the lead. Then Klebahn, the Healanis stroke, started the spurt that won the victory. It seemed so easy, so smooth, so indicative of conscious reserve power, that it challenged the admiration of every lover of sport, no matters where his sympathies were in the race. The Myrtles tried to spurt, but were unable to overcome the odds against them, although they held the winning distance down to half a boat's length.

The time was 10:05:2-5 and 10:05:4-5.

The junior race was started promptly after the senior race. Only the Myrtles and Healanis entered. The race was a decided surprise, the Healanis winning by at least five lengths, the race being practically over at the three-quarters stake. The time was 10:14:2-5 and 10:28:2-5, lowering the record of last year.

The arrangements and management of the races were excellent. Larsen's launch was put at the service of the officials. The starting judges were H. W. Whitney, Jr., starter; A. W. Carter and W. Molnery. Timekeepers, Chris Willis, Louis Marks and A. C. Brook. At the finish the judges were Captain C. J. Campbell and Captain Parker; timekeepers, F. S. Dodge and J. L. Torbert.

The railroad arrangements were excellent, the Oahu railroad providing ample accommodations and bringing the crowds promptly to the grounds, and as promptly back.

By this victory the cup is put in competition for at least two years longer, and interest in the sport is renewed. All Saturday evening the Healanis and their partisans were riding around town in hacks ornamented with brooms and ribbons and other insignia of victory.

The Myrtles and their partisans took defeat like true lovers of sport, freely conceding the qualities in their opponents that won the victory.

The crews in the senior race were: Healanis—F. W. Klebahn, stroke; D. Raneer, 3; H. Williams, 2; C. C. Rhodes, bow; Maurice Damon, coxswain.

Myrtle—George H. Angus, stroke; L. P. Scott, 3; P. Lishman, 2; H. A. Giles, bow; A. A. Wilder, coxswain.

In the Junior race the crews were: Healanis—Paul Jarrett, Jr., stroke; G. J. Bolise, 3; J. T. Waterhouse, 2; W. F. Williams, Jr., bow; D. L. Conkling, coxswain.

Myrtle—R. Ross, stroke; D. Vida, 3; A. Harris, 2; George Martin, bow; A. A. Wilder, coxswain.

NATIVES AGAIN DIVIDED

THE KALAIAINA STILL OUT FOR RESTORATION.

Opposition Meetings of Hawaiian to Come Off This Evening—Hawaiian National League Ready to Act.

The Hui Kalaiaina are out for restoration of the monarchy. They want the queen restored and they want the old order of things restored. To this end they have called a mass meeting of natives at Palace square this evening at 7:30 for the purpose of hearing the speeches made by the delegates appointed from the other islands. Resolutions asking for the restoration of Liliuokalani will be read at the meeting and submitted to the approval of those present. When accepted a committee is to be appointed to present the resolutions to the commissioners. The speeches of the evening will be by E. L. Liliuokalani, John L. Richardson, R. W. Wilcox, D. Kalaokalani, J. K. Kaunamano and William White.

The memorial to the Commission prepared by the Hawaiian National League is finished and is to be submitted to the members at a meeting called at S. K. Ka-ne's office this evening at 7:30. The memorial will be read to the meeting and a committee appointed to present it to the Commission.

THEY VISITED MOLOKAI.

Incidents Connected With the Trip of the Commissioners.

Senator Cullom and Congressman Hitt of the Annexation Commission, accompanied by Attorney General W. O. Smith, M. H. Blumenberg, A. S. Berry, Jr., D. A. Ray, J. C. Ridgeway, H. L. McNair, Drs. F. R. Day, C. B. Wood, M. C. Ashley, U. S. A.; E. J. Barrett, U. S. A.; C. E. Davis, U. S. A.; D. Dickerson, U. S. N.; H. E. Odell, U. S. N.; H. L. Hays, H. B. Gehr, E. A. Bush, J. W. Kalua, Charles Wilcox and Dr. Oliver, left on Saturday night at 10 o'clock on the steamer Mikahala for the leper settlement.

The party were fortunate in having smooth water both ways. They landed at Kalaupapa on Sunday morning at 7 o'clock and visited the Girls' Home, Baldwin Home for Boys, Father Damien's chapel and grave and other objects of interest at the settlement. Previous to leaving a large number of the residents who had gathered at Kalaupapa, were addressed by Senator Cullom and Congressman Hitt who told them that the United States would have the same interest in their welfare as the present government, that men of science in the United States would become interested in the settlement and that upon their return it would be their pleasure to commend to Congress the care and welfare of all living at the settlement. The attorney general followed in a few remarks to the effect that it was a matter of congratulation that the commissioners were taking such a deep interest in the affairs of the islands, and especially that they had been able to personally visit the settlement.

The party re-embarked at 1 p. m., reaching the city at 6:30, having had a very pleasant trip.

NO TRUANTS THESE DAYS

MODERN CHILDREN SEEM TO LIKE SCHOOL.

St. Louis and Iolani Colleges Reopen Today With Large Attendance—Government School are Crowded.

There don't seem to be any truants among schoolboys nowadays. All the government schools and kindergartens and a number of the private schools and institutions of higher learning reopened today, and all with very large attendance.

St. Louis college began its sixteenth year today with an attendance of 510 in all departments, a number practically up to the capacity of the building accommodations, and still a number of last year's pupils are yet to return by the Mauna Loa.

There were no special exercises at the opening of the school. A new twelve foot American flag was hoisted for the first time, and will float on all special occasions in the school. However the brothers who conduct the school are all Americans anyway, so that the flag will make no difference in the teaching. The only change in the faculty from last year is that Brothard Eugene takes the place of Brothard Theodore, who has gone to the school on Maui.

