TYPHOID ON THE ARIZONA

MALIGNANT CASE DEVELOPS THIS MORNING.

Three Other Suspicious Cases—General King Sick—Vessel Will Remain at Anchor Outside for Three Days.

The Arizona left the Pacific Mail wharf yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock with the Camp Otis troops, bag and baggage, and General King and staff aboard. She sailed out of the channel and anchored outside where she will remain at least three days to see whether any cases of typhoid or other serious diseases will develop from the infection it is feared the men have been exposed to in the camp.

This morning proved the wisdom of this plan. One case of malignant typhoid fever developed, and three cases of high fever the exact nature of which has not yet been determined. The typhoid patient will be brought ashore some time today and the other three patients as well, unless they show decided signs of improvement.

The promptness with which typhoid has developed aboard causes the very gravest apprehension among the thousand men about to start on a twenty days voyage through tropical seas.

General King is himself a very sick man. He is confined to his state room. He has had fever, and while his condition is not considered serious he is suffering a great deal. No one from the vessel will be allowed ashore, except on imperative duty, while she remains at anchor, for this probationary period.

SMALLPOX IN QUARANTINE.

The appearance of a case of smallpox on quarantine island causes no alarm in town. The board of health has a thorough command of the situation. Dr. Day is treating the patient and is also directing a strict quarantine to prevent the spread of the disease to other patients or to the town. The case in quarantine is that of a Japanese who contracted the disease from the man put ashore at Yokohama.

TYPEWRITERS!!

In no line of mechanics is excellence of construction of such vital importance as in Typewriters. The PEERLESS is especially noted for its durability, simplicity and its speed. Considering first cost only the PEERLESS is not one of the so-called "cheap machines," but looking at it from a business point of view, comparing quantity and quality of work, loss of time from breakdowns on steamer days, when the Typewriter is most needed, and cost of repairs, as well as the life of the Typewriter, the PEERLESS is without an equal and is the cheapest machine on the market.

PRESBYTER AND BISHOP

CHURCH CHRONICLE DISCUSSES ON THE DEATH OF BAILIFF CAPT. F. W. FEHLBEHR.

Resolutions Passed an Adjournment Taken for the Day—Crepe in Court Chamber.

The circuit court adjourned at noon today out of respect to the memory of the late Captain F. W. Fehlbehr. Crepe is draped over the stand of the bailiff in the court room and business is at a standstill. The matter was brought to the attention of the court by the following communication: "The undersigned, officers of the court, respectfully submit the following to this honorable body: "It having pleased God to remove by death the late Captain Frederick Wilhelm Fehlbehr, for many years bailiff of the supreme court and of this court, whose career has been one of honesty and upright character, while serving the Hawaiian government as a police officer:

"Be It Resolved, That this court, through the clerk, convey by letter its deepest sympathy to the widow and other relatives of the deceased. "Resolved, That the marshal be respectfully requested to send a delegation of his police officers to attend the funeral of his late comrade; and be it further "Resolved, That these resolutions be entered of record in the archives of this court."

Henry Smith, clerk; George Lucas, first deputy clerk; J. A. Thompson, second deputy clerk; Albert McGurn, bailiff.

THE TENNESSEANS.

Up to this writing the Tennesseans have not eaten up anybody, and, on the other hand, contrary to the hopes of some, have acted the part of perfect gentlemen in the streets. The members of the regiment about town yesterday afternoon and last evening were as sober as judges and spent the time looking over the sights. Today more of them are ashore.

The Tennesseans, officers and men, express themselves as delighted with Honolulu. The climate, they say, is just about what they like, and the scenery quite eclipses anything in the south, even Florida. It is a notable fact that the Tennesseans have taken most kindly to the natives. The native policemen on the streets have also been drawn favorably toward the jolly young fellows.

There are three darkies in the Tennessee regiment. They tell the story of the troubles of the regiment at San Francisco just as the other men do. One of them was mixed up in the chase of Thomas the negro with which parts of three regiments had trouble.

From statements on both sides there seems to be some bad blood between the New Yorkers and Tennesseans, but it is believed that this is confined to a few men only. Last night members of the two regiments had dinner together and were around together to a late hour.

THE OHIO.

The transport Ohio with the Washington troops sailed out of the harbor at 3 o'clock yesterday and by this time is many miles on her way to Manila.

THE BENNINGTON.

The Bennington returned this morning from her practice cruise to Kaula. On account of the heavy seas the men did not get ashore as much as they expected.

