YAP KEAU MUST GO BACK HER BIRTHPLACE HERE IS NOT ESTABLISHED.

Young Chinese Woman in a Very Great Pilliki—Other Habeas Corp is cases—Children Returned.

Judge Estee decided yesterday afternoon that Yap Keau, the Chinese girl who was before him on a writ of habeas corpus for permission to land in the country, was not entitled to such landing and remained her to the custody of the collector of customs to be returned to China. The hearing took up all of the morning and most of the afternoon, going on for the second time at 2 p. m. The last witness was the petitioner herself. Her story was interesting but rather mixed.

Judge Dayton presented the petition and District Attorney Baird appeared for the government. Both did hard and able work. The burden of proof in such cases is always on the petitioner and in this matter the court did not believe the allegations of fact had been proved.

The petitioner claimed to have been born in Pauo valley in 1884 and to have been taken back to China by her mother in 1890 when six years of age. Her mother died in Hong Kong in June of last year. In her testimony the plaintiff seemed to be well coached in some particulars but not up on the facts in others. One of her witnesses, a cousin also made a botch of his evidence. He said he had lived in Honolulu ten years and had been personally acquainted with the plaintiff's father here—seventeen years.

Paul Neumann has brought two more cases of the same kind in Judge Estee's court. The petitioners are mere boys, the oldest being 17. They claim to have been born on Kauai and to have returned to China when quite young.

The cases of Lau King and Chun Hey, who are trying to get into the country, were finished yesterday afternoon, except as to the filing of briefs. The latter were put in this morning.

Two little Chinese children were sent back to Hong Kong by the Coptic because they had not papers entitling them to land. Their parents remained in Honolulu.

DESCENDANT OF DRAKE. AUCKLAND, September 28.—The last living descendant of Sir Francis Drake has been discovered in New Zealand. She is Mrs. John Angelo (nee Drake) and is the wife of a settler. Her attorneys have applied to Chancery for certain moneys alleged to be due to her as the last living heir of the great naval commander, and she has sent to the Queen a long letter giving particulars of her ancestry.
