THE CORPSE CAME TO LIFE

NATIVE BUNCH OF FLOWERS THAT WOULD NOT DIE.

Tumbled off High Lanai but Liquor Served as Talisman to Save Him to Pay a Fine.

Huluipua although a native must be some relation to Pat Malone who forgot that he was dead. Both of these worthies, one a Hawaiian and the other an Irishman refused to remain dead and both started up while their acquaintances were grouped around the supposed corpses. Huluipua means a bunch of flowers and Huluipua is a native name for a liquor. He scared the patrol wagon crew half out of their wits Saturday night by coming to life after he had been pronounced dead.

Huluipua found a kind and hospitable friend on that evening. The friend set them up often and prodigiously. Huluipua did not overlook a bet, as the gamblers say, for he drank every time the cork popped and the neighbors declared there was a regular tattoo concert going on before the wagon came. With his belt eased to the last hole Huluipua decided he wanted some fresh air so he meandered out onto the Lanai of the second story. Looking downward he could see the earth 32 feet below him.

Liquor has a different effect upon men. Some it causes to feel sentimental and others morose. It caused Huluipua to feel as proud as if kingly blood flowed in his veins. He had the head of Huluipua into violent contact with the ground. The thud was dull and of a sickening character. As soon as the friends of the Bunch saw him lying prostrate and lifeless upon the ground they at once raised a hue and cry. The police were at once notified that there was a dead man in the front yard of a house Ewa on Liliha street. The patrol wagon was sent for him. The officers examined this mundane sphere, 32 feet beneath him his pride evidently rose as great as that of Lucifer and the Bunch decided to give a correct though miniature imitation of the fall of the Prince of Darkness. A wave of the hand a lurch and over the railing the Bunch of Flowers tumbled.

He did not fall seven nights and seven days. It took about seven shakes of the earth to get the head of Huluipua into violent contact with the ground. The thud was dull and of a sickening character. As soon as the friends of the Bunch saw him lying prostrate and lifeless upon the ground they at once raised a hue and cry. The police were at once notified that there was a dead man in the front yard of a house Ewa on Liliha street. The patrol wagon was sent for him. The officers examined this mundane sphere, 32 feet beneath him his pride evidently rose as great as that of Lucifer and the Bunch decided to give a correct though miniature imitation of the fall of the Prince of Darkness. A wave of the hand a lurch and over the railing the Bunch of Flowers tumbled.

Suddenly the dead stillness surrounding the improvised hearse was broken by an unearthly grunt from the direction of the corpse. The hair of the horses stood on end and the cold chill of terror went creeping up the spines of the men on the wagon, for there sitting bolt upright in the middle of the rig was the supposed corpse. He was either a live one or a ghost, but which the men did not want to go close enough to determine.

It is possible that the horses might have bolted had not the corpse come to rescue of the corpse. The hair of the horses stood on end and the cold chill of terror went creeping up the spines of the men on the wagon, for there sitting bolt upright in the middle of the rig was the supposed corpse. He was either a live one or a ghost, but which the men did not want to go close enough to determine.

POLITICS AT NAHUKU.

A rousing Republican meeting, in which W. H. Hoogs, of Honolulu, took part, was held at Nahuku, Maui last Thursday night. The church was used for the purpose. There was some good singing and the following made speeches: H. P. Baldwin, W. H. Hoogs, Hugh Howell, Joseph, M. H. Reuter and others.

The next night the party went to Hana and held another big meeting, the program being about the same as at Nahuku.

Saturday night the meeting was held at Lahaina. This was one of the biggest of all.

The Democrats announced this morning a mass meeting at the fish market for next Monday evening.

McNeer's shoes are right in it. They are made by the leading factories of America, and consequently have no equal.

WAIHAWA MATTER AGAIN

GOVERNMENT DEVOTES THIS MORNING TO IT.

New Company Offers Five Per Cent of Net Profit as Rental—Dr. Wood Leaves Bond of Health.

The Waihawa water matter was again threshed out by the government this morning. It took up almost the whole session of the executive. No conclusion was reached, although the officials came nearer it, perhaps, than ever before.