DREYFUS CASE.

Generals Who May be Prosecuted Under Penal Code.

PARIS, October 28.—The demand made today before the court of cassation by Prosecutor General Manau, that not only should the unjustly condemned be righted, but that the guilty punished, has maddened the anti-Dreyfusites and caused a panic among the high heads of the army.

The use of Colonel Henry's forgery renders two ex-ministers of war, Mercier and Boisdeffre, and two generals, Goze and Le Peillieux, in addition to Paty de Clam, liable to prosecution under the penal code.

Paris is in suspense, waiting to see whether the court will accede to M. Manau's demand for the prosecution of the guilty parties.

HOW TO RUN AN ELECTION

AN OBJECT LESSON IS BEING GIVEN.

First American Election on Hawaiian Soil—Kansas Gives a Complete Demonstration of the Science.

The first American election on Hawaiian soil is being held today. The elections in three states may be affected by the votes cast in Honolulu today. Local patriots who feel the stirrings of ambition to control politics in the Islands, if any there be, ought to have been at the Irmgard wharf this morning. The Kansas gave an object lesson in "How to run an election." There was political oratory, the rulling from the chair that settled the whole business, the protest from the losing side on the legal aspect of the controversy, a few broken slates, and then several hours of warm electioneering and heated political argument.

The two battalions were mustered on the wharf right after breakfast. Colonel Funston made a speech in which he said this was a civil and not a military proceeding; they were all on a level, and shoulder straps and chevrons didn't count. The subsequent proceedings proved he was right; shoulder straps and chevrons didn't count. The colonel called the meeting to order and Sergeant B. J. Mitchell of the quartermaster's department and Sergeant Teft of Company E, Republican and Populist, were nominated for chairman. Mitchell was chosen. It is a Republican regiment. Then there was a long debate as to whether there were three parties to be represented on the board of judges or only two, the Democrats and Populists having nominated the same state officers. The Democrats and Populists each claimed the right of representation. On their behalf the latest election law was cited. The chairman fortified his political preferences by pointing out that this voting was to be done under a law passed during the civil war and ruled that there were but two parties to be represented, the Republicans and Fusionists. A protest in writing was filed by Captain Christy. Then the slates were broken. The commissioned officers, it is said, had a slate for the board of election to put through. The shoulder straps didn't count. The enlisted men rose in the power of their numbers and elected Sergeant Hopkins and Corporal Hook, Republicans and Sergeant Simpson, Populist, as judges, and Private Steele, Republican, and Sergeant Long, Democrat, as clerks.

A table on the wharf supported the ballot box and voting began at once. Out of the 800 men there are about 450 or 500 entitled to vote. The others lack age or residence qualifications. The polls will not close till 6 o'clock. The political statisticians and election result forecasters, give Stanley, the Republican candidate for governor, about 300 votes, and Leedy, the Fusion candidate, 150 to 175. A full state, congressional and legislative and county ticket is being voted.

On the Arizona, the Pennsylvanians are voting, and out at Camp McKinley the New Yorkers are registering their preferences between Teddy Roosevelt and Van Wyck.

BOYS IN BLUE.

New Yorkers Leave for Hilo—Tennesseans March in Parade.

The town was filled with martial music and the steady tramp of moving soldiery this morning. Two companies of the New York regiment with the band in heavy marching order and accompanied by four wagon loads of equipment, came in from camp to go on the Kinaiu to Hilo. There were 189 men in the detachment, mostly from Companies L and M.

The Tennessee regiment, Colonel Smith commanding, came ashore about 10:30 this morning for a march and drill. Headed by the band the column proceeded up Fort street to Hotel, out to Miller and to the baseball grounds. The movements in the manual of arms in town and the drill on the outskirts were very pretty. The southerners were the recipients of many compliments.

President Dole reviewed them in front of the Executive building just before noon. The chief executive was accompanied by his cabinet, Major Potter and Captain Paul Smith.

BENEFIT OF PEERAGE.

Everyone may not know what the term "benefit of peerage" implies. A peer can demand a private audience of the sovereign to represent his views on matters of public welfare. For treason or felony he can demand to be tried by his peers; he cannot be outlawed in any civil action, nor can he be arrested unless for an indictable offense, and he is exempt from serving on juries. He may sit with his hat on in courts of justice, and should be liable to the last penalty of the law, he can demand a silken cord instead of a hempen rope.
