This property comprises one of the most desirable grazing tracts of the District and the source of the Keawenui stream, an unfailing water supply, is located on the upper or mauka portion of the property which is considered the best fattening land in the neighborhood.

The property extends from a point near Kawaihae Landing to the mountain known as Kaumu o Kaleihookihoe, a distance of about eight miles, varying in width from one to two miles.

At Kawaihae there is on the property, adjoining the Parker place, a very desirable House lot.

The area of this land is 10,600 Acres, more or less.

The purchaser will be required under the terms of the lease to fence the forest portion of the property in the vicinity of the water heads or source of the Keawenui stream, and otherwise provide for the exclusion of cattle from the forest portion by the erection of a five-rail fence so constructed to keep the cattle out.

Lessee must also keep down the lantana on the property. No live timber to be cut on the forest portion except for fence posts to be used on the ground, and the cutting of algaroba on the lower portion must be confined to thinning out and trimming.

REPORT AGAINST SUBMARINE BOATS

REAR-ADMIRAL WALKER

Rear Admiral Walker has made a report in which he discourages the Navy Department in attempts to make practical use of submarine boats at present. The admiral recently made a trip to Europe, during which he studied the question of submarines. His report was in substance that none of the inventions have yet reached a degree of perfection which warrants the Navy Department in attempting to construct submarines. The admiral's report is in a sense confirmed by the fact that neither Russia nor Japan has made use of such vessels in the present war, though even one of them operating successfully might have changed the whole course of events.

EARLY LIFE OF H. M. WHITNEY

SOME INTERESTING REMINISCENCES BY THE REV. SERENO BISHOP, WENT ROUND THE HORN IN A WHALING VESSEL WHEN ONLY FIVE YEARS OF AGE--HOW WHITNEY HAPPENED TO COME TO HONOLULU.

EDITOR STAR:--Permit correction of what I believe to be an error in your issue of 17th inst in calling Mr. Whitney "one of the California Argonauts of that year" (1849). I was in Rochester, his American home at the time, and deeply interested in his movements, and knew that he hurriedly left a very responsible position in New York City, under positive engagement to take charge of the Government printing office in Honolulu. He was hastily married the day before sailing for Panama. I met his bride a few days later in Rochester. She soon after took passage for Honolulu around Cape Horn. He may have met Dr. Judd in San Francisco, but was certainly not "induced" at that time by him to go to Honolulu, being already bound thither. Some reminiscences of Mr. Whitney's early life may be of interest. At the tender age of five, with his older brother Samuel, he was sent around Cape Horn in charge of a kind-scholarship skipper, who however was so inconsiderate as to take the two little kids out in a whaleboat which killed a whale! An

HE SAILED AMONG MINES

DEADLY PERIL OF THE FOUR-MASTED SCHOONER MINDORO, WHOSE CAPTAIN UNKNOWINGLY SAILED HER THROUGH FLOATING MINES INTO THE HARBOR OF HAKODATE--DID NOT KNOW MINES HAD BEEN PLANTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 6.--Had the four-masted schooner Mindoro been a Russian torpedo boat instead of an inoffensive American trading vessel the Japanese stronghold of Hakodate might now be in possession of the czar's fleet, for the windjammer accomplished a feat which the little brown men considered an impossibility. Without a pilot, and at night, she sailed into Hakodate harbor, passing through the thickly-mined entrance without mishap, and anchored inside before she was seen by the Japanese guard ship. It is a tale that the men of the Mindoro are thankful they are alive to tell. They related it yesterday when the Mindoro came into this port, sulphur laden, from Hakodate. The Mindoro, Captain E. C. Larsen, sailed in ballast from the port of Shanghai for Hakodate to load sulphur for this port. Captain Larsen was unaware that Hakodate was a closed port, and when he arrived off that place on the evening of June 14th he sailed fearlessly in, unconscious of the great danger he ran in passing through the entrance, in which were planted many submarine mines.

