DEAL WITH SUGAR TRUST

TWO HAWAIIAN CROPS TO GO TO AMERICAN REFINERY.

Arbuckle's Refused to Buy—Idea of a Refinery Here Given Over—A Big Planter Talks.

The Hawaiian planters have contracted with the American Sugar Refinery for the sale of the entire sugar output of the Islands for the next two years, excepting only about 75,000 tons, which will be shipped to the refinery at Crockett, Cal. An amount sufficient for the American sugar Company's refinery at San Francisco will be held at this place and the rest forwarded to New York to be used there in competition with the independent refineries.

"Yes, we have sold out to the Trust, if you wish to put it that way," said a leading planter this morning; "but it was a case of couldn't help ourselves. Our first overtures were to the Arbuckle's, we wanted to patronize the independent refineries and were open in our opposition to the Trust. But the Arbuckle's would not buy, and the American Sugar Company held out inducements that no one else seemed prepared to meet.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, November 6.—An insurgent captain and lieutenant have been arrested at Guantanamo for holding up a man on the streets, and taking away his machete, which they afterward sold for $2.50. They denied that there was any obligation to pay for it, and claimed exemption from trial and imprisonment on the ground of their rank in the Cuban army.

TYPEWRITERS!!

In no line of mechanics is excellence of construction of such vital importance as in Typewriters. The PEERLESS is especially noted for its durability, simplicity and its speed. Considering first cost only the PEERLESS is not one of the so-called "cheap machines," but looking at it from a business point of view, comparing quantity and quality of work, loss of time from breakdowns on steamer days, when the Typewriter is most needed, and cost of repairs, as well as the life of the Typewriter, the PEERLESS is without an equal and is the cheapest machine on the market.

BARBER TO COAST.

Another Rumor About Commander Going to the Coast.

Again the rumor comes from camp that Colonel Barber will leave by the next steamer for San Francisco to lay a request personally before the department to have his regiment recalled from the Hawaiian Islands. It appears that the commander has some such idea in view. Sickness, which continues to increase in the companies, is said to worry the colonel very much.

FOR SICK SOLDIERS.

The health situation at the military hospital are to have a thanksgiving dinner. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wright, assisted by a few ladies are preparing for it. Surgeon Major Davis has given his consent to the plan. It is intended to give the sick the delicacies they most need, such as wine and guava jellies, chicken broth, chicken fricassee, and other nourishing dishes. Donations for such purpose are solicited and may be sent to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wright, Little Britain, near the military hospital, or left at the store of Lewis & Co., before 10 o'clock in the morning on November 23rd and 24th.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

Great Britain is Mobilizing Her Troops.

LONDON, November 6.—The military authorities at Devonport, the site of the largest naval arsenal in Great Britain, received orders today for the immediate mobilization of all the troops in the western district. The defense committee will meet tomorrow.

The Daily Chronicle this morning professes to have "important military news which it would not be advisable to publish without the sanction of the war office."

PARIS, November 6.—The Matin today confirms the report that the government will instruct Major Marchand to return to France with his expedition from Fashoda by way of Jibuti, on the Gulf of Aden, "the only route consistent with French dignity."

The paper expresses the hope that the national flag "will not again be involved in such small colonial enterprises until success is assured beforehand, both diplomatically and by adequate support."

RELIABLE ADVERTISING.

The ladies of Honolulu are fully alive to the fact that the goods advertised by Sachs & Co. are everything they are said to be. The special offerings set forth for this week are no exception to the rule. They are reliable.

WITH FLAGS AT HALF MAST

TWO SHIPS ENTER WITH SIGNS OF MOURNING.

The C. F. Sargent Loses Her First Officer to the Sharks—Captain Dow Dies of Dysentery.

Two ships came into port this morning with flags at half mast. The C. F. Sargent lost her first officer overboard yesterday, and the Planter entered port in command of her chief officer, with Captain Dow's body preserved in brine aboard.

The Planter had a hard and unsuccessful trip this voyage. Besides losing her captain, she was able to secure only forty-six tons of guano, and besides lost both her anchors and forty fathoms of chain.

