WISCONSIN IS COALING.

Big Battleship Can Probably be Inspected on Wednesday.

The battleship Wisconsin came into the harbor yesterday morning. Captain Rodman the commandant of the Naval station and Pilot Sanders were on the bridge with Captain Sebes the commander of the vessel. The vessel was docked beautifully in the Naval Slip, alongside wharf No. 2. The vessel is coaling today. She will probably be thrown open to inspection Wednesday as the coaling will be completed tomorrow afternoon and ship be cleaned then.

The vessel will get away for Yokohama about the end of the week. She has a base ball team aboard and it is not unlikely that a game with some of the local nines may be arranged. Rear Admiral Yates Stirling is on the vessel, going out to the Asiatic station. The other officers of the vessel are: Captain Uriel Schree, U. S. N., Commander; Lieut.-Comdr. H. T. Mayo, Ex. Officer; Lieut.-Comdr. A. W. Dodd, Nav. Officer; Lieut.-Comdr. G. W. McElroy, Ch. Engr.; Lieut. H. A. Wiley, Ord. Officer; Lieutenant W. D. McDougall, Watch or Division Officer; Lieutenant P. Williams, Watch or Division Officer; Lieutenant C. T. Vogelgesang, Watch or Division Officer; Lieutenant D. E. FIGHT WITH EAGLE.

James Ogle, a farmer at Nashville, Ind., had a fight with an eagle recently which came near proving serious. He was working with his two sons when he heard some of his lambs bleating. He went to investigate and as he was climbing a fence a large eagle flew at him, struck him on the head and chest with its wings and knocked him down. It then flew away and Ogle went for a gun and then to his lambs. He found that two had been killed, and while he was looking at them the eagle came back and attacked him a second time. He fired several shots at it, and it flew away, seemingly unhurt.

MYSTERY OF MURDER AT MAKUA

The defense was begun this morning. In his opening statement to the jury Attorney Robertson stated that the defense would not offer any affirmative theory to account for the death of Joseph Perry, not being under any obligation to do so. The defense would be a denial of the charge, said Robertson, and a further attack upon the "already dilapidated" case of the prosecution, as Robertson put it.

According to the defense's statement the report that a mule had kicked Perry was first given by Kaia. Murphy was in a building close by and did not see or hear anything of the tragedy.

IROQUOIS SAILS ON TUESDAY NEXT

PROGRAM CABLE LAYING VESSELS, PROVIDES THAT SHE SHALL LEAVE MIDWAY ABOUT JUNE 18 TO LAY FINAL SECTION CABLE TO HONOLULU—IROQUOIS DEPARTS FOR MIDWAY THURSDAY MORNING.

The U. S. S. Iroquois will sail for Midway on Tuesday morning. The exact hour of departure has not been settled yet, but she will get away some time in the morning. She will reach Midway about June 5 which will give her about two weeks time for Commander Pond to attend to his work before either of the cable ships make their appearance.

According to advices received last week, it was uncertain which of the cable ships would go to Midway. Both vessels will arrive there. The Anglia is due to reach Midway June 18 and the Colonia on the day following. The Anglia is to lay the final section of cable between Midway and Honolulu and she may reach this place July 3.

Part of the program for the movements of the two vessels has been started. The Colonia was due to arrive at Manila Bay May 18. She sailed from Manila on the day following. It was at first thought that the Colonia was laying the section of cable between Manila and Guam, but later advices indicate that the larger of the boats is to lay the section between Guam and Midway. This is the most difficult and longest section. The Anglia will lay the sections between Manila and Guam and Midway and Honolulu. The Colonia is due at Guam on May 28, and due at Midway June 19, a day after the Anglia. The departure of the Colonia from Manila has been reported in the press dispatches.

No report of the movements of the Anglia has been received through the regular news reports. She was due at Manila May 21, Guam June 2, and Midway June 19, and Honolulu July 3. If the plans of the cable construction people, which is the Telegraph Construction and Maintenance Company are realized, she will complete the cable by July 4. This company laid the Canadian-Australian cable for the Pacific Cable Board.

The Iroquois will remain at Midway until after the business of landing the cable at that place will have been completed, and the Anglia starts on her journey to Honolulu. The cable construction company has figured on laying the cable at quite a rapid rate of speed.

It is not unlikely that some of the Oriental vessels will drop down by Midway Island, while the Iroquois is lying at that place. The Siberia is due to sail from Honolulu June 2. She will take about six days to get to Midway, so she will be close on the heels of the naval vessel. The S. S. Coptic is due to sail from Honolulu June 10 for the Orient. She will pass Midway about June 16. If both of these vessels stop at that place, mail and other communication can be sent to the government party and the party that went out on the steamer Hanalei.

Chinese Coolies In Samoa

THE NEW CONTRACT LABORERS JUST IMPORTED ARE HELD UNDER VERY STRICT REGULATIONS—IT IS REPORTED THAT SOME OF THEM HAVE RUN AWAY ALREADY—SUPPLIED WITH LEGITIMATION PAPERS.

