HONOKAA CHURCH MATTERS. HONOKAA, October 7.—At a business meeting held after church services in Honokaa, Jas. Gibb was re-elected chairman and L. E. Schellberg, secretary and treasurer. The services of Rev. C. W. Hill were secured for the ensuing year to be held twice each month. Mr. Hill is doing splendid work in Honokaa and is very popular throughout Hamakua.

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY. A public reception was held today from eleven to one o'clock at the residence of His British Majesty's Consul W. R. Hoere on King street at the late residence of T. Rain Walker. The Union Jack floated from the flagstaff in the grounds and uniformed police stood at the entrance gates. The occasion was the celebration of the birthday of King Edward the Seventh and the British colony turned out in full rig to do honor to the occasion, the consul receiving his guests on the lawn. A health to his majesty was toasted with appropriate remarks.

POLO COLORS. The colors of the four competing polo teams are as follows. Oahu: Blue jacket, white collar, white band on sleeves and white cap. Hilo: Light pink and Nile green in combination. Maui: Pure Canary yellow with black cap and Kauai, red and white in combination, probably a red stripe across the white blouse.