W. O. Smith and F. M. Hatch appeared for the two sides. Mr. Kellogg was present in the interest of the California colonists. The principal question under consideration was that of the remuneration of the government for the water right. Mr. Smith stated that the new company being formed, which will include the interests of most of the colonists, could probably afford to give the government five per cent of its net earnings. This will be a large amount, but the company seems willing to undertake it.

Under the project the colonists will be given all the water they require at reasonable rates. Others in the neighborhood will also be supplied. The water will then be flumed down to the plantations.

The resignation of Dr. Wood from the office of president of the Board of Health was read. His resignation was submitted last spring but was withdrawn temporarily at the earnest solicitation of the business community. This time he will certainly retire. The reason is that his business partner, Dr. F. R. Day, is about leaving for Europe and he will not have the time in future to attend to the important work of the office.

There is no salary attached to the office of president of the Board of Health. Following his four months of day-and-night work during the plague epidemic the merchants of the city paid a purse of $4,000 and presented to Dr. Wood in recognition of his invaluable services.

AN UNSOLVED MYSTERY

CHINESE CHARLEY ROSS STILL MISSING.

Chong Kyau and Muk See Alleged Abductors of Small Child Acquired for Lack of Evidence.

KOHALA, October 12.—Chong Kyau and Muk See, charged with kidnaping Ng Fai Pin were acquitted in the circuit court last Monday, for want of evidence.

The alleged kidnaping took place September 27, 1899, in North Kohala. The child about two years old was the eldest son of Ng Yung who occupied a small tract of land on the edge of the woods above the canefields of the Halawa and Kohala plantations. The child was last seen in 1 and 2 o'clock of that day when he left his home in company with Chong Kyau to go to his father who was working about 500 yards distant. For 60 days of the way, the two were in plain view of the house. There the path passed over a ridge hiding the house from view. After he passed that ridge the child was never again seen by his parents. A short time afterwards Chong came to where the father was at work, but without the child. He was in company with the father for an hour or so, but never said anything about the child's having been in his company. It was not until after this that it was discovered the child was missing.

A most thorough search was kept up for days but without success. A reward was offered with no better success.

While there was not evidence enough to convict, the community and especially those who have become interested and therefore well informed as to the facts of the case, have no doubt as to the guilt of these men. The belief is that the child was kidnapped and sold to some Chinaman with no son so that the ancestral worship might be continued according to Chinese custom.

FINANCES RUNNING LOW.

Treasurer Lansing has given out the statement that the government will have to go a little slow in paying bills for the next thirty days or more. Bills now added will be paid November 20. Those presented later will be paid thirty days after being audited. The reason for this arrangement is the heavy draft upon the treasury during the year. After taxes come in, in November, there will be smoother sailing.

ENTERTAINMENT FOR GUESTS.

HAS BEEN A HOT SUMMER

AVERAGED A DEGREE AND A HALF ABOVE NORMAL.

The Barometer too has been Low, Indicating to the Territorial Meteorologist Possible Heavy Winter Rains.

This has been a hot summer. The territorial meteorologist says the temperature has averaged a degree and a half above normal, which he says is a large difference for this latitude. The barometer, he says too, has been low which may indicate heavy rains for the winter.

The following is the report of Curtis J. Lyons, Territorial Meteorologist for the month of September. "Temperature, mean for the month 78.4 Fahrenheit; normal, 75.5; average daily minimum, 73.7; average daily range, 11.6; greatest daily range, 16 degrees; least daily range 8 degrees; highest temperature, 87; lowest 69. The whole summer has had an average temperature of 1.5 above the normal, which is a large difference for this latitude. "Barometer average, 29.953; normal, 29.969; (corrected for gravity, .06); highest, 30.08; lowest, 29.85; greatest twenty-four hour change, .06. The barometer has been low throughout the summer, which may indicate heavy rains for the winter.

"Relative humidity 67.2 per cent; normal 68.4; mean dew-point, 66.8; normal, 66.2; absolute moisture, 7.20 grains per cubic foot, normal, 7.06. "Rainfall, 1.55 inches, normal, 2.5; rain record days, 23; normal, 18. Greatest fall in one day, 0.48. Luakaha rainfall, 8.25; Kapiolani Park, 0.06.