The Michaelmas term at Iolani college began this morning with a large attendance in all departments. The attendance at many of the government schools was beyond the capacity of the buildings. Reports received at the Board of Education office up to 2 o'clock indicated much enthusiasm among teachers, schools well filled and splendid prospects for the year.

THE PORTUGUESE COLONY

THE DELEGATION BEFORE THE COMMISSION TODAY.

Portuguese Want Statehood, the Franchise of 1887, Abolition of Contract Labor, Equal Taxation, Etc.

At 10 o'clock this morning the Annexation Commissioners received J. M. Vivas, M. A. Gonsalves and J. M. Camara, Jr., as a delegation from the Portuguese colony in Hawaii, the preamble of which states that there are over 16,000 Portuguese in Hawaii, comprising the largest European colony here, that they are willing to become naturalized citizens, that they have always aided in maintaining good government, that although 90 per cent of their numbers are Roman Catholics, they have no religious prejudices or antagonisms, that they have the smallest percentage of criminal records and the largest number of small farms, and have always been opposed to contract labor and that they consider they are entitled to the same rights and privileges accruing to Portuguese residing elsewhere in the United States. For these and other reasons the Portuguese citizens of Honolulu, in mass meeting, and representing the colony in Hawaii in its entirety have resolved:

First—That it is the colony's earnest and sincere desire that Hawaii be annexed as a state of the Union, and if that be impracticable, then at least as a territory.

Second—That the honorable commission appointed under the Newlands resolution do recommend such a step, taking into consideration the importance of the islands to the United States.

Third—That the franchise enjoyed by the people of Hawaii under the constitution of 1887 be granted to the people now residing here or who may come hereafter under similar conditions and with identical qualifications.

Fourth—That contract labor be entirely abolished, as it is a system not only repugnant to free institutions, but as a well known fact is clearly in contradiction to the principles of the American constitution as it stands today.

Fifth—That in case of the annexation of Hawaii as a territory that the Congress of the United States protect the rights and privileges of all the citizens of the civilized races now residing in the Hawaiian Islands or that may hereafter become such residents by adopting such laws as will:

(a) Establish an equal taxation so as to enable the people of small means to obtain farms according to their desire;

(b) Establish free schools so as to enable the middle and poorer classes to give their children a higher education than they are able to do at present;

(c) That all laws and regulations that may from time to time be adopted by the United States in regard to Asiatics be carried into effect also in the territory of Hawaii;

(d) That the present judiciary system of the Hawaiian Islands be continued as far as practicable, so as to enable the poorer classes to have their litigation settled by the local courts of justice without the necessity of any appeal to any court outside of the territory;

(e) That the present hospital tax be either abolished or dedicated to the use of hospitals only in which free medical treatment and maintenance is provided for the sick poor of all residents, irrespective of nationality or creed.

The committee were before the Commission for three-quarters of an hour, during which many questions, directed mainly to the subjects of the franchise, contract labor and small farming, were put by the Commissioners.

WHY NOT BUY A SINGER?

You want a sewing machine? Then why not buy a Singer? There has been more of them sold than any other make. They wear longer, run lighter and do better work than any other make. They have never been a cut price machine, the workmanship on the Singer will not admit of cut prices. A few dollars in the original cost between a good machine and a poor one counts for nothing. B. THE TERRITORY'S FUTURE

SENATOR MORGAN'S TALK TO THE ANNEXATION COMMITTEE.

His Views on the Future Form of Government and Probable Number of United States Officials.

The committee of the Annexation Club, consisting of J. B. Atherton, F. J. Lowrey, Dr. C. B. Wood, D. L. Naone and George W. Smith, waited on Senator Morgan on Saturday evening at the Ballou residence and received from him a large photograph of Congressman Frank J. Newlands and his wife. In presenting them to the committee Senator Morgan briefly reviewed the history of the annexation treaty and resolution, and stated that it was at his personal request that Congressman Newlands had furnished the photographs for presentation to the club.

Referring to his present visit to Hawaii and the labors of the Commission, the Senator said in substance:

"As you are well aware, I have always been in favor of a state government for Hawaii and am so still. In speaking for myself, however, and not for the Commission, I am inclined to think that you will have only a territorial government at present. You have not asked for state government, and I doubt very much if the Commission will recommend one. As the territory of Hawaii you will have your own legislature of which you will elect the members. The territorial officers to be appointed by President McKinley will be a governor and secretary, the three district judges, who will compose your supreme court, a United States district attorney whose duties are similar to those of your attorney general but who only acts in cases in which the United States is interested, and a United States marshal, who performs the same duties as your present marshal, but only in United States business. The United States will of course take charge of the custom house and postal department, but in all other matters you will be your own masters. You will make your own laws, subject to the approval of Congress. The territory of Hawaii has a great future before it and with the increase of population and business that must come from annexation and all that is implied by it the road to statehood cannot be a long one. The opening of the Nicaragua canal, an enterprise which must be carried to consummation in a very short period, will still further advance the prosperity of the islands."

Turning to D. L. Naone, the Senator said: "As a representative of the Hawaiian race in this committee, I have this to say to you. The future of the Hawaiian race rests in the hands of the Hawaiians themselves. If you take advantage of the opportunities offered to you by annexation, by the free institutions of the United States, and which from your education and surroundings you should have no difficulty in doing, if you do all this, I say your race will continue as one of the great brotherhood, the greatest among the nations of the earth, but if you do not you will slowly but surely drift along until some day you will be forgotten. Your future lies in your own hands, and I wish to impress that fact on your mind in order that you may make the most of it."

Mr. Atherton, on behalf of the committee, thanked the Senator for his interest in the matter and asked him to convey the thanks of the club to Congressman Newlands.
