REFUSED TO PAY KEPOIKAI'S FEE

THE TREASURER APPEALS FROM AUDITOR'S DENIAL OF HIS COUNSEL'S FEE.

Treasurer Kepoikai has appealed to the Supreme Court from a ruling of auditor Fisher refusing to allow his bill of $500 for Kinney, McClanshan and Cooper for a counsel fee in connection with Kepoikai's suit to prevent the transfer of the water works to the county supervisors. This is the suit which Judge De Bolt threw out of court.

Kepoikai's petition in the Supreme Court is as follows: "Your appellant A. N. Kepoikai, Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii, respectfully represents:

"1. That he is the Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii and as such Treasurer he is charged with the expenditure of the funds appropriated by law for the use of the Treasury Department of the Territory of Hawaii including funds appropriated for 'Incidentals' of said Department.

"2. That in or about the month of December, A. D. 1903, your appellant deemed it necessary for the proper performance of his duties as Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii and for the interests of his office and of the Territory of Hawaii, to bring a suit against C. S. Holloway, Superintendent of Public Works of the Territory of Hawaii, and Andrew Brown, Superintendent of the Honolulu Water Works, to restrain them from transferring to certain County Boards of Supervisors, created by Act 31 of the Session Laws of 1901, the waterworks, pipes, conduits and sewers of the Territory of Hawaii, and the control and management of the same, appellant verily believing that said Act 31 was void and that said transfer if made, would work irreparable damage to the Territory of Hawaii, and to himself as Treasurer of the Territory.

"3. That your appellant at divers times went to the office of the Attorney-General of the Territory of Hawaii, for the purpose of consulting with him regarding said suit, but was at no time able to find said Attorney General; that appellant well knew that said Attorney General would be opposed to and would not prosecute the said suit, the said Attorney General being an ardent supporter of said Act 31 of the Session Laws of 1903, and having supported and tried to uphold the same both in the Circuit Court of the First Circuit and in the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii; that the case was urgent and appellant thereupon employed the law firm of Kinney, McClanshan & Cooper to conduct said case, which the said firm did; that the case involved the transfer of property yielding a revenue of $97,000 or thereabout and the validity of the aforesaid Act 31 of the Session Laws of 1903, or vital parts thereof.

"4. That the said suit was duly brought; that the Attorney General aforesaid appeared on behalf of the aforesaid Holloway and Brown and filed a plea in abatement to said suit questioning appellant's right to sue; that said plea was sustained by the Honorable J. T. De Bolt, First Judge of the First Circuit from which said ruling your appellant appealed to the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii.

"5. That said suit of appellant was an important one and involved careful preparation both on the merits and in regard to the point raised by the aforesaid plea in abatement, and that the reasonable value of the services performed by the aforesaid firm of Kinney, McClanshan & Cooper was $500 or more.

"6. That a bill for $500 was duly presented by said firm to appellant for their services in full in said case, a copy of which is hereto annexed and marked 'Exhibit A'; that the same was duly approved by appellant and certified to by the Registrar of Public Accounts of the Territory of Hawaii, a copy of which said approval and certification is hereto annexed and marked 'Exhibit B'; but that said Auditor has refused to audit said account or draw a warrant for the same and has returned the same unsatisfied, although the said appropriation for 'Incidentals' of the Treasurer's office is amply sufficient to pay the same; that a copy of the said Auditor's letter refusing to audit said account is hereto annexed and marked 'Exhibit C'; and a copy of the Attorney General's opinion, referred to therein, is hereto annexed and marked 'Exhibit D'.

"7. That your appellant is aggrieved by the decision so rendered by said Auditor and gives notice of his intention to appeal and hereby does appeal from such decision to the Justices of the Supreme Court of the Territory of Hawaii, for such relief in whole or in part as shall appear just and reasonable in the premises.

"Dated February 4th, 1904.

A. N. KEPOIKAI,

"Treasurer of the Territory of Hawaii."

WANTS THE RODRIGUEZ REWARD
P. N. Motos the watchman at Puloa switch who assisted in the capture of Pedro Rodriguez the escaped Porto Rican convict, thinks he ought to have the reward of $50 for the capture of the convict.
