NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

Bits of Paragraphs that Give Condensed Notes of the Day.

A gold locket has been lost. Judge J. W. Kahu is over from Maui. An Executive notice appears in this issue.

The Household Department of the Pacific Hardware Co. is offering fine goods for holiday presents.

This is the evening of the debate by the Triangle club of the Y. M. C. A. on the industries of the islands.

The Doric with several days later news will be due Wednesday but will be expected tomorrow afternoon.

The Master Builders have taken suite 2 in the Elite building where they will in future have their headquarters.

Morris Keohokalole and wife returned by the Claudine from Maui where the latter had been visiting for some weeks.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian Historical society announced for this evening has been postponed till Thursday.

A blast set off in the foundation of the Young block Saturday shook windows in Alakea street like an earthquake.

An important meeting of the Protective League of Honolulu will be held in the Y. M. C. A. hall at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Assistant Paymaster E. F. Hall of the navy department has been given headquarters in the basement of the capitol building.

A few suggestions for Christmas are to be seen in our window in the latest Low Cut Shoes for Ladies.

The Young Men's Republican club will this evening discuss the part the Republican party should take in the forming of a city charter.

It has been found necessary to postpone the annual meeting of the Hawaiian Historical society which was originally set for this evening.

Prof. M. M. Scott, of the High School does not agree with President Smith's college idea. He thinks the country is too small to support it.

Hundreds of people took the electric line to Pacific Heights yesterday. At one time in the afternoon the hill was covered with men, women and children.

A helix building is being restored to the site of the King's Chinese Company's store at the corner of King and Maunaloa streets, burned during the great fire of January 20 last.

HILO SHIP CANAL. HILO, December 1.—Mr. Bruner the Government Engineer who has charge of the investigation at Waiakae to determine the practicability of constructing a ship canal and harbor there says that his remarks relative thereto were somewhat misinterpreted last week in this paper.

Nevertheless he has since found evidences of underlying 'ahoehoe, and the work will not at present be prosecuted further.—Hilo Tribune.

THE ORPHEUM. There will be an entirely new change of program this evening at the Orpheum all of the various artists changing their repertoire.

SOME CANINES AS LIFE SAVERS. Peter Laney of Wales owes his life to two small bull pups.

While walking down West avenue he fell into an open sewer trench, about five feet deep. Two bull pups saw him fall, and running after him, jumped into the trench and began pawing and pulling him around until they got him up on his feet.

Then jumping out began pulling him in play, but their play was so strong that they finally succeeded in getting him clear out of the ditch. The trench into which Laney fell was dug to repair a sewer leak, and the place was filled with poisonous gases.

BOSTON'S VOTE. It was fitting that Boston, the town which holds Faneuil hall, should vote by an unexpected majority to uphold the Declaration of Independence.—Springfield Republican.