APIA, May 9.—Every one of the newly imported Chinese laborers will be supplied with a legitimation paper with a number thereon, so that anyone who leaves his employer can be easily traced. Any laborer who desires to come into Apia must get a written order from his employer; and anyone found at large without his employer's order will be arrested.

It is rumored that several Chinamen have run away owing to their being insufficiently supplied with food.

This may be true, and it may be not; but we hear that the laborers are imported from different districts, and speak several different dialects; so it stands to reason that if one man finds himself amongst a crowd of practically a different nationality to himself, with whom he cannot speak or make friends, he has a just cause for complaint.—Samoanische Zeitung.

A USEFUL MAN.

Rev. Dr. William G. Ballantine's recent presidency of Oberlin college receives deserved recognition, on a side of which too little has been said, in a communication of the Congregationalist from Dan F. Bradley, an alumnus of the institution:

President Ballantine, who as professor of Hebrew and Old Testament literature had brought to Oberlin a new type of inspiring scholarship of the modern sort, found himself in the leadership of Oberlin's destiny when the old methods of faculty administration had broken down and trustees' responsibility had not yet been assumed by the board. There were dangerous deficits year by year, there were no budgets presented to the trustees, the funds of the college were badly loaned and large tracts of nearly worthless western real estate had been foreclosed for failure to pay interest. The employment of financial agents was being discredited by givers and things looked gloomy. Under Ballantine business methods were promptly introduced, an effective trustees' committee took charge of investments, an annual budget was submitted showing estimated receipts and expenditures, and the faculty estimates were kept down to the income. Teachers were not appointed except after the scrutiny of a trustees' committee, and Oberlin slowly got its affairs so organized that with King as dean and Barrows as president it leaped forward to the place that belongs to it in the educational life of the interior states. These things ought to be mentioned now, not only for the proper recognition of a man whose services were of such a character that they would not easily be appreciated, but also for the correction of the common impression that religious colleges, churches, benevolent societies somehow do their work and have success without reference to sound business methods. Oberlin without the reorganization of Ballantine's administration might today have been bankrupt and dying.

Grand Jury Makes Report

Says That With Only Fourteen Members Some Cases Are Dismissed That Ought Not To Be.

The grand jury made its final report this morning and was discharged by Judge Robinson, with the thanks of the court and special thanks to Foreman Pearson and Secretary Rose for their services. In the report the jurors complained that there were not enough members, making the following recommendations:

"With a grand jury of but fourteen members it requires an almost unanimous vote to secure a true bill, but despite this fact your grand jury has presented to you seventeen true bills and has considered twelve additional cases in which no bills were found.

"It is a settled conviction in the minds of this grand jury that, with the number of cases considered, a greater number of true bills would have been found had there been a greater number of grand jurors in the panel, and it therefore follows that in some instances the ends of justice may have been and undoubtedly were defeated by so few votes being required to secure a dismissal.

"Your grand jury feels that too much stress cannot be laid upon this point and would therefore recommend that hereafter no grand jury be empanelled consisting of less than eighteen members."

Judge Robinson expressed his approval of the recommendations.

NO GRACE FOR DELINQUENTS

THE TAX OFFICE WILL BEGIN SUITS IF NECESSARY AFTER THE FIRE CLAIMS MONEY IS PAID—FIRE CLAIMANTS ARE KEEPING THEIR PROMISES TO PAY WHEN THEY GOT THEIR MONEY.

The delinquent tax list will receive the attention of Collector Pratt as soon as the fire claims money is paid out, and a lot of suits may be brought against persons whose taxes are long overdue, but who have been given leniency on account of the claims not having been paid. Deputy Amana was on duty at the bank this morning, collecting taxes from those who promised to pay when they got their fire claims money.

"Those who are receiving money and owe taxes are paying up very well," said Major Pratt. "We agreed to give time and not bring suits because many of the delinquents had no cash. They promised to pay when the fire claims money was paid to them and so far they appear to be keeping the promise. The tax office got about $600 of the money paid on Saturday and I think that was probably about our share.

PLEASEING ENTERTAINMENT.

An excellent entertainment was given at the Catholic Benevolent Union's hall under the direction of the Literary Committee last evening, the program consisting of solos and violin and piano recitals by Father Valentine, Mrs. A. W. Seabury and the Misses Mary and Lily Salter.

The program opened with a piano and violin selection by the Misses Salters, followed with a short address by Pro-Vicar (now Bishop-elect) Libert. Father Valentine then rendered with his strong baritone voice "The Holy City," followed by the solo, "Rosie Deane" by Mrs. A. W. Seabury. A well received solo by Miss Mary Salter closed the program for the evening.

The club now has a very large membership and it is the desire of the Board of Directors to give similar entertainment on different occasions with stereopticon pictures and lectures by some of its foremost members.
