Rain or Shine We develop films and plates. An experienced man is employed by us to do the developing, this is his work, he has made a study of photography and today is an expert in this line of business. Do not be deceived; thinking that the sun must shine before films and plates can be developed; this is not so. All days are alike to us. As we turn out first-class work. Its immaterial to us and we don't care if the sun never shines!
