TO PUNISH TREASON.
MANILA, October 31.—The Philippine Commission has drafted an act against treason and sedition. The penalty prescribed for treason is death, and the act is framed to include those persons giving aid and comfort to the insurgents. Persons who utter seditious words or speeches or who write libels against the United States Government or the insular government are punishable by the imposition of a fine of $200 or two years' imprisonment.
For breaking the oath of allegiance a fine of $200 or imprisonment for two years is fixed as the penalty. Foreigners are placed under the same laws as are Americans and natives. A public discussion of the act will be had Saturday.

AT THE CIRCUS.
Owing to the rather inclement weather, there was not so large an attendance at the circus last night as the excellence of the program warranted.
Frank Beverley was quite amusing as the clown, but not so amusing however as with his side partner the Russian Finn in the candle dodging stunt. The balance of the show was quite good and the audience enjoyed the performance.

thing of that kind, as near as I can remember it."

SUPREME JUDGES DIFFER

THE KAMALO SUGAR CASE IS REMAINED.

Galbraith Raises a Point as to Methods Of Procedure on Appeal—More Testimony to Be Taken.

The Supreme Court yesterday handed down a decision, by Perry and Deputy Attorney General Cathcart, with Galbraith dissenting, remanding the Kamalo case to the First Circuit court for further proceedings, on the ground that the Circuit Court erred in refusing to allow the defendants to introduce testimony in support of their answer to amendments made to the complaint after the evidence closed.

The amendments charged fraud in the alleged taking of $120,000 worth of Kamalo stock by Huxton, Egan and Foster, whereas the original bill only charged fraud as to $35,000 said to have been appropriated on the McCortiston land deal. Under the amended bill a decree was signed by Judge Humphreys for both amounts, making a judgment for $155,000. The lower court held that in the original proceedings the testimony as to the $120,000 was complete, while the Supreme court holds that further evidence ought to have been allowed.

Galbraith's dissent is an objection to the procedure of the Supreme court in hearing and deciding a part of the appeal instead of the whole case. He declares that the Supreme court ought to have gone into the entire issue and decided the whole matter at once, instead of allowing the litigants to take up one alleged error of the lower court and submit it alone. Galbraith remarks that such a procedure will make much litigation, and means more than one argument and decision in a single case.

After the filing of the decision reminding the case Attorney George A.
Davis at once filed a motion in the first circuit court, asking that the case be set for hearing at once. It was heard by Judge Humphreys and will then go to the Supreme court on its merits, to be argued and decided as a whole.

This morning Judge Humphreys set the case for December 8 with the understanding that it should take precedence over any other equity matter, but that term business should have the right of way. The court said that the present term would undoubtedly be extended, and that no case would be allowed to take precedence of jury trials.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

President Roosevelt has designated Thursday, November 28 as Thanksgiving day in the following, his first Thanksgiving Day proclamation:

The season is rich when, according to the time-hallowed custom of our people, the president appoints a day as the special occasion for praise and thanksgiving to God. This thanksgiving finds the people still bowed with sorrow for the death of a great and good president. We mourn President McKinley because we so loved and honored him; and the manner of his death should awaken in the breasts of our people a keen anxiety for the country, and at the same time a resolute purpose not to be driven by any calamity from the path of strong, orderly, popular liberty, which, as a nation, we have thus far safely trod.

Yet in spite of this great disaster, it is nevertheless true that no people on earth have such abundant cause for thanksgiving as we have. The past year in particular has been one of peace and plenty. We have prospered in things material and have been able to work for our own uplifting in things intellectual and spiritual. Let us remember that, as much has been given to us, much will be expected from us; and that true homage comes from the heart, as well as from the lips, and shows itself in deeds. We can best prove our thankfulness to the Almighty by the way in which on this earth and at this time each of us does his duty to his fellows.

Now, therefore, I, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States, do hereby designate as a day of general thanksgiving, Thursday, the 28th day of this present November, and do recommend that throughout the land the people cease from their wonted occupations and at their several homes and places of worship, thank the Giver of all good for the countless blessings of our national life.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.
Done at the City of Washington, this second day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and twenty-sixth.

(Seal.) THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
By the President:
JOHN HAY,
Secretary of State.

CHICAGO, October 31.—Rev. Frank Crane, who resigned the pastorate of the Hyde Park Methodist Church to accept a call from the People's Church, will preach the first sermon to his new flock a week from Sunday. Mr. Crane will receive a yearly salary of $7,500, more than twice his salary at the Hyde Park Church, and he will be the best render at the next meeting of the Rock River conference his license to preach as a Methodist minister. Dr. W. H.

Thomas, who resigned the pastorate of the People's Church because of his advanced age, has been made pastor emeritus at an annual salary of $1,500.

CHICAGO, October 31.—Judge Elbridge Hancey of the Circuit Court issued an order this evening summoning before him at 10 o'clock next Monday morning the owner of the Chicago American, William R. Hearst, and six employees of the paper, to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of court. The publications on which this action was taken were news items, editorials and cartoons reflecting on the motives of the Judge in a recent decision in which the People's Gas Light and Coke Company of this city was interested.

MONEY ORDER SYSTEM.

Business This Year Three Hundred Million Dollars.