The schooner was leaving to when a Japanese guardship ran alongside. The astounded Japanese officers rebuked Larsen for the act. The vessel was held for two days by the Japanese officials, and before she was released her master was compelled to write an apology for his action to the commander of the port. Captain Larsen said yesterday: "The American Consul at Shanghai is entirely to blame for the awful risk to which I subjected my vessel and my men. He failed to notify me that Hakodate is strongly fortified, and at the time of my departure there were three torpedo boats and one cruiser in the harbor. The Russian Vladivostok squadron was reported several times off the port, and great excitement prevailed in the town."

The Mindoro also brings the story of how the American barkentine James Johnson, owned by Charles Nelson of this city, was stopped and searched by the Vladivostok fleet. It was while she was on her way from Shanghai to Hakodate in ballast that a Russian cruiser fired a shot across her bow. A Russian officer boarded the vessel, searched her, examined her papers, and, after compelling the captain to sign a paper stating that his treatment had been courteous and civil, they allowed him to proceed on his voyage.

MAUI DECLARES FOR KALANIANA'OLE

DISTRICT MEETING AT WAILUKU DECIDES TO CAST THE CONVENTION VOTES FOR HIM.

WAILUKU, August 18.--On last Monday morning the old district committee of the Republican party met at the court house to wind up the business of the party. The new delegates to the district convention then met in the afternoon at the same place, and effected temporary organization with A. N. Keopika as chairman and J. N. K. Keola, Secretary. After organization, the convention deemed it best to adjourn the meeting until the Molokai delegates, would arrive, as they had been telegraphed the day previous of the meeting.

On Tuesday evening, chairman Keopika called the meeting to order at 8 p. m. after the arrival of Hon. H. P. Baldwin. It was then reported that the Molokai delegates, six in number, had gone on to Halawa to await the Likiep, but that they changed their minds at the last moment and decided not to come to Maui, for fear the meeting may have adjourned upon their arrival. Baldwin did not favor transacting any business during the evening, until permanent organization could be effected and this he thought best to defer until all the delegates from the different precincts could be present. This view of the matter met with general approbation from the delegates present.

Delegate Pogue, of Hilo, then presented a resolution, the substance of which favored the renomination of Kuhio for delegate to congress. He spoke at some length in support of the resolution, stating that as Maui had the honor of nominating Kuhio for delegate at the last Territorial convention, it was no more than proper that Maui should again back Kuhio. This met with hearty cheers from all sides. Keola thought that it was not the proper time to bring up the resolution, as the committee was not permanently organized but he met with such a storm of words from the other members of the convention, that he sided in with the rest when the resolution was put to a vote. Keola was basing his contention on a technicality, but as Senator Baldwin stated, he did not know of any rule in Cushing, or Roberts, that was contrary to bringing up a resolution of that nature, when the convention was temporarily organized.

Pogue then stated that the resolution was brought up at this time simply because the convention would not meet again until after the Territorial convention at Hilo. All the members spoke heartily in favor of Kuhio, and when the resolution was put, it carried unanimously, with three cheers for the prince.

Pogue next moved that when the convention does adjourn, that it adjourn to meet again on September 3th in Lahaina court house, at 10 a. m. Several members spoke in favor of the motion. Delegate Henning of Lahaina, thanked the convention for their action in meeting in Lahaina on September 5th, and stated that Lahaina was badly in need of Republican work. He also stated that the Lahaina delegation would see to it that the different delegates would be well taken care of, and that Lahaina would extend the glad hand to the visiting delegates.

The meeting adjourned at 9:30 p. m. and went into caucus informally.

WILL REMAIN IN THE SENATE

RUNNING FOR VICE PRESIDENT WILL NOT CAUSE FAIRBANKS TO RESIGN HIS SEAT.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 20.--It has been definitely decided that Senator Fairbanks will not resign from his seat in the United States senate because of the vice-presidential nomination. He will go through the campaign as United States senator, and if he is elected to the vice presidency, the senator thinks that will be time enough to resign. If he is defeated in the vice presidential election, it will not be necessary for him to be elected over again to the Senate.

If the Democrats should succeed in electing enough members in the state legislature to give them a majority, the senator and the Republicans of Indiana would not be taking the chance of losing the seat in the senate to the Democrats. The senator has nearly five years in the senate before this present term expires. The term of Senator Beveridge will expire on March 5 next. No one in Indiana questions but that Senator Beveridge will be elected to succeed himself in case the state legislature is Republican, and it is altogether likely that it will be.

