TRAGEDY LATE SATURDAY

YOUNG LADY DEAD WITH BULLET THROUGH BRAIN.

Suicide and Murder Theories are Both Advanced—Girl Only Fifteen Years of Age—Mystery.

Effie Gertrude Givens, the fifteen-year old daughter of J. W. Givens, of Oahu, was found dead in the temporary residence of the family on Anapuni street near Donatus, about 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. In her hand was her father's 38-calibre revolver, one ball from which had passed through her head from a point near the right temple.

Mystery surrounds the case. Mr. Givens is inclined to the opinion that his daughter was murdered, but has no reason for thinking so far other than the fact that she was happy when he left in the forenoon. The father and step-mother left in the forenoon to look after fitting up their permanent home leaving the young lady in the house. The next day the matter was news that neighbor had discovered the dead body of the girl in a room of the house.

Mr. Givens was head carpenter for the Oahu Sugar Company on Hawaii. His wife, the mother of Miss Effie, died some years ago, following which the girl went to live with her grand parents in Iowa. She returned last April to Oahu to live with her father and step-mother, whom her father had married two years ago. The Givens family arrived in Honolulu only two weeks ago with the intention of remaining here. A close friend of the family gave out this statement this morning: "I have known the Givens family a long time. They and I are wholly unable to account for the tragedy. So far as we know there was no cause for suicide. The young lady was devoted to her father and step-mother, and she was idolized by them. If she really shot herself it was certainly in a moment of temporary insanity. When her parents left in the forenoon she was as happy as a lark; was telling them of how delighted she was with H. H. Liliu and their new home and also spoke of going to church the following day and what she would wear. What followed it is impossible to explain. We cannot get over the feeling that a second party was responsible for the shooting. At the same time Mr. Givens' revolver was used and nothing in the house was disturbed."

The funeral took place from the residence at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The parents are completely broken hearted over the affair. The following coroner's jury was subpoenaed Saturday, viewed the body and will sit this afternoon at Thomas K. House, A. B. Scrimgeour, E. Mossman, G. A. Bower, George Andrews and L. Livingston.

POLICE AGAIN DEFEATED.

The Malle Ilmas defeated the police again in the baseball game of Saturday afternoon. The score at the end of the ninth inning being 10 to 11. The police started out well, recording nine runs in the first inning, and for a long time Malle Ilmas stock was low; but in the latter half the town men pulled up and passed their opponents at the end of the contest.

TARO SITUATION BETTER.

Nearly Enough Now Being Received at Molokai Settlement.

Superintendent Reynolds states that a fair supply of taro is now being received at the Molokai settlement from neighboring valleys, and that on the whole, the people there are in no worse fix than in Honolulu and elsewhere. Some weeks there is ample, but at other times a shortage occurs and the taro has to be resorted to. Mr. Reynolds thinks that the problem cannot be finally settled until the Health Board has a steamer of its own which can make special trips to taro localities betimes in question. The Superintendent states that the Wilder Steamship Company is now chartering for the transportation of suspects from the other islands to Kaili, and is also charging him and other officials regular fare between Molokai and Honolulu with the next suspects and officials have been carried free of charge but this has been merely a concession.

HOME FOR G. A. R.

George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., which met for many years in Harmony hall has obtained new quarters on Vineyard street opposite Engle's and will occupy the same in September. The building is two stories in of wood, but has an attractive plaster front in old Spanish style. The hall is large and airy.

BOTH DEPARTMENTS THERE.

Commissary and Quartermaster's Store in Old Barracks.

The old barracks near the drill shed are now occupied by both the commissary and quartermaster's departments of the United States Army at this post. Major Robinson has fully equipped his offices in the building recently occupied by the Chinese registration force, while the commissary officials are ensconced in the Ewa-makua rooms of the barracks. Over the great court within the barracks enclosure a roof has been erected so that all of the space may be occupied. The quartermaster's stores occupy the Ewa and the commissary department has its stores on the other side. Just at present the place is rather jammed but this is on account of the storing of a large part of Major Davis' private effects there temporarily. Major Davis is the new ranking officer at Camp McKinley.

NEW RULE ADOPTED.

Fire Insurance Agents Must Cut Out "Runners."

Hereafter no commissions will be paid for writing fire insurance except to agents and bona fide employees of agents. This rule has been adopted by the Honolulu Board of Underwriters. In the past anyone taking a "risk" into an agent's office would receive a commission for it, the amount of the commission depending upon the term of insurance, rate and total premium. For many years this system worked well, no difficulties being encountered; but lately the experiences of mainland cities have been almost repeated here. Not only has the city become filled with insurance "experts," or men prepared to take risks, but persons desiring insurance have themselves come to demand commissions on their own risks. To save themselves from the dangers of a promiscuous business, and to keep rates up to the fixed standard, the insurance agents have adopted this new rule. Hereafter fire insurance can only be taken out in the office of the agent and must be taken either from the agent himself or from one of his employees in the fire insurance business. Taking the tip from the fire insurance agents, the life insurance agents are considering the matter of the adoption of a similar rule. It is said that anyone bringing in an acceptable application to a life insurance agent is paid a commission. This system has gone on for years. It has now come to pass, however, that so many people know about it that when a man wants to insure he requires the rebate mentioned.

BUFFALO AND ELK.

"In some of the big game preserves in Vermont and the Adirondack mountains," said an Albany man recently, "the buffalo and elk herds are rapidly increasing in numbers, and this fact is leading sportsmen to hope that the extinction of these animals may yet be prevented. The difficulty in saving the buffalo is that there is no longer any wild nature land for him to feed upon. He is naturally an inhabitant of the plain, and plains have grown to be too valuable to be left in the undisturbed possession of the bison. The elk, on the other hand, thrives well in the hills, and is sufficiently protected by the law, there is plenty of wild mountain land on which he could live and multiply for years. The buffalo will probably never again roam in vast herds, but the race at least can be preserved, while the elk and other deer ought to populate our mountain wastes, secure from the merciless slaughter that has been theirs in the past."—New Bedford Republican Standard.

"I have been in the drug business for twenty years and have sold most all of the proprietary medicines of any note. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times."