The money-order system of the United States has grown to immense proportions and is steadily increasing. During the current year the business done will involve about $300,000,000 in money orders issued alone. For the last fiscal year the number of domestic orders given out was 35,586,579, amounting to nearly $275,000,000. International orders, 1,247,885, aggregating over $20,000,000.
The gross revenue to the Government was over $1,600,000. The number of domestic offices in operation at the present time is 39,529; international, 4132.
The accuracy of the services may be inferred from the fact that the loss sustained through the improper payment of money orders in two years has amounted to only $172.45. A strong incentive to care in this direction is the rule that the Postmaster who pays the wrong person is the loser, not the payee the remitter or the Government.

PHILIPPINE REGIMENTS RETURN

WASHINGTON, November 2.—General Miles has recommended that the Eleventh Cavalry and the Twenty-eighth Infantry be sent to the Philippines to take the place of regiments which have been serving there three years or more and whose terms of enlistment are about to expire. The order will not interfere with the department's plans for reducing the Army in the Philippines. The regiments are to be returned as soon as the transports are ready and are the Fourth, Twentieth and Twenty-second Infantry who have been longest in the islands.

13 CENTS A DAY.
The postmaster at Grand Tawwell,

THINK OF THESE THINGS.

If we cannot eat we starve; if we refuse to eat we starve; if we are prevented from eating we starve. Everybody who does not die of violence finally starves to death. "In nearly all diseases," says an eminent English physician, "starvation is the final cause of death." It is not the food on the table, but the food you eat and digest, that nourishes you. In all wasting complaints the supply does not equal the loss. The appetite and digestion weaken or fail and the body fades away. The true remedy must be one which at the same time invigorates the digestive powers and acts, in and of itself, as a food. It must build up the body faster than it is destroyed and also stop the tendency to wasting by curing the disease. Modern science has planned such a remedy within our reach; and the wasting diseases, which have so long been the terror of the human race, yield at once to the healing power of WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION.

It is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.
Ext's of Malt and Wild Cherry.
The palate accepts it as it does sugar, confectionery or cream.
You don't have to force it down the children. You don't turn away from it yourself. So far as this preparation is concerned, medicine time is as welcome as meal time. The action of this effective remedy is prompt and its effects permanent; taken before meals it goes to the very secret stronghold of all digestive disorders. Prevents and cures Fevers, Anemia, Bowel Complaints, Rheumatism, Head and Lung Troubles, and all diseases due to impurity of the blood. Effective from the first dose. "Never disappoints." Sold by all chemists.

SWEDISH SALVATIONISTS

ROYALTY UPHOLDS THE ARMY MOVEMENT.

Ecclesiastics Overruled in Attempted Interference with Salvation Army Methods—Queen Deeply Interested.

The municipalities of Stockholm and other cities of Sweden have entered into contract with the Salvation Army to look after the poor and distressed and to take care of the tramps and other floating population. There are similar arrangements between the Salvation Army and the city governments of Melbourne and Sydney, Australia, but Sweden is the only country on this side of the globe in which the army is officially recognized and has been utilized as a part of the municipal machinery for charitable and benevolent work.

In the City of Stockholm are eighteen institutions maintained by the Salvation Army under the direction of Colonel Edwin Oliphant, an Englishman, who has made a great reputation as an organizer and executive. Under his direction the arrangements referred to have been accomplished and the city officials have been relieved from all the trouble and responsibility of work among the poor by intrusting it to him and his assistants of "Frainings-Armeen," as they call it in Sweden.

Colonel Oliphant has had the personal as well as the official sympathy, encouragement and co-operation of the king and queen, and also that of the Prince and Princess Oscar, who have not only contributed liberally but have taken an active part in the rescue work. The wife of Prince Oscar, the second son of the king, is director of an association for rescue work among women, and the prince often visits the Salvation Army stations and speaks at its meetings.

The king is a regular contributor to its funds, and has several times received Colonel Oliphant at the palace and given him personal assurances of protection against the interference of the established church, which is not friendly to the Salvation Army. The bishops and other members of the ecclesiastical department of the government do not like its methods, and, furthermore, would prefer to look after the charities themselves and have the money that is subscribed by benevolent people and appropriated by the municipal government for the relief of the poor. The king has several times overruled them when they have attempted to interfere, and the municipal officials have taken their cue from him rather than from the bishops and clergy. The queen is deeply interested in the missions among fallen women, and her daughter-in-law frequently reports to her concerning the details of their work.—W. E. Curtis in Chicago Record-Herald.

GENERAL BULLER DENIES.

LONDON, October 31.—General Buller, speaking today to a reporter of the London Morning News regarding the telegram to General White, which is attributed to him by the National Review, said:
"That is not my telegram." General Buller threatens to blossom into a British Boulanger. He does not appear to court privacy or to discourteous demonstrations. He attended a theater in London last evening, and when he was recognized and cheered, he rose to his feet and bowed his acknowledgments. Outside the building General Buller was surrounded by cheering crowds and the police had to be called in to clear a way.

MOST RELEASED ON BONDS.

NEW YORK, October 31.—Johann Most, the anarchist, recently sent to the penitentiary for the publication in his paper of an article entitled "Murder vs. Murder," was released today in bonds of $1,500. He has been granted a certificate of reasonable doubt.
