GAME MILES FOR CHILD

MRS. MARR OF MASSACHUSETTS IS A STAYER.

Follows Her Husband to Secure Possession of Their Child—Struggle for Youngster at Hawaiian Hotel.

Papers were filed this morning in the petition of Mrs. W. E. Marr, of Fall River, Mass., for her appointment as guardian of her infant son. The story told by the woman's petition is of a trip all the way from Fall River to recover the boy, after the father had stolen him and brought him to Honolulu.

The father is Walter Erwin Marr, employed at the Metropolitan Meat Market. He got possession of the boy four months ago in Massachusetts, and at once came to Honolulu, leaving no trace of his whereabouts. He separated from the mother nearly three years before. Mrs. Marr only recently learned that her husband had taken her child to Honolulu. She lost no time in starting after the boy.

Marr did not now his wife had come to Honolulu at all, until an officer served him with a summons issued by Gear, and the child was taken away from him. Last night the mother and son were together and the father was alone. He had been in the habit of leaving the boy in the Castle Home in the daytime, and calling to take him to dinner every night as soon as work was over. Marr was constantly with his child, and he was and was greatly distressed by the sudden prospect of losing him.

W. C. Marr caused quite a scene at the Hawaiian Hotel yesterday afternoon before the writ had been served on him restraining him from interfering with his wife or their child. When Marr found that his wife had taken the child from the Castle Home he went to the hotel and there attempted to forcibly take possession of the child. He grabbed the little one's leg and for a while he and his wife had a tug-of-war with the child as the rope. Finally Marr was forced to leave without the child. The writ was later served on him.

BROTHER AGAINST BROTHER.

Relatives Quarrel Over Possession of a Niece. A family quarrel was aired in the police court this morning when John Richards was tried for assault and battery on his brother, Manuel. No less than two nieces and a sister testified, in addition to the two brothers. There has been bad blood between the brothers as they have not spoken to even other during the last five years. Last Sunday one of the nieces of the brothers ran away from home and went up to her aunt's place in Palama. The little niece was afraid to return home for fear she would be chastised so she remained with Mrs. Bailey, the aunt.

In the meanwhile, Manuel Richards drove up to the house after the child and told her to come along home with him. She put on her clothes and started away but when they reached the gate the other people at the house called to her to come back her aunt saying she would take the child home. Manuel caught hold of the child and shoved her toward the carriage.

John the other brother happened to be standing there and he remonstrated with his brother for using what John considered violence toward the girl. Manuel uttered an insulting epithet so John claimed, whereupon John proceeded to strike him. A fight ensuing. The court fined the defendant $5 and costs.

ROAD SUFFERS FROM TIDES.

The high tides of late, besides washing away considerable portions of the beach have anything but improved the condition of the beach road. The low stone wall, while some protection against the actual force of the waves, has not proved a complete barrier to the surf which inundates the road bed regularly twice a day, turning the surface into a mud puddle between tides and making traffic unpleasant when not impracticable. The few palm trees which have managed to eke out a precarious existence have been inundated with the salt water and the last possibilities of an avenue of shady palms along the esplanade are now at an end it is said.

A HONOLULU ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement of Miss Gertrude Scott of Honolulu to Mr. Ivers is a matter of interest to quite a large circle here, as Miss Scott was a popular graduate from Berkeley and a member of one of the best fraternities there. Mr. Ivers is a brother of Mrs. William G. Irwin and his lived in the islands for many years, filling positions of prominence in connection with the enormous interests owned by his brother-in-law. Mr. Scott, the father of the bride-elect, has taught school for a long time in Honolulu, and after her graduation at Berkeley Miss Scott filled the position of assistant for several years.—San Francisco Bulletin.

CALIFORNIAN REACHES FRISCO.

Hawaiian-American Vessel Makes Good Trip Around Horn.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 29.—The good time of sixty-four days was made on the trip from New York to this port by the Californian, the pioneer of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company's line. The big freighter left New York June 16, and arrived yesterday bringing a cargo of 7400 tons, which included a large quantity of railroad and pig iron, sheet iron and general merchandise, besides 850 tons of coal. For the purpose of discharging the last-named item the steamer went to the bunkers at Mission wharf 2. Captain Lyons of the Californian was for years the master of the ship St. David, leaving the vessel at this port to take the position of chief officer of the new steamer, Hawaiian, and later taking command of the Californian, vice Captain Morrison, who succeeded Captain McDonald as commander of the steamer American, all of the same line. Captain Lyons reports that the Californian's trip from New York was pleasant and uneventful, except for three days of very rough weather, after passing Cape Pillar into the Pacific. The Oregonian, a sister ship, is now in port discharging a cargo of New York freight.

KNIGHTS BANQUET.

The Knights of Kadosh held a banquet in their hall last evening following the installation of officers. The following were present: Frederick Whittier, Albert Van Chief Gear, Lemuel Clark Ames, E. C. Brown, J. D. Tucker, David Dayton, E. R. Bath, George W. Burgess, A. M. Brown, George D. Gear, Edward S. Boyd, Louis Marks, David Kawanakoa, W. G. Ashley, B. H. Norton, Theodore Hoffman, C. B. Wood, M. Phillips, G. R. Collins, J. W. Pratt, J. O. Luttig, John C. Wagner, G. A. Davis, M. Grossman and Deputy Legate Henry E. Cooper.

FRANCE AND TURKEY.

PARIS, August 22.—The Matin this morning announces that the French second-class cruiser Cassard started for Turkish waters yesterday, and that a naval division is ready to follow. CONSTANTINOPLE, August 21.—The French Ambassador, M. Constans, has notified the Sultan's first secretary that all diplomatic relations between France and Turkey are broken off and that the Ambassador has informed his Government to that effect. M. Constans communicated directly with the Sultan because the latest negotiations were transacted with the Sultan personally.

The Ambassador justifies his action on the ground that the Sultan broke his direct, personal promise, given to M. Constans at an audience in the Yildiz palace on Thursday regarding the purchase of the quays and the settlement of the disputed French claims. The Foreign Minister also gave formal assurances that the agreement would be carried out, so in view of this breach of faith M. Constans holds that it is impossible for France to continue diplomatic relations with Turkey.

FUN ON THE SONOMA.

The Sonoma passengers made merry aboard the steamer on her last trip. Monday night there was a concert in the saloon. Among those who took part were: Miss Pfeil the captain's granddaughter, Mrs. Curtis in recitation; Mrs. Heary and Miss Needham in a duet, W. A. Love in a violin solo and Kelihoi and Kumalae in Hawaiian songs. Tuesday was field day. John Holt carried off four prizes, Rev. Erlman three and W. C. Crook three. In the evening Mrs. Heary won the first prize and Miss Humberg booby prize in progressive euchre; W. C. Crook and manager K. S. Gjerdrum gentleman's first and booby prizes respectively. Captain Van Oterendorp presided over the different events.