Captain F. A. Dow was not a well man when the Planter sailed for Lysan Islands, a month ago. His energy kept him on his feet, however. The vessel after its unsuccessful efforts to load cargo, sailed from Lysan Islands October 30th. Captain Dow was very sick then with dysentery and malarial fever. November 2nd he died at sea. His body was preserved and was brought here. It will be embalmed and sent to his home in California for interment.

Captain Dow was one of the best known ship masters in this port. At Lysan Islands the Planter experienced heavy weather all the time it was there. The seas were so heavy that the breakers formed out three miles from the shore; something very unusual. They carried the Planter away from her anchor. The anchor was recovered but the next day it was lost again with forty fathoms of the chain, and the second anchor was also lost in the same way. When this happened there was nothing to be done but leave. The twenty-five Japanese and two white men employed on the islands were taken aboard and a start made for Honolulu. After the death of Captain Dow, Chief Officer Perry took command.

William Noring, first mate of the C. F. Sargent, while at work in the rigging, yesterday, fell overboard. The ship was sailing about ten knots an hour at the time. A life buoy was thrown to him at once and a boat was lowered. He was a splendid swimmer and was seen swimming easily toward the buoy. When he had almost reached it he went down as though pulled down by some force under the water. The boat's crew that had been sent to his rescue cruised around for some time but could not see him. They saw a number of sharks, however, and it is believed Noring fell a victim to them.

This was his first trip on the Sargent.

A MAN OF NOTE.

Quartermaster John B. Jeffery of the Newport.

John B. Jeffery, captain and assistant quartermaster, United States volunteers, quartermaster and commissary of the Newport, is one of the best known newspaper men of the middle west. He was for years manager of the Chicago Journal and carried it through the critical period of the great Chicago fire. He was associated with Charles A. Dana in the management of the Chicago Republican.

Just before the war broke out he was slated as one of the American representatives at the Paris Exposition. But with the war he entered military service. He came to San Francisco in June just too late to go to Manila with General Merritt. He was made quartermaster in charge of Camp Merritt, coming there at a time when the death rate among 15,000 men was eight or nine a day. By putting floors in the tents, supplying bed ticking and straw, introducing a thorough police and sanitary system he reduced the death rate more than half. At Camp Merrim, of which he also had charge, with 6,500 men, the death rate was only one in two or three weeks.

He is one of the few quartermasters who is popular with the soldiers.

FATE OF THE PHILIPPINES

EUROPE IS WATCHING FOR ITS OPPORTUNITY.

Spain Splits More Diplomatic Hairs, Believed to Be Trying to Make the Best Financial Bargain.

NEW YORK, November 7.—A cable to the Journal from Rome says: Russia now proposes to the powers that they present a note to the United States regarding the control of the Philippines. Italy, however, is not disposed to accept this proposition. An official journal today published a note in which it was declared that Spain has little hope of gaining any advantage by retaining the Philippines, and that the best she will be able to do is to compromise the matter.

PARIS, November 7.—The Eclair today, after reproducing all the six articles of the peace protocol, says: "It is to be hoped the United States will not maintain their first pretensions in regard to the Philippine islands. It is one, however, which interests Spain only, but Germany from time to time allows it to be thought that she is not indifferent to the fate of the islands and the possibility of interference from the powers will perhaps cause America to be less exacting."

MADRID, November 7.—The Premier, Senor Sagasta, was questioned today as to whether it was a fact that the Spanish government had addressed a note to the powers asking the latter if they would support Spain in protesting against "the intentions of the United States toward the Philippine islands." He replied that such a note had not yet been dispatched.

Members of the Cabinet assert that there will be three or four sittings of the peace conference at Paris.

LONDON, November 8.—The Daily Mail this morning urges the American people to pronounce boldly in favor of retaining the Philippines. "For otherwise there will be a scramble for coaling stations that will endanger the peace of the world."