"The Artesian well level fell very slightly from 32.90 to 32.85 feet above mean sea level. "Trade wind days, 26 (2 of N. N. E.); normal number of trade wind days, 26. Average force of wind, Beaufort scale 5.6. Cloudiness, tenths of sky, 3.0; normal, ditto 4.0.

"Approximate per centages of district rainfall as compared with normal: Hilo, 95 per cent; Hanalei, 35 per cent; Kohala, 50 per cent; Waimea, 70 per cent; Kona, 150 per cent; Kailua, 100 per cent; Puna, 60 per cent; Maui, 100 per cent; Oahu, 50 to 120 per cent; Kauai, 60 to 100 per cent.

"Average temperature Pepeekeo, Hilo 100 feet elevation, mean maximum, 82.7; mean minimum, 70.3; Waimea, Hawaii, 2700 feet elevation, 75.7 and 66.3; Kohala, 585 feet elevation, 85.2 and 73.5; Kulakaha, (W. R. Castle's) 60 feet elevation, highest, 87; lowest, 69.5; average, 78.3; Kilauea, Kaula, 325 feet elevation, highest, maximum 82.4; average minimum, 72.4."

The rain along the northern coast of Hawaii has apparently been light ranging from 5.62 inches at 500 feet elevation at Lapaohoe down to .53 at Kukuihue, and averaging less than two inches from Lapaohoe, west.

TODAY'S POLITICS.

E. B. McClanahan has been placed at the head of the Democratic campaign committee and will conduct the campaign for the Territorial.

There is said to be undoubtedly pronounced dissatisfaction in the ranks of the Independents. Several of the leaders are on the point of following Junius Kaee and J. W. Bipikani into other parties. Were it not for the almost super-human efforts of Wilcox and Kalaualai the party would almost surely disintegrate.

A big program has been arranged by the Democrats for the mass meeting in the Orpheum theater this evening. Clinton J. Hutchins will be one of the principal speakers. All the candidates in the city will also have something to say. There will be music and probably some other features. Col. C. J. McCarthy will preside.

Jammy A. Kennedy, chairman of the Republican central committee, is said by his colleagues to be an indefatigable worker for the party. In the past week he has been hard at it almost day and night.

There is a move on foot to make election day an informal holiday, to enable the "beelers" to get in their work.

C. H. Bishop, who is a candidate on the Democratic ticket for the Senate, arrived from Kaula yesterday. He will return home tomorrow.

Herbert Shaw, the Socialist, harangued a large, mixed crowd on the square next to the Pantheon Saturday night. Mr. Shaw and his principal adherents have no votes just yet.

Testimonies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South Pt. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics,' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public."

THERE ARE NO LIES IN GUAM

NATIVES THERE DO NOT CARE FOR FLOWERS.

Interesting Letter From Lieutenant W. E. Safford, Well Known Here—Work of Mr. Seale in Collecting Birds.

Lieutenant W. E. Safford, U. S. N., in acknowledging the receipt from President Charles L. Wight of a quantity of seeds and useful plants sent to Guam writes interestingly as follows of life and conditions there. Lieut. Safford is a scientist of rare attainments, a fact which makes his observations of the more value.

"The natives of this island in general show little appreciation for flowers. They never make leis nor wear the flowers in any way. Only three or four in the entire city of Agaña have flower gardens, and they are laid out in a haphazard manner. They cannot understand why any body wants to plant anything which is not edible, or which does not furnish some useful product. Mr. Haughts has sent some fine things among which are a number of ornamental palms. The natives cannot understand what we can want with them.

There is a village of Caroline Islanders here. These people always wear flowers in their hair, and remind me somewhat of the Samoans. The other day a species of Alyxia (malle) was brought to me. I was delighted, for although it is of a different species from the Hawaiian and Samoan malle, it has the same fragrance and the glossy deep green leaves. I said: 'How the Hawaiians love malle: why is it that you people do not love to wear flowers?' One of them said: 'Do you take us for savages like the Carolinians? The next thing you will be expecting us to make great holes in the lobes of our ears, like them, so as to carry beads and weeds stuck through them.'

"I bought a little place, which includes a nice lot. This I have been preparing for a garden; but I have heard indirectly that they are all to be detached soon, who came here originally with the late governor; so my interesting work in horticulture will, I fear have to be suspended. I shall put your seed however in good hands.