There is a great scramble among the Republican politicians of the state looking toward the election of a legislature that will be committed to certain candidates who hope to succeed Senator Fairbanks in the United States senate in anticipation of his election to the vice presidency.

Among those who aspire to Senator Fairbanks' seat are Governor Durbin, Representative James Hemenway, Representative Landis, Harry S. New, Addison C. Harris, James Griffiths and Judge Crumpacker. All of these gentlemen seem to be making a very active campaign. The impression is quite general that Governor Durbin, so far, is in the lead, although Harry S. New and Representative Hemenway are thought to be very strong.

Nehemiah Murcott of East Hampton, Ct., is smoking some cigars over 30 years old. They were made by the widow of Stephen Mitchell, who sold these cigars, hand-made with Havana filler for one cent each. In settling the estate of a dealer who handled them Mr. Murcott came into possession of a box. While the cigars are hard they smoke exceedingly well.

CHOOSE DATE OF CONVENTION

REPUBLICANS MET LAST EVENING AND SELECTED SEPTEMBER 17 FOR THEIR BIG GATHERING.

The Republican convention for the nomination of Senators for the island of Oahu will meet in Honolulu on Saturday September 17 and immediately its labors are concluded the Republican District committees for the Fourth and Fifth districts will meet to select their candidates for Representatives. This was decided upon at a conference between representatives of the two districts held at the Republican headquarters last evening. The Fourth district was represented by a specially named committee consisting of Lorrin Andrews, chairman; Frank Andrade, George Sen, R. N. Boyd, Al Moore, Gus Rose, Clem K. Quinn, W. Holl Thornton.

The Fifth was represented by its executive committee comprising H. C. Vida, chairman; A. St. C. Pianaia, E. R. Adams, Frank Paha, S. W. Logan, Andrew Cox, C. J. Holt, George W. Nawawaka, I. Cockett, A. S. Kalelopu, William Isaac.

C. L. Crabbe being with the others present. Lorrin Andrews acted as chairman and A. St. C. Pianaia as secretary. It took very little time to get down to business for the feeling seemed unanimous that Saturday September 17 would be the best day for all concerned and failing any other suggestion this date was agreed upon. It was decided that the choice of senatorial candidates should come first, the convention opening at 7:30.

Vida, Adams and Quinn were named as a committee to select a hall for the convention. Vida's name was suggested when it came to a choice for some one to call the convention to order but he declined and Nawawaka was elected while Pianaia was chosen to act as temporary secretary. The call will be issued by the chairman of the districts.

pass through the hands of the clergy, so that those who contribute may be sure it is applied in the right channels. The goodly sum of nearly $5,000 has been expended for charity in the five years existence of the society, and the amount of good this has accomplished will never fully be known. But one thing is certain, no like amount has ever been expended in more worthy charity. The society has most excellent facilities for reaching those who really need and deserve charity, and every cent expended is made to accomplish the purpose intended.

CATHOLIC UNION

"The following table shows the amounts received and expended by years since organization. It will be seen that the disbursements have exceeded the receipts in all but the first year but the society never refuses a worthy case no matter what race, color or creed, as long as there is a cent in the treasury. "In a Territory like this, where there are no public charitable institutions, all private ones must take their place. All the society asks is that when it appeals to the public through an entertainment, dance, or any other form of raising funds that they will remember the good work the Union has done and respond cheerfully and generously. The officers and active members of the society give their time and efforts freely and unsparringly for the benefit of their more unfortunate fellow men, and the public can at times assist them greatly in the greatest of all virtues, the noble work of charity.

"The following table how the receipts and disbursements for the time the society has been a existence:

Year	Ending Receipts for Charity	Disbursements
June 30, 1904	$2,454.75	$ 875.50
June 30, 1901	823.90	987.30
June 30, 1902	775.25	1,011.55
June 30, 1903	587.50	1,190.65
June 30, 1904	515.45	914.55
Total	$5,166.85	$4,925.55