The Standard says editorially this morning: "We can see no alternative. Spain must accept as inevitable the loss of the Philippines. No doubt the United States will assume a heavy and serious responsibility, but it argues well for the future that the public men of America appreciate and are ready to meet. England will watch the experiment with every wish for a favorable issue."

The Daily News wonders whether trouble is brewing in the Philippines annexation.

It is, of course, difficult to treat such a demand with patience, and Spain forfeits some sympathy which she might otherwise have gained from Europe in advancing it. As a matter of fact, it is only another attempt to raise the financial question, which, as has been many times indicated in these dispatches, is the only issue with which Spain is deeply concerned.

FRITZ ROWALD ARRESTED.

His Campaign Hat Gave Him All Sorts of Trouble.

Fritz Rowald, of E. O. Hall & Son's, received a lesson this morning that will make his campaign hat unpopular with him for a month to come. Dressed in the soldier's headgear and a suit of blue denim he finished his work on the Oceanic wharf and started out. The Pennsylvania was about leaving for Manila, however, and they were not letting any soldiers out. The guard at the gate held him up. Rowald protested that he was a citizen. That did not go.

Before the civilian knew where he was at he was in charge of a guard, and being gently led aboard ship. "We'll have no runaways from this vessel," affirmed the corporal, with a nod that meant nothing less than a court martial for the attempted desertion. Rowald became shaky. But kicking was no go. There were the hat and the disguised uniform to give him away. He was pushed forward to the sergeant.

At this juncture several civilians came up. Among them were people the soldier knew. They identified Rowald positively as a town man. After considerable parley and investigation the prisoner was allowed to go. The guard who had made the arrest followed him with his eyes clear down to the custom house, and then observed in Tennessee English "Wa'll, 'T'll be gash darned."

IOWAS BEATEN.

The Wela Ka Hao baseball team had an easy victory over the Iowas yesterday afternoon. It is said that the soldier nine was entirely new and had never played together before. At the end of six innings the score was 20 to 1 in favor of the towns. As a general thing the game was orderly, there being no trouble to speak of.

The secret of our success lies in the value and attractiveness of our shoes. McINERNEY.

THEY ARE OFF TO MANILA

PENNSYLVANIA SAILED THIS MORNING.

Soldiers are in Fine Spirits—The Band Played Lively Airs—It was a Gala Occasion.

With cheers and the waving of handkerchiefs and flags, and a very gala appearance generally, the Pennsylvania, with the Kansas troops on board, sailed away this morning to Manila.

She got away from the wharf promptly at 10:30 o'clock. The men were all aboard. Dozens of them had climbed to the masthead and clung to the rigging. Scores of them wore leis as souvenirs of friends and the Islands.

There was a large crowd at the dock to see the soldiers go. The regimental band played many patriotic airs. It was a lively picture.

NEW STEAMER LINE.

The British American Steamship Company, which will operate the Garonne, shortly to call here, announces its intention of putting on a regular line of vessels between Seattle, Honolulu and Manila. One of the head men of the concern will soon be here to establish an agency and to complete such arrangements as may be found necessary.

FEARS HIS BROTHER IS DEAD.

Charles Knutson of Company K, volunteer engineers, has received an unconfirmed report that his brother, Bernard Knutson, of Company D, First Montana volunteers, is dead, at Manila. He has looked through all the lists of dead published in the San Francisco papers, but does not find his brother's name. At the same time he has not heard from his brother for a long time, and he fears the worst.

THEY STRIKE AGAIN.

Galicians March Into Town for the Second Time.

The end of the Galician trouble is not yet. Twenty-four of the strikers were returned by the police late yesterday to Oahu plantation, with the understanding that they would go to work again. This morning, however, they refused point blank to go under the lunas employed there, and were brought back to the city.

The batch is now in the station house yard and tomorrow morning will be given an opportunity to state their further grievances if any they have. Failing to satisfy the court they will be sentenced to imprisonment until such time as they are willing to return to work. This is the law.

Judge Wilcox was engaged most of the forenoon hearing the remainder of the strikers. Their complaints were similar to those filed by their predecessors. All will undoubtedly be overruled for the reason that the grounds of complaint are manifestly untenable.
